- 122) Necromunda Hired Gun (The Gunplay is not satisfying, the movement is too janky, no reaction to being struck from the enemy AI, only 3-4 types of enemy. Everything feels so 'liquidy')
- 123) Shatterline - It ALMOST had everything I liked. But it only has two enemy types, two-weapon limit, it never allows you to change characters mid level unless you forcefully die. And it never saves your loadouts for each of the selectable characters. Meaning you have to waste 20 minutes putting the attachments to the guns of all playable characters every time you switch on the game.

I do NOT include Wave Based games like Megaton or Spacepunk Revival or CryOt Carnage, Crossbow.
