(@_i_am_gonna_destroy_you_mentally on discord, other socials can be found there: <https://linktr.ee/TheNormalVenice>)

Unfortunately things have gone to this. This document contains all the wrongdoings and problems that the user @venice_themink from tiktok (but not only active on just tiktok) has caused. Anyone viewing this document who was hurt by this person as well can ask me for permission to additionally add their own content and screenshots of proof within the 2nd page that had been prepared.

The story started off when I was chatting with a friend that I had, referred to as Lucia in this screenshot (no longer in contact with her) told me that she has a friend that also likes Venice, thus I asked if we could possibly get to know each other. When we started our “friendship” we would simply share the lore we had (I shared the lore) and art we have, or so I shared my art, he had only one simple edit of his own Venice design made from an art of Silver and the rest of art that he had been sending as reaction images or such were stolen. At that time, It should’ve rung bells in my head that it is not right, but as I was naive I did not pay attention to it and simply ignored it as something like that was “normal to see”.

Alright Twin, glad Lucia sent me ur discord

Our relationship couldn’t really be described as too bad, but soon I realized he might be a person I wouldn’t want to be around for too long... But I still kept in contact with him.

The first situation where he was kind of revealing his “toxic” side was when he brought up as trailer of some project I didn’t know even existed

Venice [ALWAYS PING ME] 💚 SONK 3/2/2026 5:34 PM

Lol

It's fine

Low-key I just only care Abt my fella that I created 🥺

Other Venices are cool n all but low-key I don't care as much 😏

Damn

Chill out

Tho Blaze's voice acting is tuff

VeniceThe_Mink_VA 3/2/2026 5:36 PM

Beta Bash and Absolution are both huge, and expensive projects with Venice, and twin just said "I don't care"

Venice [ALWAYS PING ME] 3/2/2026 5:36 PM

Low-key I didn't even know those existed

VeniceThe_Mink_VA 3/2/2026 5:36 PM

Well, when either one comes out

WE are watching it together

Venice [ALWAYS PING ME] 3/2/2026 5:37 PM

Sure gang

I did not really think much of it, I believed he simply was excited about the project, that all.

This is the first time he mentions how he is a tiktoker:

