

Looking for success with free work!

Hey (Weston),

After watching the video I checked out your website and noticed it was difficult to find by Google search, which can hurt attracting potential customers and keeping
I can help you bring more traffic to your website by attracting more people when using Google search or social media.

Best of all, I am a student in Digital Marketing and I am looking to earn a solid testimonial, so my services will be free.

If you're interested in learning more about increasing traffic to your website, let me know what your calendar looks like by the end of the week.

Best,
Logan Cox
