

When adopting from me or buying a design please make sure to read these terms of service. They are all subject to change so making sure nothing has changed and reading through them any time you're buying designs from me is advised.

Terms for future and past adopts will not be affected by these changes, whenever you bought it is when those rules applied. So do not worry.

These terms apply to all designs made by me. This includes customs, gifts, adopts, auctioned adopts and raffled designs.

CHARACTER DESIGNS & ADOPT TERMS OF SERVICE/RIGHTS GENERAL RULES

- When purchasing adoptables/customs from me be it auctioned or not it will automatically buy the rights to commercial use. This means any merchandise [pins, shirts, stickers, mugs etc...], characters in comics, backgrounds of stories, png/vtubers or fursuits.
- It is a requirement to credit me (the artist) for the design. But it is not obligatory to state it every single time. It is greatly appreciated!
- Refrain from using the art bought from the adoptable in any merchandise. If you are to make anything for merchandise, please buy art for the character to accomplish that purpose.
- Do NOT use my designs to promote, homophobia, transphobia, ableism, racism, zoophilia or pedophilia. Just don't be a jerk or weirdo.
- My designs are not to be sold/resold for cryptocurrencies or NFT material. This includes any and all artwork bought from me be or regular commissions or adoptables.

- Make sure you are aware of the terms from any adoptable featuring a specific species, closed or otherwise.
  - When adopting, please respect that you're buying the design from me. Any complete recreations on the character will not be allowed.
  - Small changes are totally fine. Be it colors, markings, hairstyle, gender etc...but a completely different looking design will result in future blacklisting.
  - You're welcomed to take inspiration from my designs, but copy pasted designs and tracing will not be allowed.
  - Some designs may carry names or specific themed names, these are not obligatory to keep and you may change them to whatever you'd like.
  - You may not ask me for extra art on already finished adoptables, whatever comes in the reference sheet or design is what you will get no matter the price.

CUSTOM DESIGN TERMS OF SERVICE

- When buying a completely custom design from me you buy all commercial rights to the character. But please refrain from using the bought artwork from me on any merchandise (you may commission me or other artist to make art for those purposes). If the design belongs to a closed or opened species (Protogens, Crocnauts etc...) make sure to read up on their separate rules aswell and keep yourself informed.

- You're welcome to make any small changes to the design just like adoptables and auctioned designs. Major design changes aren't welcomed though, you ARE buying a specific design for a reason. Keeping the design unrecognizable from its original will result in blacklisting.
  - I enjoy taking artistic liberties here and there for custom designs (not the entire design), if you aren't comfortable with those please do not purchase designs from me if you have a specific vision in mind.

AUCTIONS TERMS OF SERVICE

- When bidding for a design/adopt make sure to have the money in hand. Fake/joke bidders will be banned/blacklisted from future designs.
  - Do NOT bid snipe auctions. If done, the timer for the auctions will be increased by 30 minutes to an hour, and if it continues to happen by the same person it will result in a ban or being completely ignored.
  - Most not all higher priced designs will have payment plans options active. This will be notified to all potential bidders/buyers from the start of the auctions.
  - Any special rules to the designs will be written in post, so make sure you're completely informed and agree to the terms before bidding.

EXTRAS

- I am open to hold designs for customers if I've worked with them before. This option isn't usually available for newcomers.
- I will not draw designs in specific styles, if you do not enjoy my style then please refrain from purchasing designs from me.
- Do NOT bid if you're underaged. Most of my designs tend to be for adult audiences.
- Extra art may be purchased from me after you've obtained the design. I always enjoy drawing adoptables people have purchased from me.
- If the buyer has an active Toyhouse account. The adoptable or design can be transferred through there. Otherwise it will be emailed, and any extra art will be credited (if not drawn by me).
- When buying from me you must be ok with me using the designs I made as examples for future works/designs.
