

This is a Document that I've made in Notes App on my iPad Mini 4TH Generation & shared here on Google Docs & my Cool Friends on Discord that I have lost, as of Sunday, 5/17/2020, this is gonna be a pretty Long Document & due to them not understanding anything about me at all & refusing to listen, when 2 of my Discord Friends were helping me out on what happened, I need them to read this closely & at least try to listen and/or understand some things about me from there & I'm gonna try my best to say this on here, even some of the things I say may not sound right & may end up sounding offensive, rude, etc., even if I didn't mean to be so.

Now, how all of this started, going from when a New RP Rule took place on Saturday, 5/16/2020 because of my Bad Roleplaying Habits, after what Kirbytone & KlonoaGrovyale64 told me here to why the New RP Rule was there because of me, as said in the Main Chat Channel on the Ocean Desert Cabin Server ,

You kept forcing a lot of people (and their tupperware) into the plot when they didn't have the time to rp

And also you controlled peoples actions

Sometimes you godmod and change up the plot

And make our get involved when they're not part of the plot to begin with.

instead of listening to them & following & managing with that New RP Rule to not go any further in what I was doing & causing bad things to happen on me next, I chose to temporarily leave the Ocean Desert Cabin & KlonoaGrovyale64's Servers, as even though another way, but to especially get my roleplaying back on track before rejoining the Servers & continuing my roleplaying with them in a much better way to not make the same Mistakes again, although I was still on Tyler H's Server however, as roleplaying wasn't done much on that Server & I especially needed a break from it to again, get my roleplaying back on track before continuing in a much better way & all, but the next day, as I was waking up in the late morning (As my Body was itchy at the time & couldn't sleep any further & I usually wake up in the early afternoon...), the bad things unexpectedly happen on me anyway automatically by what they decided about me after my temporarily leaving the Ocean Desert Cabin & KlonoaGrovyle64's Servers to get my roleplaying back on track & doing much better the next time, when rejoining the Servers & continuing the roleplaying, as I got banned from all the 3 Servers & lost my Cool Friends on there, like Kirbytone, KlonoaGrovyle64, Tyler H, Romeo1900 (Who is especially 1 of LemmyFan123's Good Friends...), Grovyle Junior (Although he didn't accept my Friend Request at the time & was left pending before all of this from me temporarily leaving the Servers...), Aeon, StealthySceptile, etc., including a User I don't know much of, who's on a Server that I'm still currently on right now, as they've unfriended & blocked me & when I saw it happening on me right in front of me during my waking up, I started freaking out, as to let you know that losing things happens to be my Biggest Fear, ever since what I accidentally did back on Friday, 8/20/2010, as I was 13 at the time of this accidental incident happening, which I'll tell you guys this another time, although I didn't lose Mew2.5 however, which is Good News, as he's still my Friend & he felt bad for me, plus he like explained something about that he had the same problem with the roleplaying as what I'm currently going through right now & what he had to do to not make the same Mistakes again, as his roleplaying is now much better, but after what happened with my unexpected banning from all the 3 Servers & losing the Cool Friends that I had over my roleplaying except Mew2.5, who's still my Friend, I had him & another Friend of mine from other Servers, named Ariel Martínez help me out a little, as I told them via DM on what happened & especially after a Guide that Ariel gave me to what I should & should not do in the roleplaying for the next time to not make the same Mistakes again, which is what Kirbytone & KlonoaGrovyle64 had said, as the same thing in their way to what Ariel was giving me a Guide on via DM, although I was especially afraid of the situation being unfixable until later on, which will be said further in the Document, I was like a little bit later that I would try, which that allowed him to try & help me out by convincing them to give me a 2ND chance without begging, but as I still had the Invite to the Ocean Desert Cabin Server though, while I was banned from it with the Invite being invalid on my side due to the ban, when I gave him the Invite for him to enter the Server to try & help me out with the situation, this is what was going on to when he sent me this Screenshot via DM, after entering the Server to try & help me out.

how_you_get_here

I was reading the rules

Kirbytone Today at 12:51 AM

Alright. Please tell us where you got the invite.

Ariel Martínez Today at 12:53 AM

Tbh, Josh m gave me the invite so I could talk here about his actions for which he got banned That I do believe are justified on your part

Kirbytone Today at 1:03 AM

Oh wait

Sorry

Let me rephrase

(Moderation can be more stricter at midnight.)

