

Plastic Contemporary Art

Hook:

Everyone thought they were abstract sculptures but it turned out to be completely different.

Body:

This type of contemporary art uses human bodies as its main attraction and you won't believe how long they were in there. At first people thought that these are just sculptures but the tubes gave it all away and people started swarming all around them, the white tube was used as a vacuum and the transparent one maintained the airflow in order for them to breath. During the performance this individuals managed to stay 6 hours in the art show and they even described it as a relaxing and pleasant experience.

Loop:

So this is why... (back to the hook)
