

OFFICIAL STATEMENT
DYNASTY OF PESKEGUA

RESPONSE TO ZACH'S DOCUMENT

Zachary recently made a document that infused more drama within Peskegua despite this already all being public information. May I make clear that I really do not understand why Zach is acting so aggressive so suddenly despite being a loyal associate of his.

When I make this document, I make this out of a final chance of reconciliation within the BIU and with Zachary as a person. None of anything I say is bullshit or anything, as I really do not want to fight with GILGAROS considering the experiences we've had with larp.

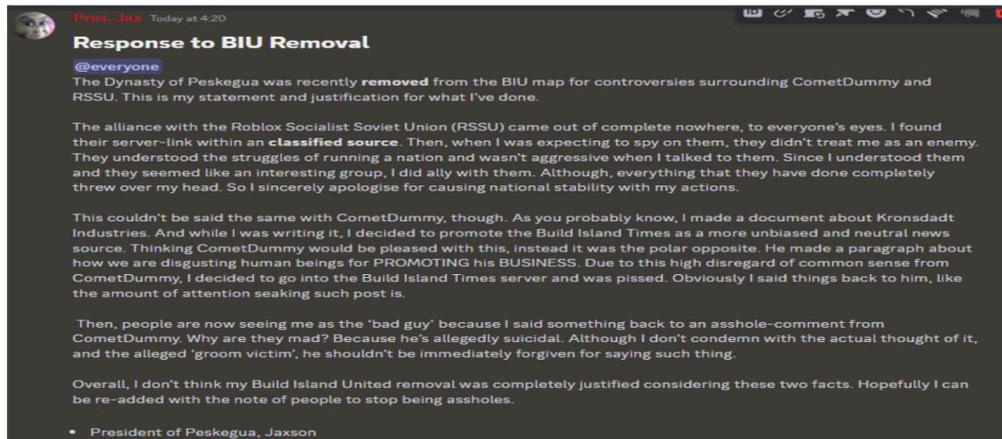

I'm just making this document to try and ease allegations down.

this sad excuse of a living being has been repeatedly told by me to shut the fuck up and dont do any more shit, but this time at this week he has done so much questionable bullcrap that i am going ahead and making this document and putting in the most amount of swears possible to express my hatred for this nimwitted dumbass that cant suck up a loss (if you wrote the word disappointment and made it even a slice of a nanometer wide, then wrote it on the entire pan-american highway without spaces and also made sure to put multiple layers to cover the entire road, you would not even come close to reaching 0.01% of my disappointment in this guy), keep in mind i would normally go more professional and stylized but im not in the mood for it. hang on tight as i decimate this moron reputation-wise

What have I done to you personally that makes you speak with so much hate?
Despite allying with RSSU due to something that Zach could never even comprehend, I do not understand why he is being so rude.
Why?

the sad excuse of a statement:

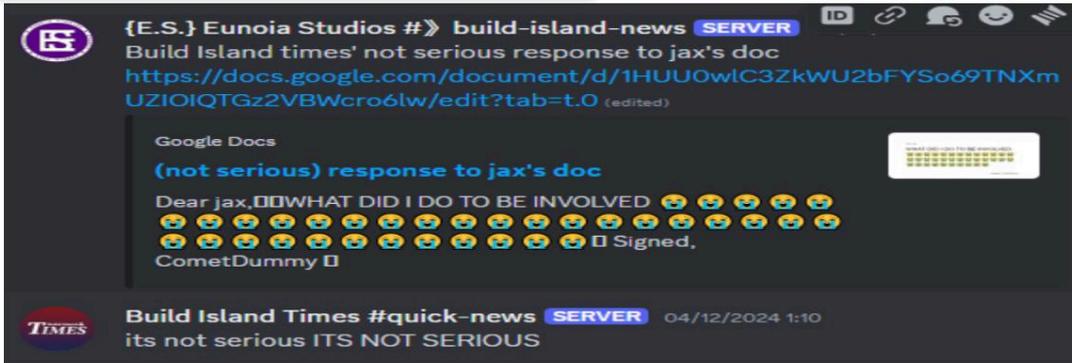

what the fuck is this? No seriously i need to know what the fuck are you trying to go along with this, i can go through each word and come up with a thousand thought written reasons on why the word you just said is complete BULLSHIT

This isn't really 'bullshit'. This is what happened and I was speaking completely honestly when I created this statement. This was the complete truth from my Point of View.

Bla bla bla blah wtf first of all, you found the source of the link in the mythra server, In the espionage channel and for some reason,, you didnt even check WHY it was even in there. If you had done some critical thinking then you would realize that the reason it's in the espionage channel is because RSSU are the fuckin BAD GUYS!! the RSSU looks friendly at a first glance but that is because they are desperately trying to manipulate you into thinking their server is squeakly clean, when in reality they've had a entire server wipe inorder to hide their reputation (see images below) you cannot excuse this with "it flew over my head", any sane person would take a double take on why it was even being spied on in the first place, which means that you most likely allied with them despite knowing what they did!! (you also said previously that you half-defend RSSU, how did you not research about them beforehand?)