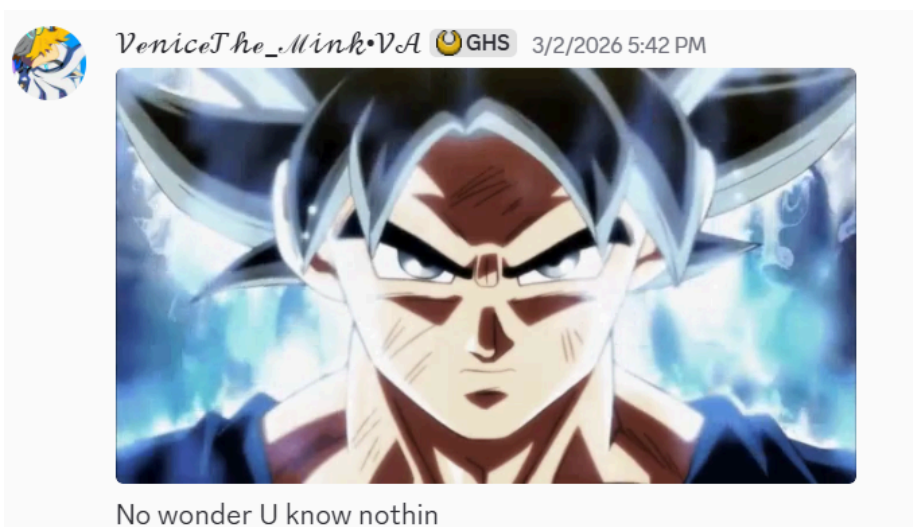

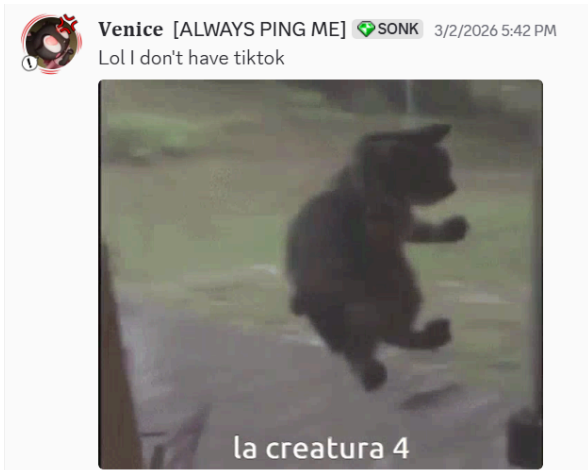

VeniceThe_Mink_VA 3/2/2026 5:39 PM

Btw, I'm totally not a TikTok who makes edits of Venice

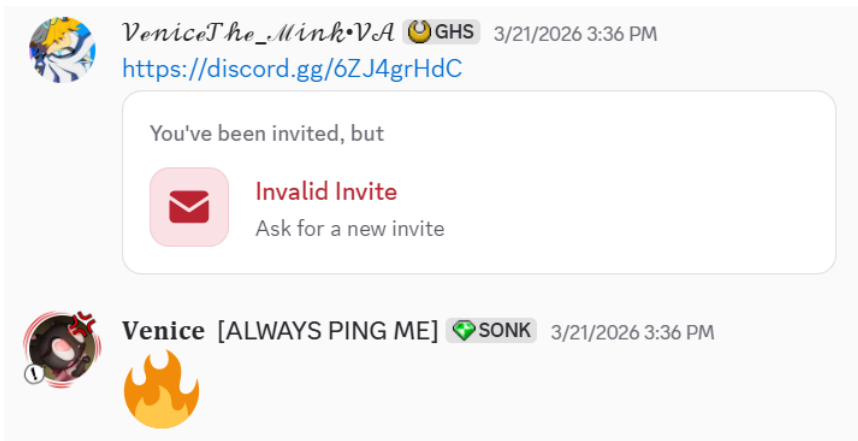

VeniceThe_Mink_VA 3/2/2026 5:40 PM

Dude, search up "Venice the Mink" on TikTok and I'm pretty much take up the entire thjng
Everything thats not done by me I repost so people don't have any trouble then, he invited me to a friend server where only a little bit of people were keep in mind here, he ONLY said that he will be dubbing the comics with FULL CREDITS TO ME. We did not talk about any other things later on, beside him occasionally commenting on my art posts on twitter, praising my artwork.

Then, later on, I am told by friends about my content being on tiktok, to which I panicked, rightfully so as I did not have tiktok at that time. But a thing to note is that it was only one comic and IT WAS credited. Once I noticed that I was in fact credited and that it was a familiar name, I calmed down and decided to pay no mind to this, but maybe I should have. After all, he spoke ONLY of using my comics for comic dubs - which did not come - and instead I am told and shown by my friends he shared my work on tiktok instead with no voice acting whatsoever.

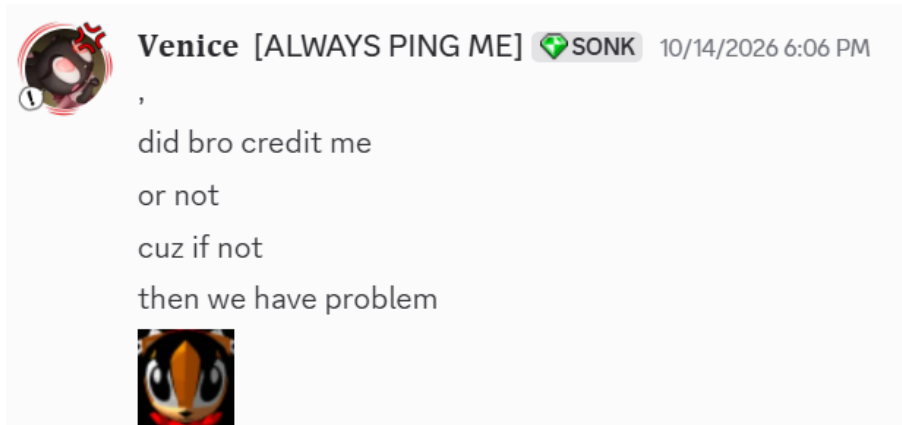

Then, months passed and I pretty much forgot about it all but then, disaster struck once more.

