Script:

[Battle cry scream sfx]

I am Hellion. Therefore I seek the thrill of spilling blood.

(...)

I use my glaive to cut down my enemies from impressive reaches of combat.

[clanking of armor and metal sfx]

My razor sharp edge leaves ever lasting wounds on my enemies. Not like they will feel the pain for too long.

<scoff>

Because when I'm done with them... they will be nothing but another fountain to splurt out blood for me.

[Battle cry scream sfx]

Even under exhaustion I will kill. It is the way of my people and it's the thrill seek.

(...)

People think I'm crazy but I'm just being honest when I fight in battle.

[clanking of metal with groans sfx]

I live for battle. I breathe for the frontline and dare my foes to try and take me down. As I still breathe I haven't found an opponent who can.

<laugh>

I've torn through bandits who's fighting style reflected that of a flailing toddler.

(...)

Soldiers who think they have a chance but those naive souls don't know true battle. The only battle they will ever step foot in is the massacre of their entire army.

<laugh>

Just like the apex predator I will hunt them and tear them apart limb by limb to pieces. With no end to sight.

[Battle cry scream sfx]

The battle against beasts from beyond is what keeps the battle exciting. They are so barbaric in nature with no end in sight.

(...)

These creatures come in all shapes and sizes with various abilities. So furious and blood thirsty with the only goal in their primitive mind being that of battle and destruction.

<scoff>

Really gets the blood pumping... I LOVE IT!!!

<excited giggle>

Knowing two equal forces that want to fight are here. And only one gets to survive is the most adrenaline inducing things a Fallion like me can ever experience.

(...)

They have no fear... and neither do I. Blood will be spilt all over the battlefield with the strongest leaving with their lives. As well as the victor having a new trophy to hang on the wall.

(...)

Or in that the creatures that I will fight... a fresh meal to eat.

<laugh>

Let there be blood and may the elder spirits guide me and my group to victory.

<growl>

Let our harvest of battle be fruitful with the blood of our enemies. With the head of our most fearsome foes ready for our walls.

<wicked laugh>

I am Boudica, a Hellion. This is my purpose... to annihilate those in my way. With their blood to soak in. And with that being said....

GIVE ME THEIR BLOOODD!!!

GIVE ME BLOOOOOD!!!

<hysterical laughter>