So he gave you the invite.

Ariel Martínez Today at 1:08 AM

I'm not here to beg, just to say I gave him a list to things he shouldn't do while rping, he said he will try to follow them in case you give him a second chance, that's all since I don't want to be insistent on this and bev for him to be unbanned (edited)

Ariel Martínez Yesterday at 6:41 PM

You have to try to have more consideration on others, try this

.if they aren't looking to rp or they don't join to your rp themselves, don't bring them into it

. If they have to leave or don't feeñ like rping, let Then Be

After what was said in there, they kicked him from the Server like moments later or right away & probably blocked him, which doesn't make any sense though of how you'd be kicked/banned from the Server(s) and/or blocked from the Users on there for helping to what's going on, as helping is basically not doing anything wrong at all; you're just trying to help & especially being helpful & all for Example, plus they removed the Invite to it as well to have it be expired on everybody's side, unless a New Invite is sent by the Users, who are the Owners, Admins, or Moderators of that Server.

But any who, going back to what's going on over me, when Mew2.5 was trying to help me out as well, as he's still on the Ocean Desert Cabin & KlonoaGrovyale64's Servers & they're especially still Friends with him, when he was like in a DM to Kirbytone that they've unfriended & blocked me over what happened during my waking up, here's what Kirbytone said in this Screenshot that Mew2.5 sent me of via DM to why I was banned from the 3 Servers & blocked from the Users on there. ↓

Now, yeah that I did leave the Server(s) because of the New RP Rule, but that was only temporary to get my roleplaying back on track & having it go better & not worse for the next time, when rejoining them & after what Kirbytone has explained over what I was doing in the roleplaying, some Tupper that I've especially made to interact with theirs, well, it wasn't just that, like that even though the Avatars for their Tupper looked nice & all, but especially as I happen to like things or People/Characters in Pairs sometimes, I do create some Tupper for other things as well, like when adding more Tupper into the roleplays or whatever.

Like, I don't just get stuck on 1 thing all the time, as especially back at a School that I used to go to, during my Final School Year before graduation, part of due to moving a few months later that would make me a bit father from that School that I used to go to, they especially taught me how to multitask, especially when me & my Class were at a Laundromat every Wednesday to work on doing Laundry & stuff, although Laundry happens to be my Favorite Chore because of the Washer/Dryer Machines that I like.

I may have an obsession though on what Tupperware that they're using & causing me to create & copy of, but with a different/similar Name & Avatar, but still.

Any who, going back to the situation here, as Kirbytone said another thing in there, being over my curiosity, as he was like to when I end some of my Sentences with "out of curiosity", he especially asked if I was trying to get them in trouble & I wasn't trying to get anyone in trouble at all.

That had nothing to do with my curiosity of what goes on or what I just want to know about in general, etc..

I was only curious to know what goes on, even if something important is going on at the time or if I just want to know something in general, etc., that's all.

Nothing major or anything; curiosity is just a general thing.

Some people just get curious on what goes on or what they just want to know about in general, etc..

Then as Kirbytone was like in there "So we blocked him, so he won't blame us for basically bothering us, when we're busy doing other things while we somehow have Discord open.", I blame nobody, as they weren't doing anything wrong at all especially.

