Question: What has this poem taught you about the ways people and animals can relate to each other? Predators

As I analyze this poem. I first notice the word choices that illustrate the author's connection to animals and nature. The evidence that the author is human is in lines 6/7, "I hoe and cultivate..." I can elaborate on that by explaining that only humans can hoe and cultivate. That is how I was able to clarify the meaning of this passage for myself which is that humans feel that nature and wild animals is beyond their control. Response to Predators
