

Exactly what is said on the label. Though sadly, this means no Rescue Team as they have no canon heights as of now </3

Keep in mind that though the character profiles use feet and inches, hikaku sitatter only supports centimeters,, and I can't be bothered to round them up lmao

Ah but... they look quite unorganised, yeah? Let me pull up—

Aha, admittedly, this is also kind of a mess... though I hope this gives some perspective on how the characters look! I've gotten pretty surprised by some of the characters' height (I have similar/the same height as Trainer Red?? What??)
