

“Worthy”

Revelation 5:6 says “And between the throne and the four living creatures and among the elders I saw a Lamb standing, as though it had been slain...” as I read this, I had an image of Christ standing before me, he looked like a perfect - untouched - lamb, but I knew he had been slaughtered. Slaughtered for my sake. He stood between me and the Father and He(the lamb) looked at me in such a way that was uncomfortable and intimidating. Not intimidating because he was scary, but because his existence demanded I recognize his authority. He is worthy. The lamb wore a humble crown and the angels worshiped, singing “Worthy is the Lamb, who was slain, to receive power and wealth and wisdom and strength and honor and glory and praise! ...To him who sits on the throne and to the Lamb be praise and honor and glory and power, forever and ever!” (Rev. 5:12-13). The Lamb is a focal point of not only the book of Revelation, but also of heaven. All I can think is “He is worthy!”