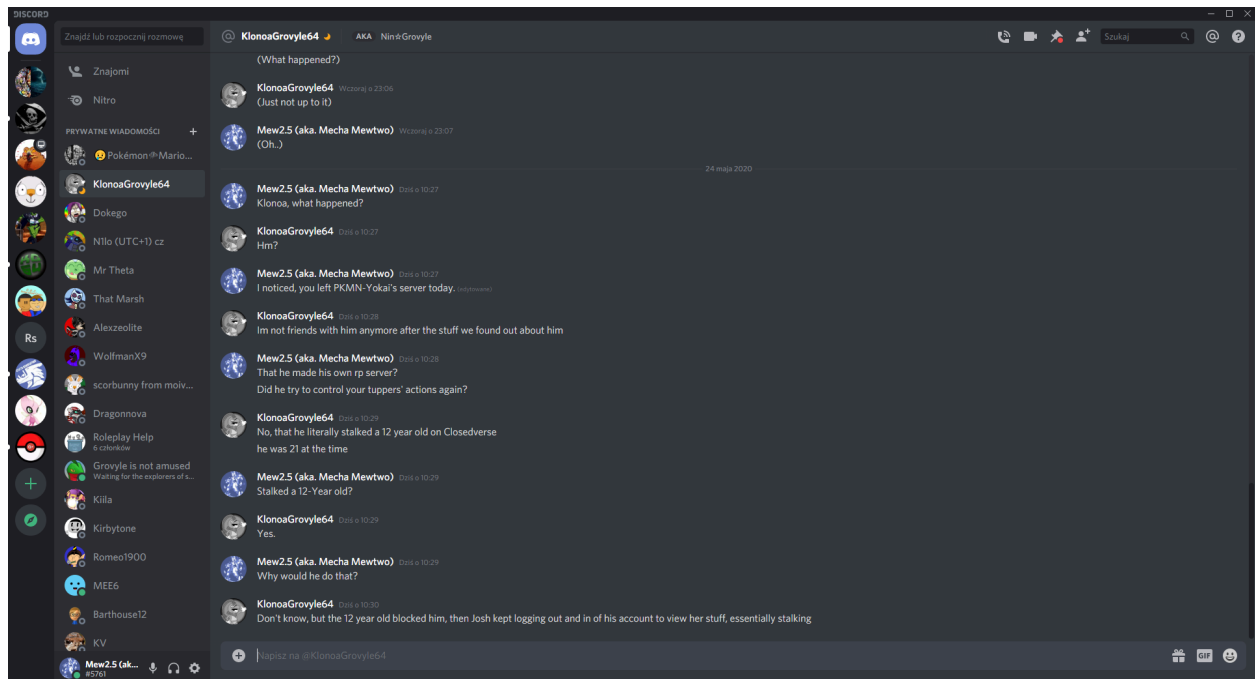

"We were not trying to be mean to the guy." Well, at first, I guess, IDK, but what happens later about that, which will be said further in the Document.

And 1 thing to not forget in there, when he was also like before he said that they blocked me to not blame them for whatever, which still I that I blame nobody on, that I write stuff for too long, like I'm still in School, even though I'm not in School anymore, since May 2015, basically that I explain a lot to what goes on & stuff & the problem being to my knowledge that if I only wrote 1 Sentence to what goes on instead of Paragraphs to explain the situation or whatever, that may give the others the Upper Hand every single time, especially when I'm trying to explain on what goes on.

Even only saying 1 Word to what goes on wouldn't help any at all, as that'd automatically give the others the Upper Hand every single time.

Next, when Mew2.5 was talking to KlonoaGrovyle64 with this situation via DM, as he, who also blocked me, as part of my banning from the 3 Servers & all over my roleplaying, what he has said of not being Friends with me anymore, now because of what else was going on about me to when Mew2.5 asked if it was because of me making my own RP Server or if I was trying to control other people's Tupper's Actions again, here's what he said in there in this Screenshot also sent to me by Mew2.5 via DM. ↓

Basically a Past that I was leaving behind & moving on from, it was brought up, as this Document here about it made by Sabrina to what happened back then at <https://docs.google.com/document/d/1DY4VEfMcFeLZaUNAXOjAl6MoGf0KeX3q7owp3ISIP9M/edit?usp=sharing> between before & after I joined Discord in December 2018, while the Miiverse Clones were still there at the time before they discontinued early last year in early April.

What I did to a 12-year-old on there especially, named Discount-Kraken, in harassing her off from the Miiverse Clone, Oasis & causing me to be banned from it a little before the discontinuation of it, that was majorly wrong to what I did & now I know to try & not do that again, as basically that harassing people is normally against the Law & I can get arrested for it, if I continued to harass someone, whether it's online, in Real Life, etc..

Apparently, I was lucky on this one & did not get arrested for it or otherwise, I wouldn't be on the Miiverse Clones (Now discontinued except for 1 still standing, being Uiiverse that I'm not on...) nor Discord that I'm on today & interacting with you guys on, as my Social Media Accounts would be terminated & I would be stuck for a very long time or permanently in Prison & as a Real Life Best Friend of mine told me to as he was arrested a lot before back when he was younger before I even met him at that School I went to, I wouldn't spend a minute in Prison, as me, I'd freak out to death & have a massive heart attack, if I was arrested & locked in Prison for a very long time or permanently.

