Subject Line: How to become the POWERFUL man you desire.

When you imagine yourself 10 years into the future, who do you see?

Is it a man with extreme wealth, a beast mentality, and an incomprehensible determination to succeed?

Someone who can get any woman he desires EFFORTLESSLY and a role model to other men?

Or do you see,

A man who stands in front of the mirror in disgust and witnesses his wants and desires be stolen,

Who loses the woman he loves to a more handsome, more successful man...
Don't use the word 'attractive' when you are writing this to men. Use words like hands

If you want to become the man you desire then,
