

UPDATED AUGUST 2ND 2020

THIS IS OUR TESTIMONY ON

FynnWereShep/FynnVEVO/FynnnAD

I have been wanting to stay silent from this man's callout posts but I refuse to remain quiet while he involves other minors like me and more.

This document will involve everything Fynn has done to me and other minors since last year, Everyone in this evidence has been asked their own will to be shown or not. Most of them are color coded so the same colored censorship is the same person.

I'll be dividing this Document into three parts:

1. Manipulating minors, Getting NSFW stuff from minors
2. Bragging, Lying, Guilt tripping, Ripping off.
3. Misc. and other stuff

4. NEW After the call out.

Before you read through this:

Do not witch hunt Fynn. Do not stalk them or harass them or do ANY of the things they have done to us. I am not here to promote that kind of behaviour, but try and put a stop to it. This document is purely for informational purposes only and is to warn other people like us to not get treated like how they did to us. Make sure to go through All of the screenshots to fully see what they have done to us.

Before everything, They DID know my age, Here is the evidence.

These screenshots were taken from the Telegram group chat that i was talking about in the google drive where i stated and said that i said my age, most of the people didn't believe in but now that there are screenshots i hipe this proves that fynn DID know my age asides from the other Adult furs in the group chat, I will not talk about them since i did talk it out with them but Fynn was the one who have done the most damage for a LONG time.

Manipulating Minors - Getting NSFW Stuff from minors.

Telegram (2019 Summer - Fall)

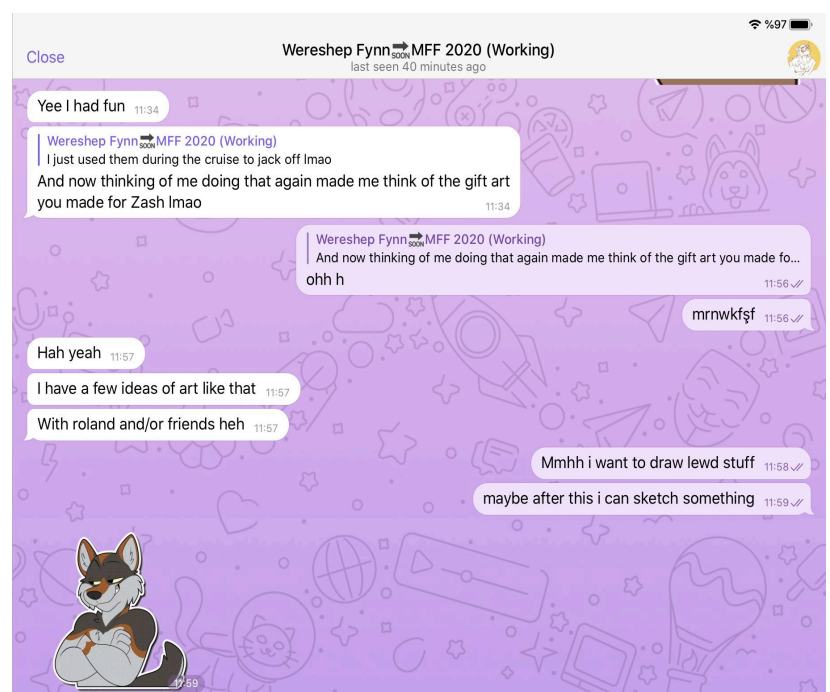

I've met FynnWereShap during those times when my twitter got some kind of a following. At first they seemed all nice and cool, with such innocence I had I decided to know them more and talk to them more. The more we talked, the more perverse they became. At the time I didn't know that much about minors involving in NSFW stuff so I acted the way as if I liked it or not. As someone who didn't have that much experience in friendships i thought maybe this can lead into something good since it didn't take me too much to get to know them. As we spoke more he got way more interested in showing me NSFW stuff, talking more about those stuff, hinting at ideas of me drawing them nsfw stuff for free. Someone like me who at the time always tried to start a friendship by drawing the other side thought this was ok to do. So I started drawing him stuff whenever he felt like it.

As more time went by I decided to open commissions. In those commission openings they had commissioned me 2 pieces, a Wallpaper (SFW/NSFW) and One reference sheet (SFW/NSFW).

