FEB 20, 2023

Hi! Am interested in kemono? Idk if I spelled that right I apologize XD but interested in commissioning for that slot:)

hello, I'm very glad that you are interested in my style, show me your character?)

FEB 20, 2023

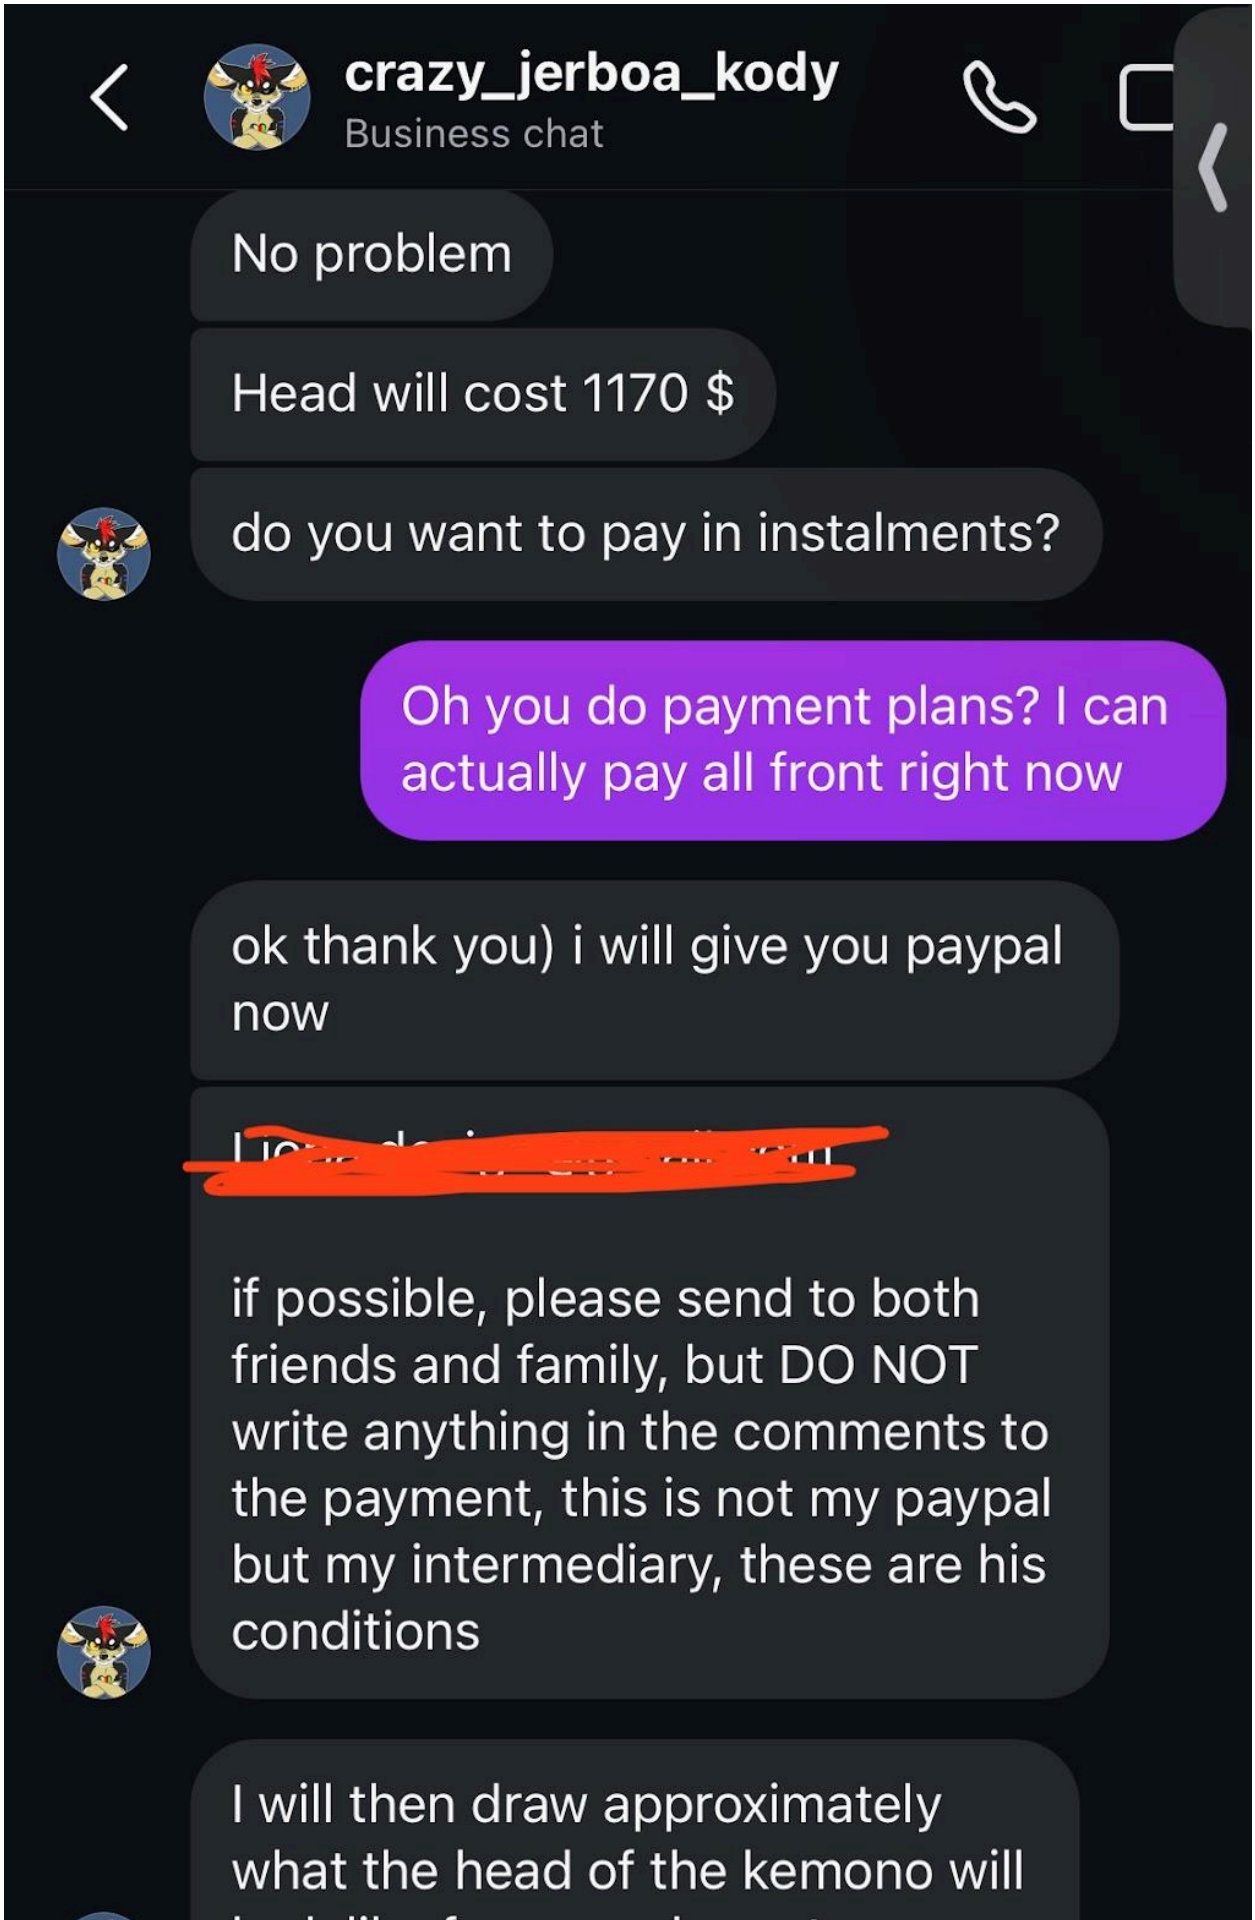

Sure thing! Sorry for late reply just now getting off work

I Wasn’t technically commissioning them, but communication went through them. Commissioned a Kemono suit from their brother (which later down road removed their name from bio) who had an open slot! Everything went absolutely smoothly. We talked about my character, how much everything would be.

