VIOCASTA

Hello hello and welcome to my examples page!! Each category should be listed in the tabs section for easy navigation, pieces are in order from latest to oldest :D

☆

While most things are mentioned on my pricing site I would just like to note that when it comes to pieces I am very flexible, please don't be afraid to ask for something that doesn't line up with what you see on here, as an artist I am looking to grow! To go with that, also be ask specific as you'd like and please ask questions if you have them

☆

My only concrete will not do's are pieces that support Hate speech / prejudice, non-consensual situations, ANY suggestive art including underage characters, or fetishes.
In short, please just use moral thinking lolsies!
Thank you ^^

I, Sir Bedivere, knight of Loyalty pledge that in another life our souls will stick together remain loyal to each other
I pledge my soul to you, Sir Percival, that in another life, a kinder time, we might find each other again and rekindle these feelings.
And in this life, we will make do with what we can.
I, Sir Percival, Knight of the Holy Order pledge my loyalty to you, Sir Bedivere, that no matter how long it takes, no matter how many caves or mountains or seas we must travel through, I will find you.
And we will not let these feelings of passion perish with our mortal bodies. This I pledge to you.