More screenshots

Discord (2019 Fall - 2020 Spring)

This section includes more people.

Most of these screenshots are from my secret server which i never wanted to leak and such but like i said, because of this place being secret they went nuts and started to mess with more than 1 minor at the same time. Also Manipulating them to draw NSFW Stuff to become friends (for free, which I may add, see a pattern here?). Which then they started to be less active, only talking about art or commissions he has been getting, making most of us (minors) feel bad since only a few of us could rarely get commissions from other artists.

Bragging - Lying - Ripping off - Guilt tripping

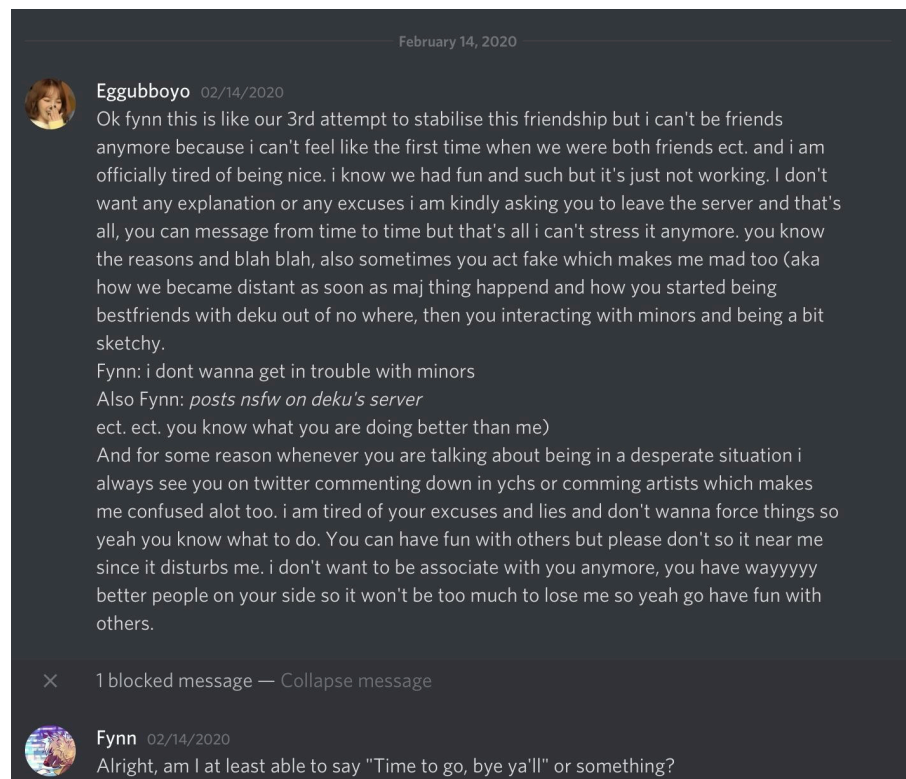

Bragging

Continuing from the last section.

Most of my friends (including them) knew my situation about getting commissions, I couldn't get or take any because of PayPal not being Available where I live, back then i used to use Payoneer or Bank To Bank transfers. With both of them being unreliable I stopped using them. As more time passed by the more their ego got pumped up (good pun), they ghosted the whole server, only talking when it was either NSFW or them getting a commission. They knew what I've been through yet they have always been rubbing it in my face. I tried to make up with him alot of times, like, alot. All of them failed miserably which finally made me tick off. I gave them too many chances and they always smeared it on their face and acted as if I didn't give them any critique.