So, to be sure to not do that again or I may get unlucky & arrested next time & I surely don't want that to happen on me or for 1 thing that I'd be missing you guys entirely.

Then after a while of Mew2.5 & Ariel helping me out with this, around a week later came to a Group Chat (Named as "josh talk" a little bit later...) that was made by probably Romeo1900, unless by someone else with Mew2.5 & Ariel being in it & when I asked in a Group Chat (Roleplay Help) that I've made if a Family Member of mine, named Silver would join the josh talk Group Chat to try & help as well with my situation, although when Ariel responded back & said this to what'd right now make sense over what's going on ↓,

Ariel Martínez 05/26/2020

I don't think so, if we invite more people in they might leave the group themselves
Cause they might think we will keep bringing people in to try to convince them as Mew2.5 invited her to the Group Chat even though, here's what ended up happening to what Kirbytone has said in there over it in this Screenshot sent by Mew2.5 via the Roleplay Help Group Chat, as Ariel would be right on what would happen, if more Users were added to the Group Chat, although on Group Chats, they can only go up to 10 Users per Group Chat. ↓

Kirbytone, Klonoa...

that, his reputation was already a bad one.
He threaten to kill a kid for reporting him, and he made a 'Court now in session' video at another kid just for picking Ryu in his tournament without knowing he wasn't allowed to.
And besides, if you EXPECT us to say no to giving Josh a second chance, why keep going on about it?

Ariel Martínez Today, 11:34 PM

Because we see how Josh is about all this that we want to try anyway

Mew2.5 (aka. Mecha Mewtwo) Today, 11:34 PM

And we cant stop trying tho.

Mew2.5 (aka. Mecha Mewtwo) dodał(-a)

Today, 11:36 PM

Kirbytone Today, 11:36 PM

Well, newsflash: The discussion is final. There's nothing that can make us change our minds after all he's done.

Mew2.5 (aka. Mecha Mewtwo) Today, 11:36 PM

Afterwards, especially as Mew2.5 was like in the Roleplay Help Group Chat that it will work (As before this, he was especially like to my Lost Friends via DM or whatever that if he was them, he'd give me another chance for me to try & do better this time without making the same Mistakes from the last time...), this is when things started to go way downhill between me & my Lost Friends, when Kirbytone started to yell next & being somewhat mean or so about me (No offense...) in another Screenshot also sent by Mew2.5 via the Roleplay Help Group Chat

Kirbytone, Klonoa...

Anyway, thanks for reading guys. If you have any questions or concerns, feel free to ask. ❤️

Ariel Martínez Dzisiaj, 23:48

I even gave him a guide to follow so he tries to not make the same mistakes

Mew2.5 (aka. Mecha Mewtwo) Dzisiaj, 23:49

I even explained how I had been acting like in my early years of social media.

Kirbytone Dzisiaj, 23:49

Firstly, family? That's a felony. We KNEW Josh is sending his family over to continuously bother us.

Secondly, IT'S JUST A ROLEPLAY THAT WE EITHER WEREN'T INVOLVED IN OR WE WERE FORCED INTO. It's not any of this s%t has to be cannon. It's just something we do for fun.

Thirdly, yes, we know Josh has autism. I have autism too. So does Sabrina and maybe KG. But what does that mean to all the s%t he did to me, KG, Tyler, and the rest? Oh, take a guess--NOTHING. Also, I am not an English Teacher, so I don't give 12 s%t about your (Well, despite what Kirbytone is saying in there, but still. I mean, he probably thinks in there that I've done another something that's against the Law or so with so called "Family Felony" that he's saying, as the first thing to say in there before what else he said in there about me. And also, my Family don't have Discord Accounts, as there's no way right now for them to even continuously bother my Lost Friends, other than Silver for the having a Discord Account part, although she wouldn't continuously bother anyone at all however, but although that she's not autistic, unlike me, who is moderately autistic (No excuse for Autism though to what everyone knows about...) & what Silver has told me in person although that she's dealt with situations like these & she'd especially try to help me out & all, depending on what goes on...), although I was trying to stay out of & not making things worse, but to just read what my Friends send me in Screenshots, whether it's via DM, Group Chat, other Servers, etc. (Even if I'm in the Group Chat, which I was for a bit before leaving it for now, but only to read what goes on & not sending any Messages on there to try & make things unexpectedly worse on me...) to what goes on, as I especially didn't want to make them even more upset at or about me than how they are already, after all of this because of my Bad Roleplaying Habits that started this situation on me.