Biggest red flag was sending money through friends and family to their brother. WHICH I SHOULD HAVE NOT DONE AT ALL I FULLY REGRET IT. I was in a rush and excited to get my character done. I’ve told them that this character means the world to me.

Head will cost 1170 $
do you want to pay in instalments?
Oh you do payment plans? I can actually pay all front right now ok thank you) i will give you paypal now [redacted]
if possible, please send to both friends and family, but DO NOT write anything in the comments to the payment, this is not my paypal but my intermediary, these are his conditions
I will then draw approximately what the head of the kemono will

Conversation was FEB 21, 2023
After we talked they told me they will update me with a drawing of my character, so I can get a preview of how it will look. Two days pass I asked how the drawing was going. I didn't think it was going to take too long since in my head I was thinking of just a sketch drawing. Messaged them that question on FEB 23,2023. They messaged back FEB 24.2023 saying "sorry my cat got sick" I will draw it soon. I said " I completely understand and got 7 cats of my own" and hope they get better! Little convo happened with cats but after sending decent paragraphs about my cats they didn't message back till MARCH 2, 2023- after I sent messages asking how the cats? And was also curious about the drawing. Right after that message I sent. They send a drawing! Nothing too important happened during that time besides me asking for any updates on MARCH 11, 2023. They messaged back next day MARCH 12, 2023. Saying they Ordered some supplies.

During that time didn't click afterwards that we didn't choose fur which all makers do before slapping fur on a base…..will see down below.

Asked for updates again on MARCH 18,2023 gave them a full week span of asking for updates because I thought maybe that was okay? And that wasn't too much pressure? After sending messages on that day. Never got a message back. Sent another message on MARCH 23,2023, nothing then as well, sent another message on MARCH 28, 2023. They messaged saying "sorry I was offline, now I will put in lenses and take a picture". I sent messages saying how excited I was and sorry if I came off rude. Soon after they send pictures of the base!

All Proof here⬇️

getting quite worried since I commissioned you. Only update I got was u order some stuff. Any type of update of what going on would be nice:)