More screenshots

Lying - Ripping off - Guilt tripping

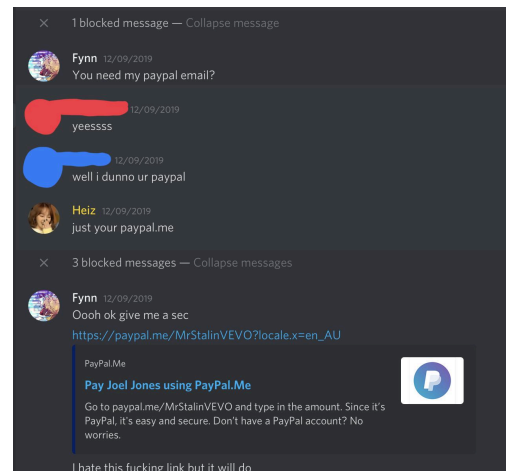

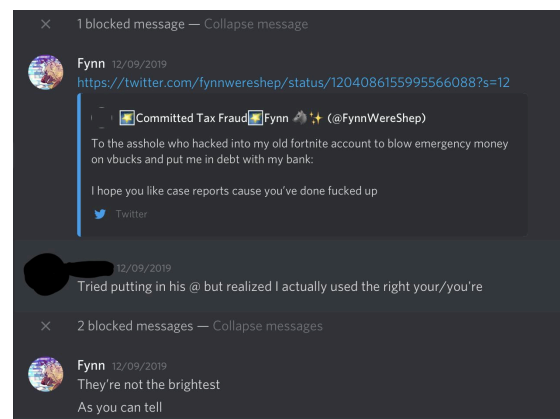

“Vbucks”

These three go hand in hand so I will explain them all at once.

As I noticed from time to time they have been telling really extreme stuff out of nowhere without any pictures of proof or any proof at all and since most of the people in the server didn't see them do anything wrong we took them seriously. Which led into huge misunderstandings and even my friend and I getting ripped off. One day he came up with his ex hacking into his fortnite account, then buying vbucks with their bank accounts, which let their bank account into the reds. Without any picture to back this up, They did not show us any pictures of a screenshot from fortnite transactions or his bank accounts current status. Of Course we helped them out because like i said we didn't see them do anything wrong back then. Also may i add, they said they got their emergency money spent also, which made us worry more (guilt tripping). So My friend sent their paypal 70USD$ and I opened emergency commissions using their paypal so they can get the money (i've got my finals back then so my schedule was really strict, with alot of stress i managed to raise them 375USD$ which is way more than the amount he claimed that got spent, 180USD$). After a few weeks, they've come up to us, with them teasing us about getting a new reference sheet for themselves and their boyfriend at the time. They also promised to get me a commission from an artist I adored so much to show their gratitude towards me (which never happened, they've only mentioned it once and I gave them the prompts I wanted, then nothing came out ever again from their mouth). The reference sheets cost him about 380USD$ (really close to what we raised).

More screenshots

Lying about their latest ex (Deadgreekjuly)

One day out of nowhere their boyfriend (I'll refer to them as "kaz") stopped talking to them as what they told us. No one in the server really knew or talked to Kaz at that moment, so they started to spill the tea, lie about what happened to them "actually" I would like you to take a look at the image folder here. TL;dr, What Fynn told us: Basically Kaz got his phone taken away because his parents found out about him and Fynn. His parents went nuts and took everything he has so he couldn't speak to Fynn for few days, then after sometime Kaz's brother said that Kaz is actually under age (Fynn stating that it is 16) And because of that Fynn couldn't forgive Kaz and broke up with him without saying anything, behind the scenes Fynn told that Kaz is a liar and a bad person to everyone that was Kaz's friend.

Actually what happened (Kaz confirmed): Fynn knew Kaz's age from the start but forced him to be quiet about it to other people, Kaz listened because he knew Fynn won't do him any bad. Kaz and Fynn's relationship gets a bit toxic, Fynn ghosting and letting him on afterwards. On Valentine's day Fynn puts "Single" on his bio. After that they blame kaz for everything, even kaz cheating on them. Fynn saying it is bad for kaz to state how much they love their friends while Fynn is here getting asked to take part in "sex" from others. Fynn making kaz take nudes which most likely they shared with others. On top of that after them "breaking up" Fynn did not send Kaz the SFW Pieces he got from artists.

