

Close Reading

First Read : Read the section and circle the words you don't know and put a ? next to words/phrases that are confusing or that you don't understand. (If you can not write in the book, use a "T" chart and list words you don't know and things you don't understand)

- Turn and talk : With the person next to you, discuss what you circled and ?
- Share out : Teacher writes circled words on board to discuss.
- Share out : Teacher writes/discusses circled & ? - confusing words/phrases
- Discussion : Teacher reads a section and discusses reading/interpreting of text.

Second Read : Re-read the entire section, but stop after each paragraph and take notes in your notebook, on anything that is important or significant to the topic. (This can be done using 2 column notes or outline form.)

Third Read : Text-Dependent Questions may be provided by the teacher.

Close Reading

First Read : Read the section and circle the words you don't know and put a ? next to words/phrases that are confusing or that you don't understand. (If you can not write in the book, use a "T" chart and list words you don't know and things you don't understand)

- Turn and talk : With the person next to you, discuss what you circled and ?
- Share out : Teacher writes circled words on board to discuss.
- Share out : Teacher writes/discusses circled & ? - confusing words/phrases
- Discussion : Teacher reads a section and discusses reading/interpreting of text.

Second Read : Re-read the entire section, but stop after each paragraph and take notes in your notebook, on anything that is important or significant to the topic. (This can be done using 2 column notes or outline form.)

Third Read : Text-Dependent Questions may be provided by the teacher.