

WHEN SHE CAME AROUND AGAIN

When she came around again
.. She looked the same
... But I had changed.

When she came around again
.. Her hair aflame
... I knew her name.

When she came around again
.. I was not so game
... (And she's to blame.)

When she came around again
.. She shook the world
... But not the frame.

When she came around again
.. She looked the same.

When she came around again
.. I had changed.

When she came around again
.. I said: 'Get back, Fame!'