My friends found more of my content on tiktok.

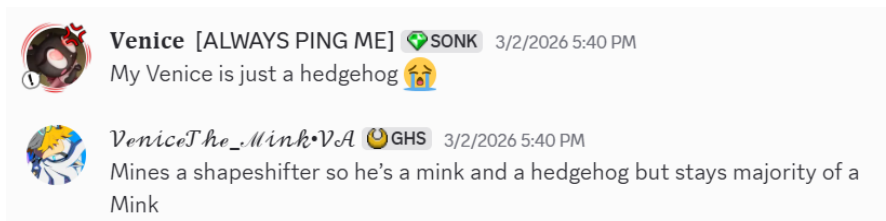

Remembering the last time, I thought that It was just the guy again and that he put credit and that it's fine, but then, my dearest friend Cherry DMed me.

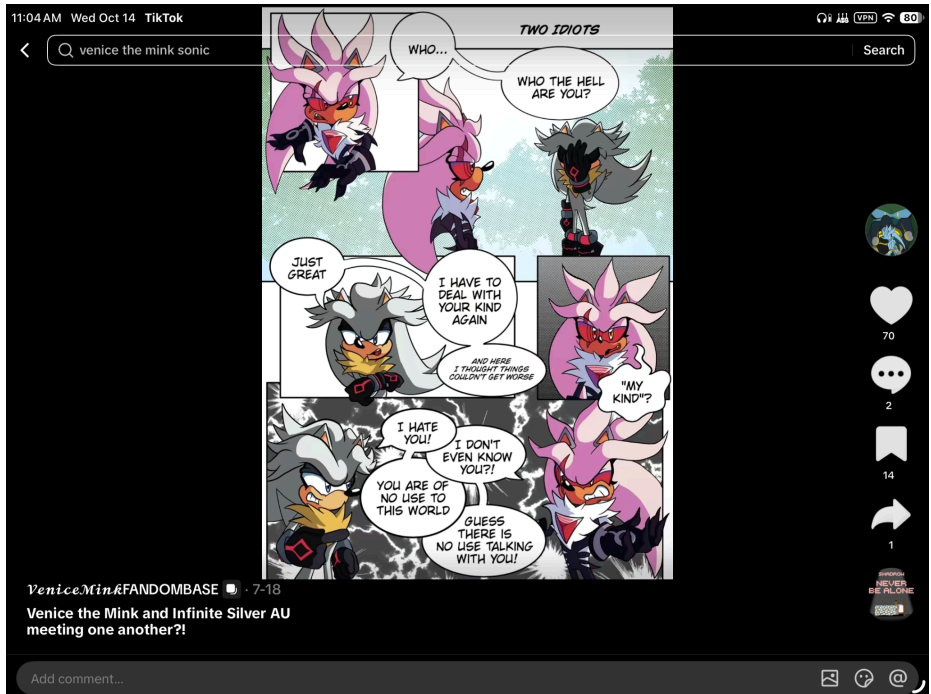

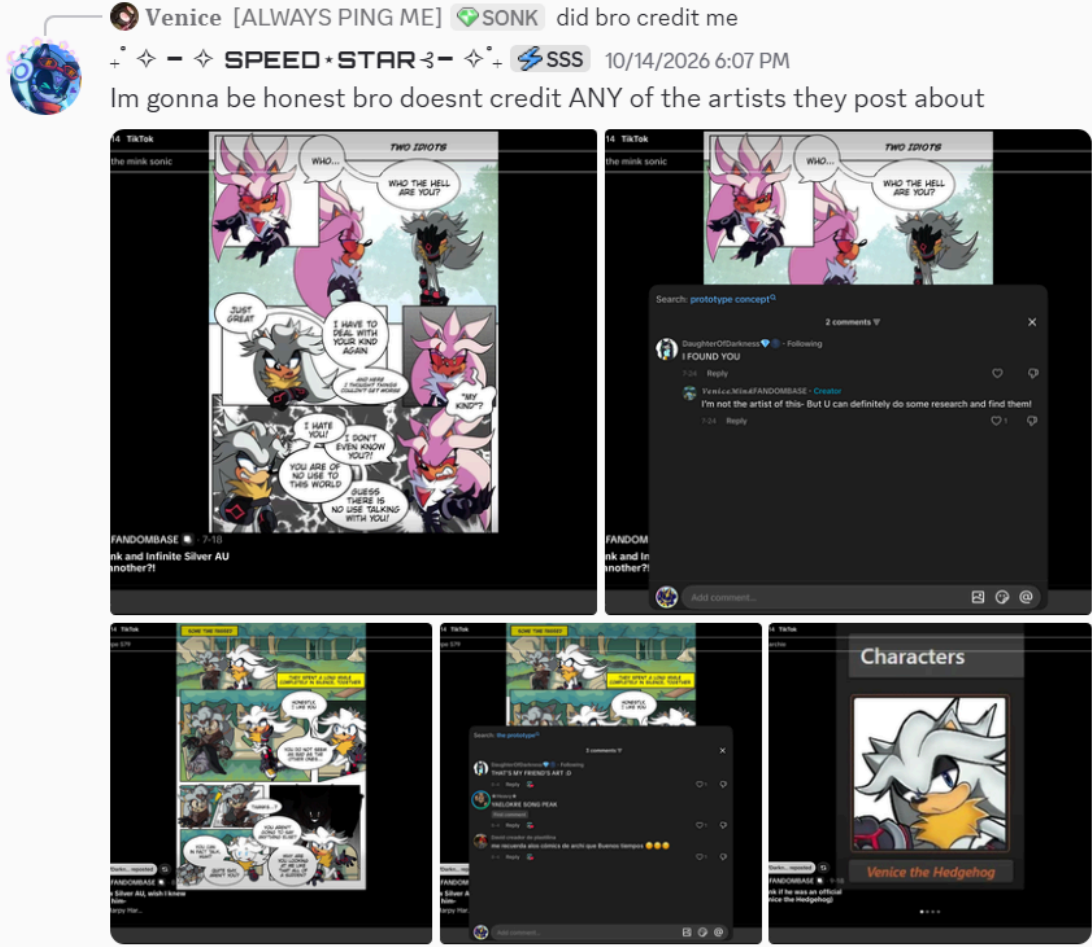

then, I take notice of the fact that the credits... are nowhere to be seen.

