BOONVILLE RESIDENT CONTINUES PODCAST

Boonville Resident, Mason Bray, continues podcast with Entertainment Legends

Boonville, IN 12/30: Boonville resident, Mason Bray, is continuing to fulfill his dreams by talking to entertainment legends through his podcast, Real Talk with Mason Bray.

Mason is only 14-years-old and has worked on over 30 local productions with Children's Theatre of Southern Indiana, Evansville Civic Theatre, Actors Community Theatre, and People's Theatre of Southern Indiana. Back in May, he was feeling the "quarantine blues" and thought he would make an activity for himself. He started his season off by interviewing actress Gabriella Marzetta, an actress in the tour of Waitress that played in Evansville this past February 2020, and he has gone on to interview Evansville native theatre workers like Kevin Roach and Matthew Herrmann as well as several people on the Great Bright Way, such as Alex Lacamoire who was the music director for Hamilton and several other hit Broadway musicals, choral composer Eric Whitacre, Set Designer Scott Pask, and several other. Mason wants to shine a light on an industry that has been labeled as "non-essential" to show that the arts get us through.

Season 4 premieres Monday, January 4th with new episodes every Monday at 7 am central time and can be heard on most podcast listening platforms such as Spotify, Apple Podcasts, Anchor, and most other podcast listening platforms!
