Celebrating Integrity

Thank you to everyone who submitted a name to be recognized for their exemplary integrity this month. We will visit schools next Friday to thank the individuals who received the top nominations. Here are a few of the quotes that were shared with us.

What is SEL (Social Emotional Learning?)

SEL, or social and emotional learning, is another educational topic that has recently been the focus of political cross-fire. This article from CASEL helps to explain what SEL is and why it matters to the success of our students. d93.org/whatisSEL

Use the Purposity App to Help Students

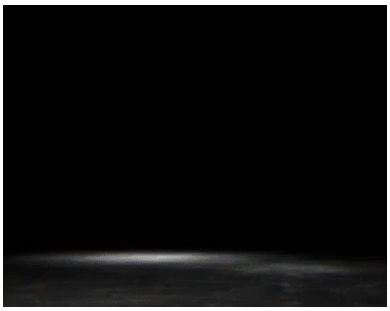

Purposity is an app that provides a way for community members to help those in need in our own schools. Go to d93.org/purposity for more information.

Find Help Idaho

findhelpidaho.org provides a way for families to connect with support for financial assistance, food pantries, medical care, and other free or reduced-cost help.

Bonneville County Library District

The Ammon branch of the Bonneville County Library District will open on October 1st. Click here for more information.

Thank you, Brett Oswald

Next week, Brett Oswald will retire as the custodian at Fairview Elementary where he has worked for the past 48 years. In high school, Brett worked as a part-time custodian at the O.G. Bonneville High School (now RMMS) and after graduation became the custodian at Fairview where he has worked since. He has vacuumed the classrooms there almost 10,000 times each. Thank you for your incredible dedication and commitment, Brett. Here is a link to tribute to Brett and his years of service.