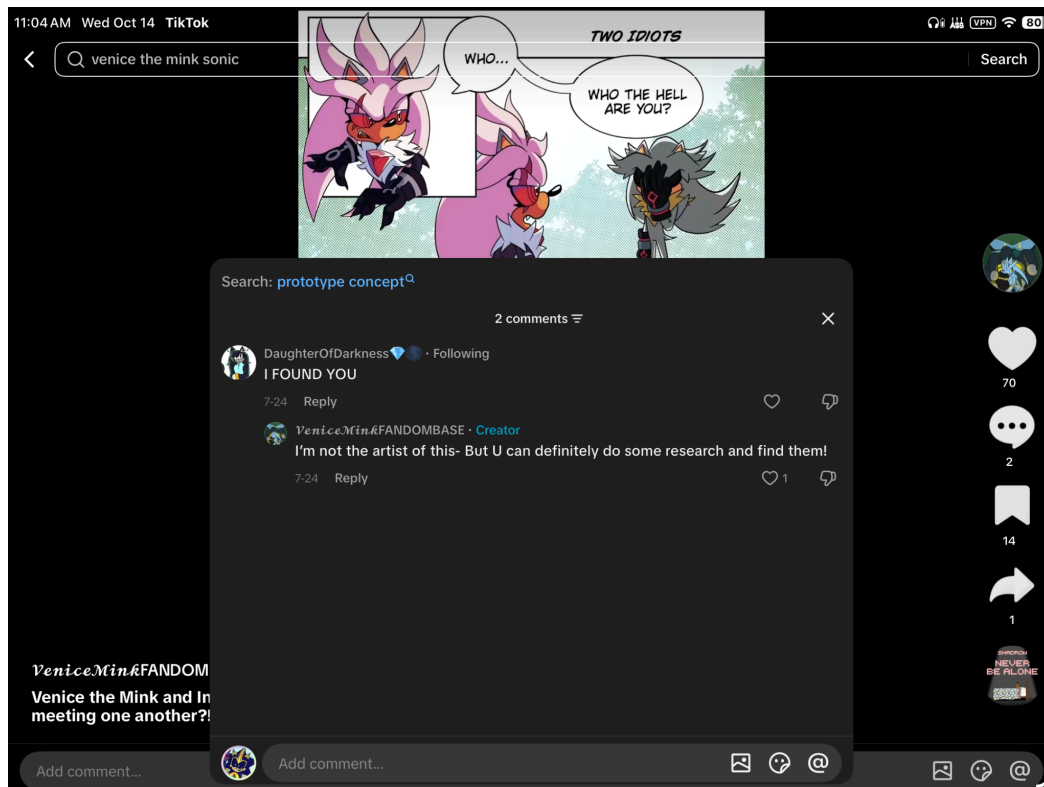

I doubt what I remembered - as I remembered him crediting me but there was no credit to be seen and to top it all off? He called my Venice a Mink instead of a Hedgehog, in which I have always told him he was NOT to be confused with a mink. for example:

