

```Round 4: Sweater Weather.

Its fall, that means its sweater weather. Whatever that means to you, if its the bite in the air, the sharp wind in your face, the crunch of leaves under your feet, the smell of a freshly baked pumpkin pie, whatever else that evokes that first crisp fall day for you.``

Baboon, by This Town Needs Guns. Submitted by Amy.

Kay says: it seems like the instruments are fighting with each other. I don't like it.

Clem says: The vocals seem kind of disconnected from the music to me, and not in a way that I like. Meh.

Scoring: 7/7 limes, 2/7 kites, 0/7 platypi, 9/21 bananas

Midnight, by Coldplay (Kygo remix) submitted by mansnicks.

Kay says: "Why do you feel the need to torture me with this crap?"

Clem says: cat fit ding cause this doesn't really vibe as fall or sweaters really, not a total fail cause I can kinda almost see it.

Scoring: 4/7 limes, 2/7 kites, 0/7 platypi, 6/21 bananas

Sowilo Rune, by Agiloch. Submitted by Marmot.

Kay says: "I have nothing nice to say."

Clem says: I was all in until the end, which is whatever. OG Wicker man is pretty cool tho, ngl.

Up With People, by Lambchop. Submitted by mynameisnothing.

Kay says: "Not my kind of music but not terrible. Didn't like the super long intro though, it could do without that."

Clem says: i guess this is kind of pretty, in a bland kind of way. Meh.

Criticarem les noves modes de pentinats, by Manel. Submitted by Johanna.

Kay says: Not my cup of tea.

Clem says: Ngl the language barrier kind of inhibits my enjoyment of this. I looked up a kind of shoddy translation, and it seems like the kind of song id probably enjoy immensely in a sad boy fall kind of way if I understood the lyrics without having to look them up, so I'm giving it a 5.

Everything in its Right Place, by Radiohead. Submitted by falcon.

Kay says: I don't like it. It's like angelicy and weird sounding.

Clem says: I don't really like most radiohead, and this is no exception. Your boos mean nothing to me, I've seen what you people like.

Glue, by The Gerbils. Submitted by Dunia.

Kay says: Reminds me of songs I used to listen to while sitting around the camp fire with my family.

Clem says: I'm a sucker for grungy/punky nasal singing with a decent riff and low bass behind it. Kroger brand Billy Corgan is arguably better than name brand, tbh.

November Rain, by Guns n' Roses. Submitted by TSP.

Kay says: This is my least favorite gnr song. I hate the long-ass intro.

Clem says: It's kinda hacky but it's hacky in the still enjoyable to listen to way that good gnr ballads are, so it's fine.

Scoring: 7/7 limes, 5/7 kites, 1/7 platypi, 12/21 bananas

Persephone, by Cheshire Moon. Submitted by Arete.

Kay says: "Someone should have paid more for better singing lessons."

Clem says: "a curse is only evil if you fear it" is just a really shitty line, and it doesn't get much better from there tbh. I like persephone interpretations but uh...no thanks.

All Hallows, by Aviators. Submitted by sabs.

Kay says: Not a fan of this song, it's just kind of a bleh Halloween song and I'm usually a fan of Halloween songs.

Clem says: Probably a better fit for the Halloween cat, I dont really associate October 31st as the start of crisp sweater weather? So a couple points off cat fit for that. Kind of interesting, also kind of boring, which is a weird combo.
