

Close Readers Do These Things:

- Read entire piece to get the flow.
- Read small chunks to get the gist (and/or answer text-dependent questions).
- Underline key words or phrases, circle unfamiliar words, and focus on academic vocabulary.
- State the gist of the entire text (and/or answer text-dependent questions).
- Go back to the text to prove their answer and annotate.