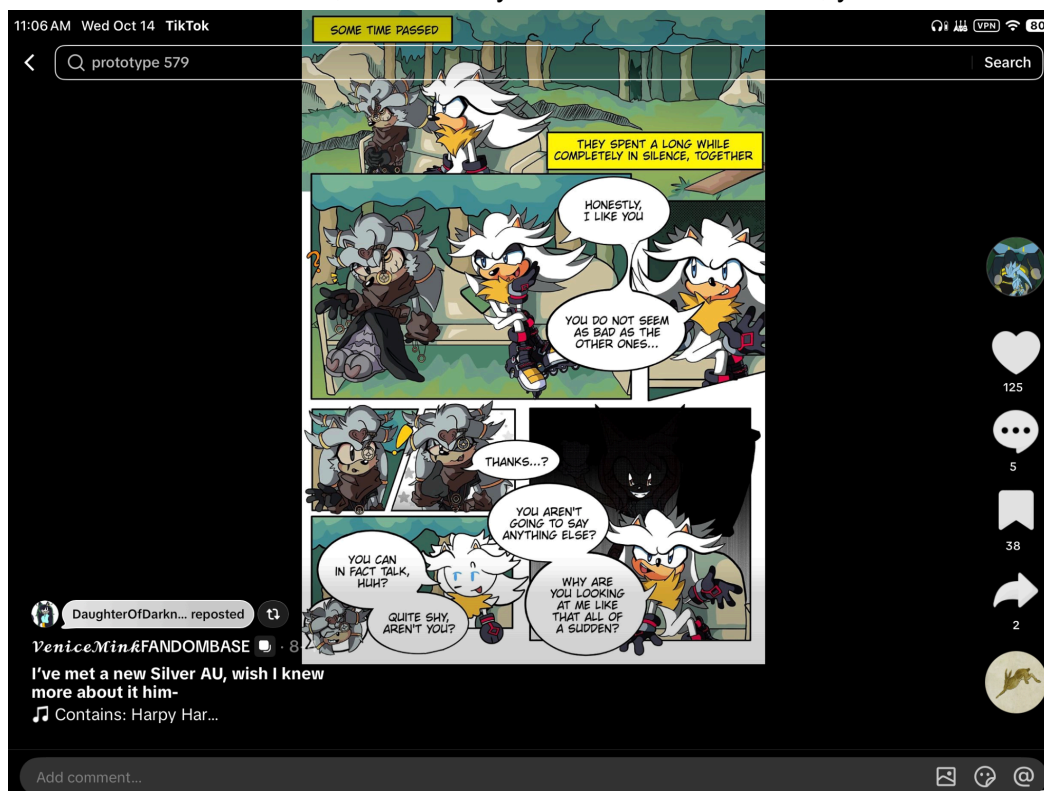

thus I couldn't really believe he'd just disrespect my character like this.

