

Welcome to "Styke Calculator: Funny Mathin" privacy policy.

This app, developed by Styke Pictures, prioritizes privacy.

As an Android user, I understand the frustration of apps collecting data without consent. Rest assured, this app does not gather any personally identifiable information.

All data, like preferences or saves, is stored locally on your device and can be easily deleted by clearing the app's data or uninstalling it.

If you encounter any unintended security issues or have questions about how your privacy is protected, feel free to email me, and I'll do my best to help.

Yours sincerely,

Styke Pictures