Then in another Screenshot also sent by Mew2.5 via the Roleplay Help Group Chat to what happens a few minutes later ,

Mew2.5 (aka. Mecha Mewt... Today, 12:30 AM

And we ALL know, how terrible it is.

Ariel Martínez Today, 12:30 AM

But he knows now and since then

Kirbytone Today, 12:31 AM

Well then ENOUGH SHUTTING ME UP AND ASKING TO GIVE THAT DIRTY SLUTTY
MOTHER FUCKER ANOTHER CHANCE!!!

Shinxey Today, 12:31 AM

First of all, you're wrong. It wasn't because of him stalking people that he got banned. They did not know about that until later. It was because he was constantly harassing people to roleplay with him and pinging/DMing people for things even after they've said to stop MANY times.

Second, using someone's autism to excuse bad behavior is foul.

Third, The thing is also that he DID know it was wrong at the time because I and many others have told him to stop it in the past before he started making more people angry and losing more friends

after Mew2.5's saying that we all know how terrible it is, while Ariel's saying that I know now & since then, Kirbytone especially refuses to listen to them & yells more & starts exploding about me, as he says enough on shutting him up & asking to give me another chance, when nobody is trying to nor telling him to shut up at all; they're just trying to explain the whole situation I'm currently going through & convincing them without begging to give me another chance, plus he also calls me a Name that is very rude, very mean, very hurtful, & very wrong (A Dirty Slutty Motherf***er...What the heck! 😞 I didn't even do anything hurtful to him, as in that I wasn't mean to him at all, even if I may have forced him into the roleplaying or controlling his Tupper's Actions, etc. that it's only a small Mistake that I can & am trying to fix, even if what I've done on the Miiverse Clones back in the Past that I now & since then know to not do so again, as in the Now Time, I haven't even done anything to (directly) hurt him, I haven't even yelled at him at all, I haven't even harassed him or anything, etc.), as he has literally (directly) hurt me without me even being on the josh talk Group Chat nor saying anything to anybody in there or anything & I feel completely attacked by him for like little to no reason or so, when he could rather understand my problems & what I'm currently going through with them & allowing me a 2ND chance for me to try & fix them to not make the same Mistakes again.

However, after Kirbytone yelling & exploding about me & calling me that Dirty Name that's just very rude, very mean, very hurtful, & very wrong, Sabrina makes a Long Message in there about me, which I guess that some or all of it in there makes sense, such as what I did in the Servers to why I got banned & blocked, which I'm even though working on fixing to not make those Mistakes again, especially with the roleplaying thing to when Mew2.5 told me & them that he's, again, had the same problem before with the roleplaying & what he had to do to not make the same Mistakes again, when roleplaying on different Servers (Did I really harass them into the roleplaying though, as is forcing basically harassing or...?), the no excuse for Autism part, definitely makes sense & everyone knows that Autism is not nor will ever be an excuse, even if you're lowly, moderately, or highly autistic or whatever, the thing of as I did know that what I did was especially majorly wrong & yeah that I didn't care much nor even stop, when they told me to stop, as I especially do get very carried away & I gotta work on controlling that, even as much as possible, & even if it's against the Server Rules to beg to be unbanned & back on the Servers, when my 2 Friends were trying to help me out, they weren't begging at all however & even though it failed, I do at least thank my 2 Friends for trying, as for when she said in there last "but he is also NOT exempt from those rules", right now, I sorta don't understand that part.