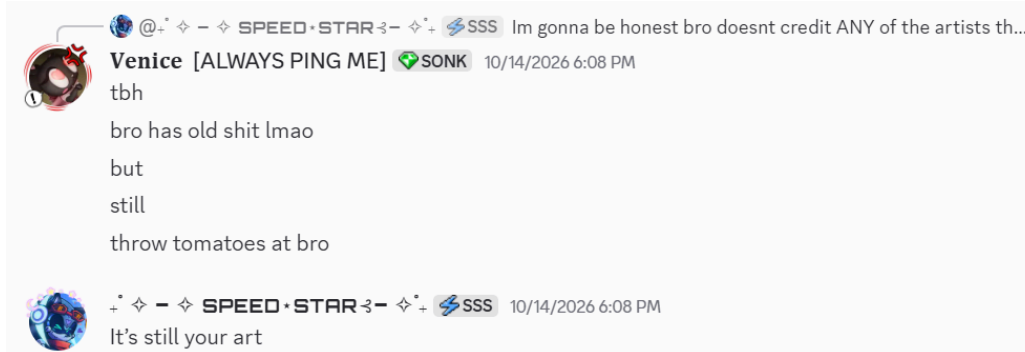

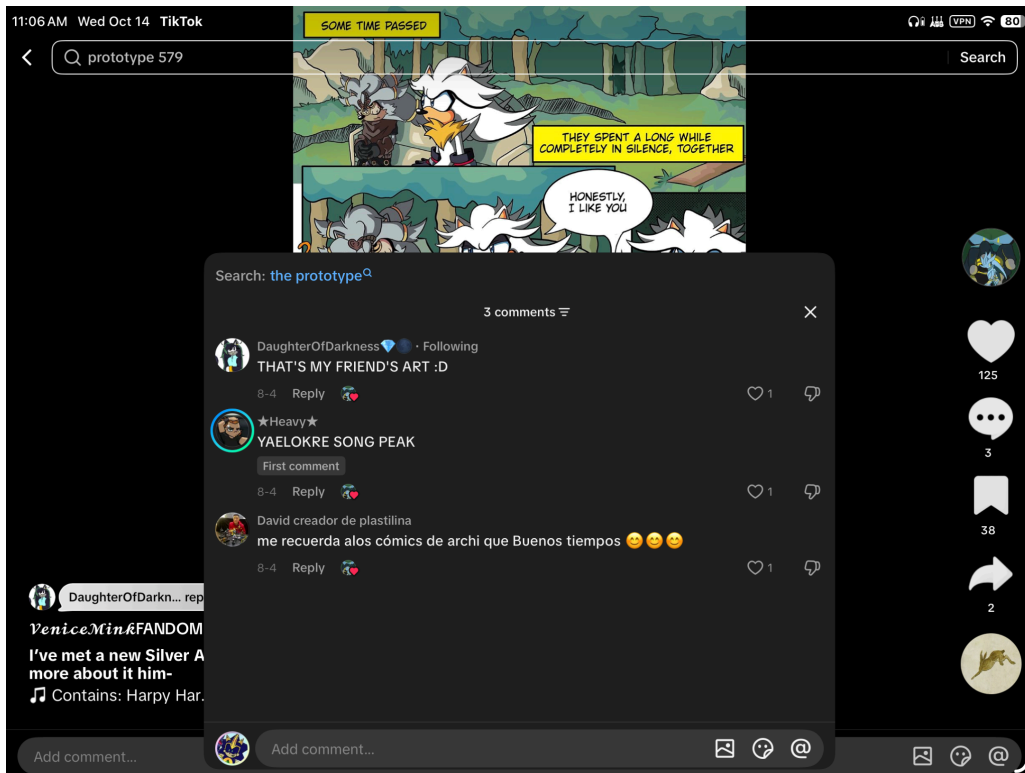

here, one of my friends - Heaven, says that she “found me” while it is not me and the art is in fact stolen from me

“Research and find them”, it’s not like you could’ve credited me, yes?

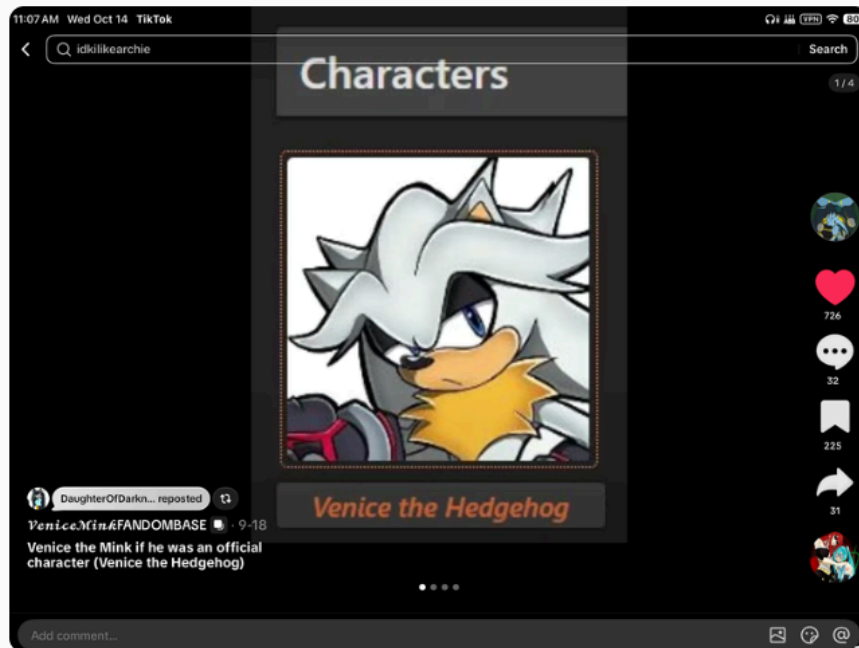

I did not take stuff as seriously as I should.

Venice [ALWAYS PING ME] 10/14/2026 6:10 PM

I credit myself in the file names as well also in this one did they at least share credits in the effin screenshots either one of them