Misc. - Other Stuff

Their Friends - How they treated me afterwards

Public AND AD Twitter Call out

After seeing such things happen like this then 3 serious talks about our friendship and noticing how uncomfortable I am, I decided to end my friendship with them, sent them a good long text about why I was doing this. Take it from him being a hypocrite, to him manipulating me and other minors to draw NSFW Stuff. After They promised to never talk or gossip about this friendship, my friends showed me a screenshot from Fynn's AD Account AND their Main account, Him calling me out just because I posted cropped images of a drawing (that is nsfw) and Me blocking them for nothing when actually i blocked him because of the every stuff they have done to me, Calling me a good liar, and warning every other person in the comments. I simply go to his telegram and ask them why they did such a thing like that since they PROMISED to not do such a thing like that, they respond with "oh it's someone else from 2017". I gave him a little warning then blocked him back. Screenshots

Bruno - Friends

After a few days of me responding back (without stating his name) they deleted the tweets. Then one of their close friend (who was also a mutual of mine but we departed on neutral terms) comes up to me and asks who was the one in the tweet. I simply tell them that "oh you'd know them. They've probably already talked about it to you" then they reply back with "Fynn?" and I said yes. He wishes me a good day and goes away. After a few days, He comes back to me on Twitter dm's trying to give me an advice and telling me what i've been doing wrong while there was nothing to fix. I simply say "ok" while typing a reply on the Notes app since i want to read the whole reply and have no misunderstandings in it. They wait for me for 2 mins, then they block me. Without me replying back to them, wishing me a good way on my "Right" path. Besides from this I've also learned that Fynn has been talking behind my back to my friends, shittalking me so they would stop being friends with me. So, isn't it weird that Bruno was "ok" with it for 2 days then him pulling an 180? Yeah, yeah same.

Also while Fynn was messing around with us and Kaz his whole friend group did not say anything, knowing that kaz was 16. Me drawing Free NSFW/SFW art for him, Even one of their friend was ALSO dating a minor as well, lying about their age too. Screenshots

After the call out

Response + Their take on this “drama”

After the call out, they did hear about it but at first as a response they said they'll be making a youtube video to respond back. Then they excused covid for not being able to make it, after getting a big backlash because of that they just straight up denied everything and said that i was doing all of this to stroke my ego and were false information.

Then a friend of mine went to their dms questioning them about what they do as a response and such. Screenshots here

Their take on this

TL;DR: Eggs get mad over fynn not buying him free art then Fynn learns his age (out of nowhere) Then they try to cut contact but Eggs falsely accuses them of pedophilia to get “revenge”. Because of this their life gets ruined and they almost “lose” their job.

After the call out a lot of people (mostly minors) have come up to me talking about how they also got treated the same way as I and others did. Take this from them shit talking me to actually getting involved with sexual stuff while not caring about the age and lying.

Conclusion

FynnWereShep/FynnVEVO/FynnnAD

Is basically someone that uses the Innocence of minors to either get free art or to get moral support. They abuse their responsibility as an adult when interacting with minors, intentional or not. Afterwards They always either blamed the minor or Did a call out post about the minor to throw shade at the minor and not themselves, Telling lies about the minor to their close friends and messing up with the minor's life. They have at least 4 minors (from what i have seen and experienced: Me, Kaz, Deku, Rigel) that have been manipulated by them. Kaz getting his innocence hurt and his name being thrown around for being the guilty one, Me getting a lot of hate and losing really dear friends for drawing what i want, Deku and Rigel not being able to trust anyone and have anxiety problems about making friends and having their feelings played around. Please be aware of this person and know that they are still trying to be seen as the "victim". Even them tweeting "Having a minor retweeting your NSFW RT's and having pinned lewd art is a big yikes moment" While messing with minors, getting NSFW art from minors, requesting and sharing a minor's nudes. Asides from all of the "other" stuff, Their personality is very fragile and only consists of Bragging about art, Obsessing over games, Being a big hypocrite. Plus they have been supporting and following pedophile and Zoophile accounts on twitter. Screenshot

And again, I did not want to make a document on such a person like they are, but they have pushed the limit too much.

Their Twitter Accounts:

- AD: <https://twitter.com/FynnnAD>

AND AGAIN:

I reiterate, DO NOT WITCH HUNT FYNN. Do not stalk them or HARASS THEM or do ANY of the things they have done to us. We are not here to promote that kind of behaviour, but to try and put a stop to it.

This document is purely for informational purposes only and is to warn people of what they are capable of and how they treat people.

Make sure to go through the screenshots up top to fully see what they have done. (couldn't put all of them here.)