RSSU did look friendly at first glance. That's the whole point of my justification of allying with them. Also, I said "half-defend RSSU" to prove that I wasn't being biased in my Kronstadt Document.

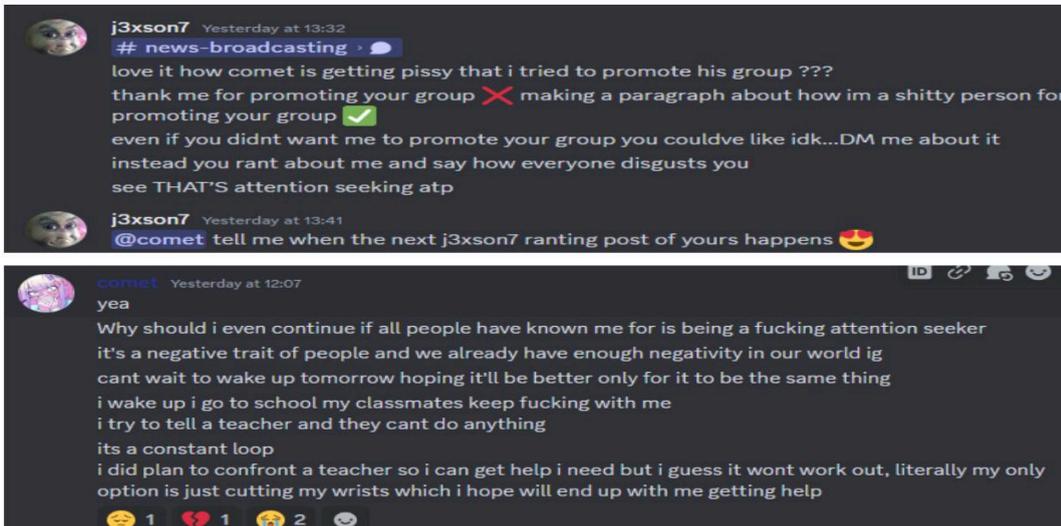

Here is bit asking you to stop including him, and you still did and that ended up with mfs like firstagamerfirst making bit look like a mythran propaganda machine!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

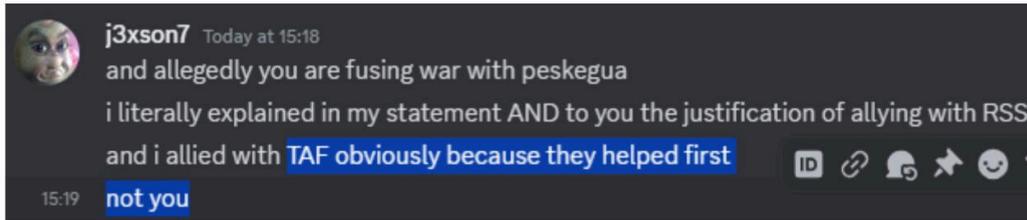

Zach, you've got this wrong. This was sent by Eunoia after I made my Kronstadt document. His serious response was the announcement he created.

you also mentioned that he was attention seeking, bitch you literally ranted while he was having a mental breakdown!!!!!!!!!!!!

I don't see why people are taking me as the bad person for responding to Comet's asshole announcement. HE made that announcement first, so I responded to him. I do not mean to sound rude, but this isn't an excuse to be an asshole. No one understands this.

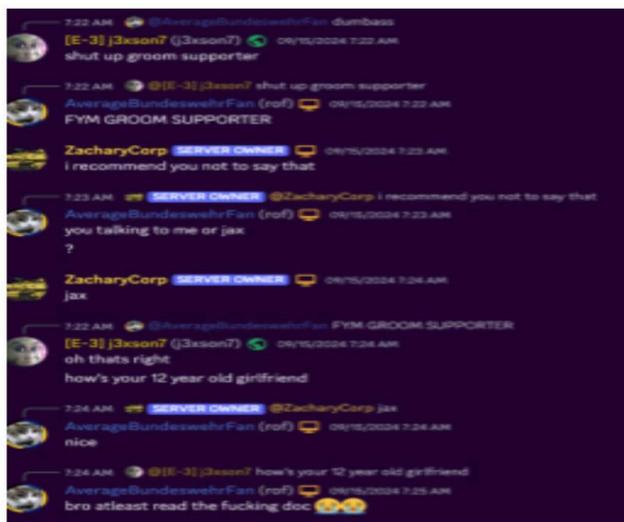

YOU DIDNT EVEN ASK ME TO FIGHT IN THE WAR YOU DIMWIT!!!!!!!!!!

I didn't ask TAF either. I didn't ask anyone. But TAF came and offered help. The people who YOU said were going to assist Peskegua in need when we half-merged didn't help out. I understood you didn't like TAF, but they helped and you didn't.

Conclusion:

Dont trust jax he will call you a pedophile even though you were the grooming victim

"Groom supporter" and "12 year old girlfriend". Wonder how that makes sense. You knew this, and still tried to take it out of context.

I am just going to say. Why, Zach? Where is this sudden urge of hate coming from? CometDummy went at me first. I went next.

Why?
