

Azam Ali

Since the last one and half decade I have been teaching Urdu language to students of various ages. I also worked as a 'Tester' for ICRC, where my job was to assess the Urdu language capability of applicants to ICRC. I have been associated with Ecolint for the last 13 years. Initially teaching Urdu language to beginning and intermediate classes at La Châtaigneraie. Later, as the need arose, I taught beginning, intermediate and then IB students at the Campus des Nations.
