

Letter of Submission for Pre-publication of Article in Chinese Journal of Social Science and Management

Dear Chinese Journal of Social Science and Management Editor,

Whereas I,

.....

have sent an article entitled:

.....

for publication in Chinese Journal of Social Science and Management (CJSSM), and the Journal's Editorial Board has already received it, I and the co-author (if any) would like to declare that the presented article has not been published in any other journal before, or has not been accepted for publication in other journals or other publication places. I and the co-author accept the criteria for consideration of the manuscript and consent to allowing the Journal's Editorial Board to have the rights to consider and revise the manuscript as deemed appropriate. Furthermore, I entrust the copy right of the published article to Panyapiwat Institute of Management. Should there be any legal accusation on copy right violation concerning any figure, graph, illustration, and expression or opinions appearing in the article, I and the co-author are willing to take sole responsibility for the case.

Should Chinese Journal of Social Science and Management Editorial Board discovers later that an endorsement of this letter is not true, the Journal's Editorial Board has the right to immediately revoke the author's article from the Journal without having to inform the author in advance; and finally, all authors would like to certify and agree to act in accordance with the above agreement. So, I and all co-authors sign our names at the end of this letter.

Main author's signature (First name)
