Submissions are open for The Dead Horse—Issue 1

Subject of Submission: Unsettling Horror
Submission Deadline: May 1 2023

Advertising Space is available as well:
$25 full page
$14 half page
$8 quarter page

Submission Guidelines:

Absolutely zero bigoted or hateful content will be tolerated. This includes but is not limited to: racism, transphobia, homophobia and more. Don't even bother submitting. (You can't be racist towards white people, or straightphobic, don't be ignorant.)

Submissions must be emailed to — submissions@disastertourism.games — with the subject — "Dead Horse Submission"

Submissions may be any format, loosely tabletop related but not strictly. Therefore tables, and encounters are encouraged (sysag or b/x please), but so are photographs, artwork, short fiction (max~500wds), think pieces on the subject (max~500wds), poetry and more—as long as all pieces are on the topic of Unsettling Horror.

Format of the magazine will be in B5 (6.9"x9.8") and be on magazine print.

Not every submission will be chosen, so do not feel disinclined to submit again for the next issue, if your piece doesn't make the first.

All work you create will maintain your creative property, and only published by Dead Horse with your consent.

Contracts will be posted for visibility in the Discord server. https://discord.gg/Cw3eEd68Cs

Profits will be shared amongst all contributors, etc., (after costs of editing, printing etc.) at the end of the next Quarter, or after all printed issues have been sold (whichever comes first). Full transparency of costs will be publicly shown, as well as divisions of pay, for integrity's sake.

Invite people to submit as well! Open to everyone.

Let's beat a Dead Horse!
