I usually ask for payments to be up front unless agreed otherwise. Typically will be Paid using PAYPAL

Do not send payment until I ask for it.

I will send Sketches and WIPs if requested but almost always will send WIPs anyway.

You will receive the original image with my Signature on it usually in the corner or somewhere slightly visible.

On DA or FA the Image will have the full Watermark for protection purposes. But you will receive the smaller watermarked version. For personal use

Any and all changes/edits made after the image is completed will be an additional charge per change. Usually around 2-5 USD depending on how big of a change.

Generally it takes me 2 weeks to 2 month to finish a commission once paid for, it depends on how many i take on at once.

Sometimes it might take a longer if something happens in RL or other due to my health issues.

Please be patient with me.

Show respect when respect is given. I'm really easy to get along with and talk too :)

And lastly thank you for supporting me and my work it means so much to me <3
