

Mrs.Flowers Middle to Late Lifespan Development Course
Monroe County High School
Department of Family and Consumer Sciences

Course Description:

This course is a continuation of Child and Human Development. It addresses the practical problems related to understanding the types and stages of human growth and development and recognizing effects of heredity and environment on all life stages. Child and Human development is considered early lifespan development and this course is considered late lifespan development. We will touch on all stages of life, with specific emphasis on late adulthood.

Course Overview

-Introduction to Lifespan Development

-Middle Child

-Adolescence

-Early Adulthood

-Middle Adulthood

-Late Adulthood

-Individual and Family Conditions

-Careers

Contact Information: Callie.Flowers@monroe.kyschools.us