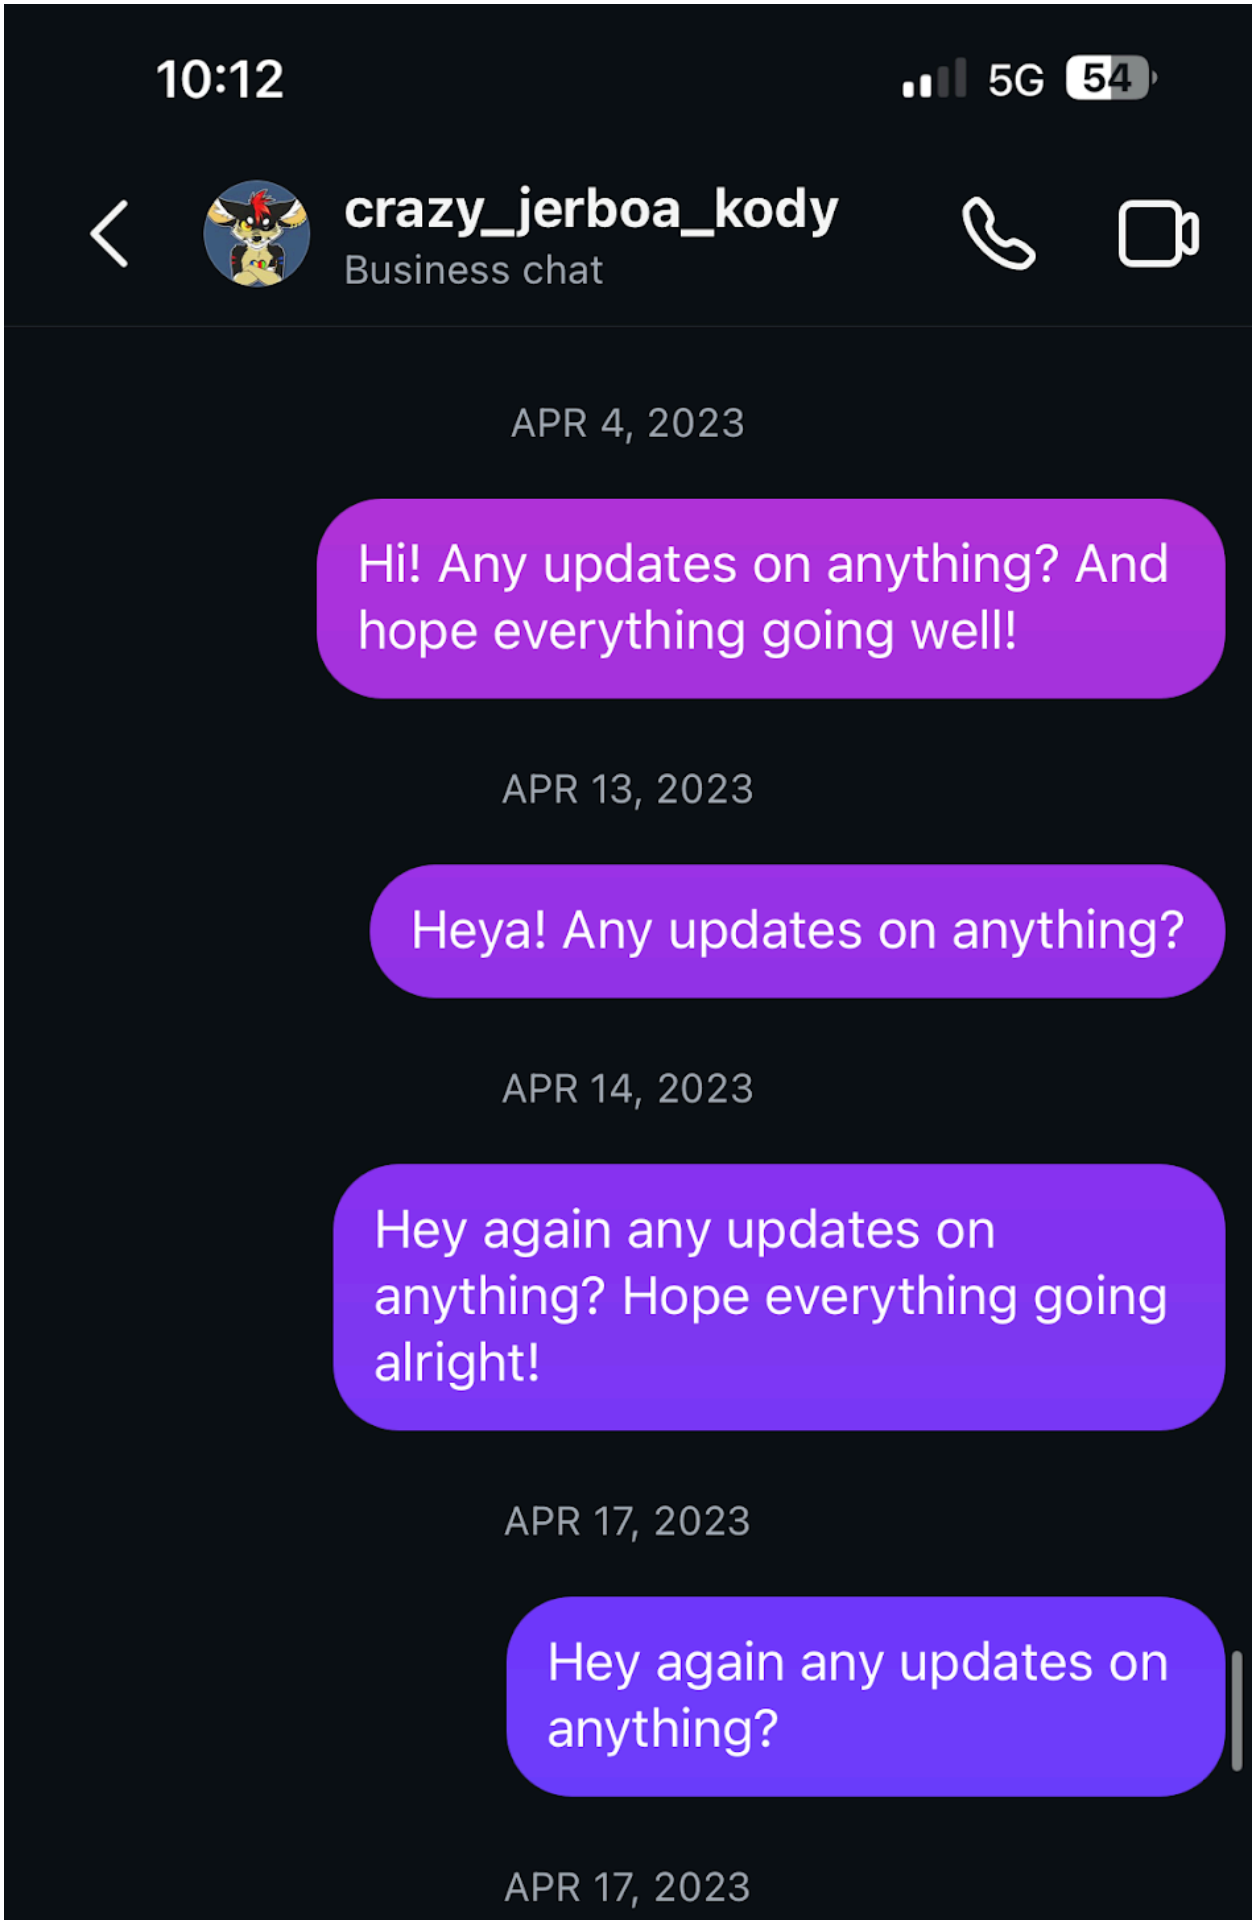

hello, sorry, I was offline , now I will put the lenses and take a picture) I made the base

Oh excited! Sorry if I came off rude I wasn't trying be mean about anything! I was just getting little worried that all 😊 hope everything going alright, thank you again for messaging me back!

We talked about the base, asked them to change the ears to be more round and big cat liked! They messaged back on March 30, 2023 saying “yes) then I first think I will cover it with fur, I will make ears, and there we will correct)”.

I didn’t message back till ARP 4,2023 again asking for updates. During this time I did feel like I was pushy. ⬇️

APR 17, 2023

Same day ARP 17,2023 I said “Thank you!! And you’re totally fine i understand!”

They messaged ARP 19,2023 on their own sending wips of the base with fur. I messaged back saying “Hi! I really like what you did but colors are not correct colors. I hate for you to have to change everything again and restart. My character colors are more peach than tan, and bright pink. But blue colors are correct”.

This is the character I sent⬇️ PLEASE DO NOT COPY/TRACE/ STEAL!

Proof⬇️ this goes back to me not realizing we never went over the fur colors.

After this we talked for hour or so going over fur colors that could match correctly with my character colors. What confuses me was you drew my character with correct colors but fur with wrong colors?? Got me thinking did you know whole time did wrong fur color?.

They said can tint color to right shade and saying they don't have such of peach fur and that ordering it takes such long time. They also sent picture of fur color that was pretty close but fur was long and shaggy not really shaveable. Which I said "That understandable just character gave you doesn't look like anything you made. If there is any way can make what you have identical as my character that be awsome! Just Mello she very special to me and I like her look at least identical to her ref sheet❤️. After little talking we ended messages there.