Then where before it ends & the Group Chat gets deleted by Romeo1900 a little bit later, who was the Owner of that Group Chat, plus with Mew2.5 giving up & not spending his midnight with all of this to what's going on about me (As it was especially his Bedtime at his Time Zone, while it was Daytime here in AZ at the time...), in this Final Screenshot also sent by Mew2.5 via the Roleplay Help Group Chat ,

Ariel Martínez Today, 12:33 AM

Yeah he was

paige Today, 12:33 AM

what KlonoaGrovyle64 has said in there that when someone gets banned, they stay banned, I'd get what he's saying, but however, that's not always true, as back on Miiverse for Example, I've been banned before & some of my Bans were False Bans & only like once or a few times that the Miiverse Admins've listened & lifted my Ban for me to continue the use of Miiverse, while as what Tyler H said in there after KlonoaGrovyle64's saying about the banning that's not always true, when I started by leaving the Server(s), which again was only temporary to get my roleplaying back on track & doing better without making the same Mistakes again, when rejoining later & continuing the roleplaying with them, about me then trying to guilt trip them to get myself unbanned, I wasn't even trying to although, even if I've freaked out over seeing myself getting banned from the Servers & blocked from those Users right in front of me during my waking up due to my Itchy Body at the time & even if Mew2.5 & Ariel tried to help me out with this situation that even though ended up in a fail & if they think that I did, even if I didn't, I would apologize for that however, but seriously though, I don't like losing things, like losing the Servers in being banned from them & losing even the Cool Friends in having them unfriend and/or block me for Example, as it really hurts me, scares me to death, etc., especially as it feels exactly like a Nightmare, even if some Nightmares end up coming true or whatever.

Well, as all I can say & as I've tried my very best to say all of this, even if some things in here don't turn out right or whatever, they can keep me banned from the 3 Servers & they can keep me unfriended/blocked & not giving me more chances at all, if they want to, but I would like to at least apologize for everything I've done that was majorly wrong, whether it was back in the Past on the Miiverse Clones with especially harassing someone off of the Miiverse Clone, Oasis or earlier last month over my Bad Roleplaying Habits on the 3 Servers of Ocean Desert Cabin, KlonoaGrovyle64, & Tyler H, etc. & I am trying to get better now to not make the same Mistakes again, even if it's hard to do so & they may think that I'm the Bad Guy & I'm trying to not be the Bad Guy, even if I get carried away on things or even if I've done some majorly wrong things before, like especially harassing & yelling, while I have them blocked/while they have me blocked or whatever; I'm trying to be the Good Guy & even if I've done some majorly wrong things before that I even though know is majorly wrong to do, I'm now working on & trying to not do so again & it may be hard, but it doesn't hurt to at least try & becoming a better person & all & what I've done with the roleplaying on the 3 Servers, small Mistake that I'm trying to fix now with the help of Mew2.5 & Ariel, as the Guide that Ariel gave me to try & work on, while Mew2.5 telling me the same problem he had before with it & what he's now doing to fix & not have that problem again, while with even harassing someone off a Miiverse Clone, which was majorly wrong to do, haven't done that again, since then & I'm trying to keep it that way to not harass someone off a Social Media again or anything, as that can result in getting me banned from the Social Medias & having my Social Media Accounts terminated & all, etc..

Just know that if they do keep me banned from the 3 Servers & blocked from them over what I've done, whether it was back in the Past on the Miiverse Clones or earlier last month with the roleplaying on the 3 Servers, etc., even if they won't miss me at all, I'll be missing them however & the roleplaying that they do, plus viewing even the Cool Pokémon Art that they make, plus I'll be missing the 3 Servers that I was on, as they were all Cool Servers & all, really, the 3 Servers were cool to be on before all of this over me & unexpectedly getting me banned from them, plus I'd also say my friendly goodbyes to them, as part of me missing them.

At least will I remember the Users & all before I ended up losing them over all of this because of me, as before all of this, they were really Cool Friends to have, like Kirbytone, KlonoaGrovyle64, Tyler H, Romeo1900, StealthySceptile (Even though I don't know him much, as I've only met him before my banning from the 3 Servers & the blocking from the Users on them...), Aeon (Even though I don't know her that much, as I've only talked to her a little before all of this over me...), etc. & Makenley X, I like didn't know him much, but however that I wasn't Friends with him yet & I don't think I even sent him a Friend Request yet before all of this & automatically losing him before even being Friends with him, if I wanted to or whatever.

I also thank Mew2.5 for still being my Friend, after what I'm currently going through with being banned from the 3 Servers & blocked from the other Users on them over me, while I also thank him & Ariel for trying to help me out with this situation, even if it ended up in a fail, after what happened over me & all & hopefully the Friendship between me, Mew2.5, & especially Ariel can remain, as long as I try & do better this time & not being like I was back in the Past & all.
