

Vegetables TEXT

Created by Amy Shepherd M.Ed.

The broccoli.

Salient Features: Broccoli is a green vegetable that grows in dome-shaped bunches.

Look...

I see a vegetable that is green and grows in dome-shaped bunches.

What is it?

It's broccoli.

Find the broccoli.

The carrot.

Salient Features: Carrots are orange and long. When they grow, they have a leafy green stem.

Look...

I see a vegetable that is orange and long. When it grows, it has a leafy green stem.

What is it?

It's a carrot.

Find the carrot.

The tomato.

Salient Features: Tomatoes are round and red and have a green stem on top.

Look...

I see a vegetable that is round, red, and has a green stem on top.

What is it?

It's a tomato.

Find the tomato.

The corn.

Salient Features: Corn is long and tubular in shape. It has many small, yellow round kernels that can be eaten.

Look...

I see a long, tubular vegetable with many small, yellow, round kernels that can be eaten.

What is it?

It's corn.

Find the corn.

The cucumber.

Salient Features: Cucumbers are long, green vegetables with a small stem at one end.

Look...

I see a vegetable that is long, and green with a small stem at one end.

What is it?

It's a cucumber.

Find the cucumber.