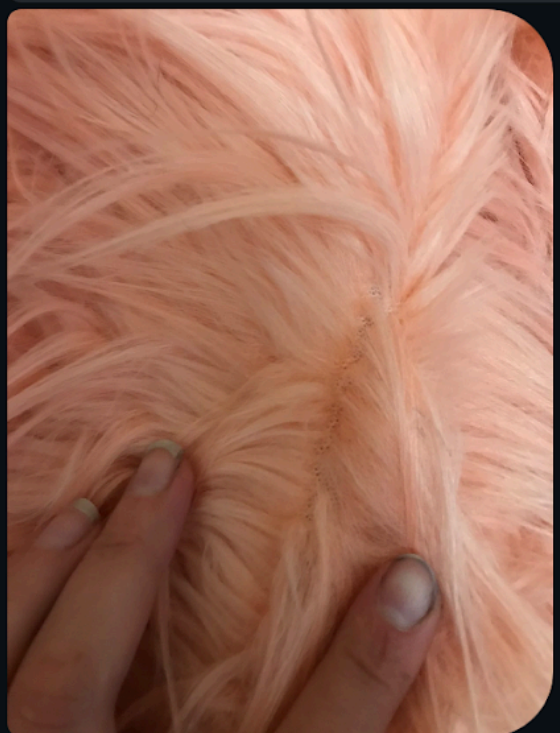

They messaged again ARP 20,2023 sending fur colors! I said "It's pretty close to color is their a lighter color u can find? If not I think I have something close to light color on her". I then messaged back some fur colors on same day. Again we talked about fur colors for longgg time! Was one message they sent saying they couldn't "i just can't order from america now, she doesn't pick up the fur now, i can only pick up a similar shade close to yours". THIS MAKER IS IN RUSSIA by the way.. I honestly have no idea why they couldn't? I sent message saying "Ah oh okay! If want to look for something similar to what I sent and send to me and I'll pick what I think fits best! Again I don't mind waiting for fur come in :) Ik will put pause on my commission I'm totally fine with that!". They said "I will look for furs, send you a link) if you want, I can offer another option, you can buy this fur yourself and send it to the address of my intermediary, and he will send it to me?). After that we agreed on fur color. And conversation basically ended there. APR 20,23. Here some screen shots of that conversation!⬇️

I can tint it so that the shade is right, but I don't have such a shade of peach fur, and ordering it takes a very long time

I have the right shade, but it is only suitable for guns on the side, it is very liquid, and if you cut it, there will be a lot of bald spots

It’s pretty color! But not color looking for 😖 I’m guessing we going have go with some type of light pink color I sent? I really hope I’m not troubling you with this 😖 and on the ears, and in the back it will be such a long shade?

So one you sent that you have now are you able replace tan with that? I remember you saying shaving it wouldn't be good or something like that? If not able do that i think one of fur colors you sent from website would work:)

After that message ⬆️ I messaged MAY 1, 2023 asking for updates APR 20 to MAY 1 is pretty big cap with no communication. They didn’t message back to any of these messages⬇️

WHERE IS MY SUIT I PAYED FOR??? no emails, no communication... I will put beware on you and google dock. I really don't want have go this route. I've waited long enough and patiently enough for any communication.
I've lost hope and trust in you and myself to even commission anyone else.
Lost communication got from you was this.... And that was in October it's now December will hit 2 years soon waiting on a suit I

This message here I sent very very rencently⬆️ DEC 12,2024!

THIS BASICALLY SHOWS MY EXPERIENCE WITH THE MAKER AND WHAT I BEEN DEALING WITH. I don't know what is going on there end. All I wanted was some type of communication. I can only communicate with them between INSTA AND EMAILS. Another thing I had to do pay shipping twice. First one was 100 something dollars which is fine! Then after suit got sent back to them I had pay 60$ my half. All because my suit got sent back from mistake they made I guess?

My suit is done. Sad to know that I might not get her at all. That just money wasted all down the drain. Until then all I can do is hope to get messages back or emails. Other than that I can't report anything nor ask for a refund. MY STUPID SELF AGREED GO WITH FRIENDS AND FAMILY. HUGE MISTAKE EVER. I've talked to friends and family about my issue. I been holding this google doc off for a longggg time. Finally letting it off my chest.Thank you for reading.

Please if you have any questions feel free DM! @voodoocatty I won't respond to rude messages at all. Will be fully ignored or possibly blocked.
