

You Know Me

© Monica Jensen 2010, Produced 2019

Alone I sat in my room

Not knowing there was you

Gazing in the sky I'd wondered

Why I'd come into being

I felt the warmth of your touch

You made me come alive

Birds sing You sweet melodies

And I'm amazed You know me

I'm amazed You know me

Safe in your embrace,

You've kept Your Word,

You've shown me Your face,

Even when I've failed

Your love's prevailed