SPEED * STAR 3- 10/14/2026 6:11 PM

Only this one

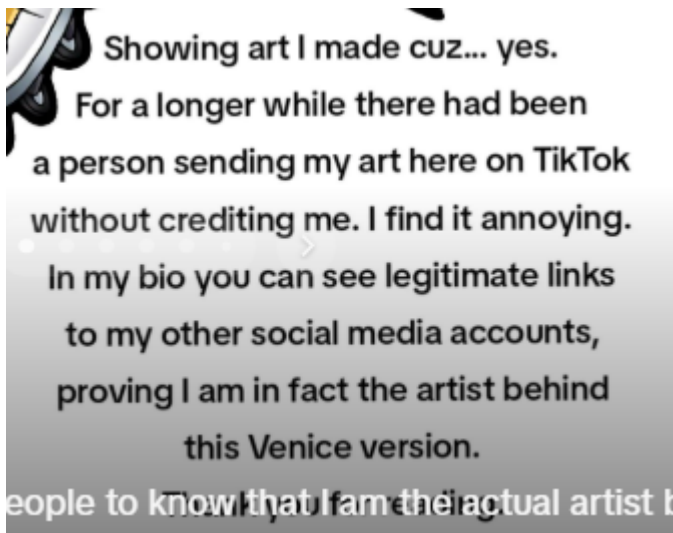

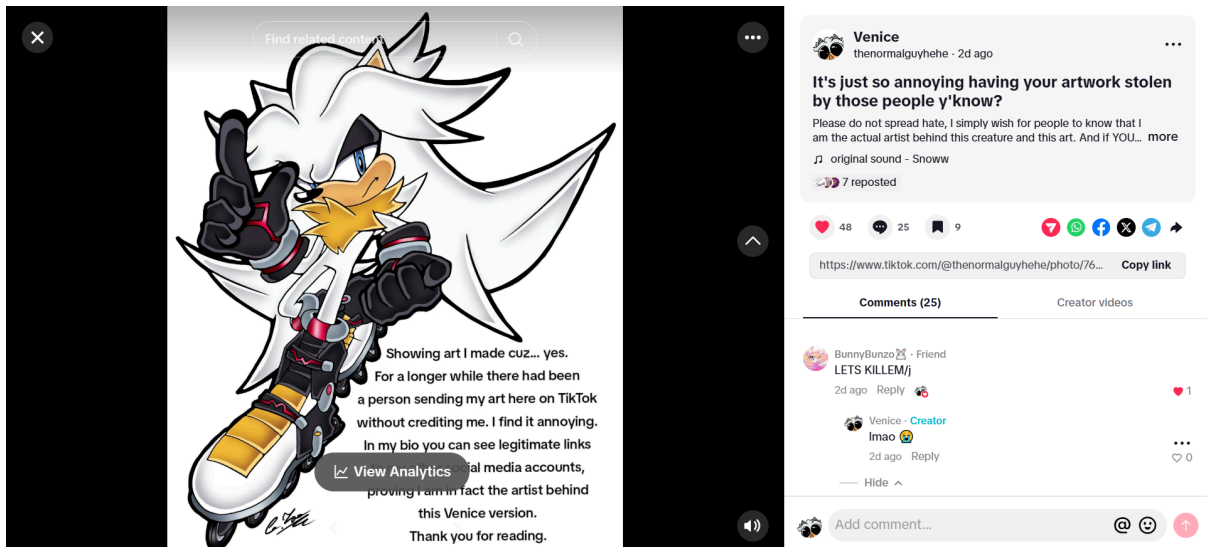

(as only in this one was my signature)

They were going to comment that it is my art on one of their posts for me.

meanwhile I undug a tiktok account I made a few months back that I didn't even use properly until then to create a video about the whole situation

It's just so annoying having your artwork stolen by those people y'know?

Please do not spread hate, I simply wish for people to know that I am the actual artist behind this creature and this art. And if YOU, @VeniceMinkFANDOMBASE are reading this, please, credit my work instead of spreading it and going with the excuse "do your own research and find the artist yourself" to people asking in the comments for credits.

The art features my version of Venice, which I treat pretty much like my own oc, Venice the Hedgehog. I have created this design, roller skates and the difference in quills being one of the ways to recognize him in the crowd. I am the owner, the artist and the writer behind him as well as I use him as my own persona and because of that you can clearly tell why I find it frustrating that someone is simply taking my creations, sharing them without crediting me/taking credit for my work in a case where someone thinks that they are the one who made him and the art. Thank you all for reading the description.

Maybe such a public callout was not the way, but I simply wanted to make people know about my situation. Many of my friends came forward to support me and repost this.

But then, Cherry was blocked by the guy after commenting that I am the artist behind the art then I decided to text him in private messages on tiktok about it, I tried to remain calm and professional and try to come to an agreement

Hey, I am here to talk about an issue.

As I've noticed you have been sharing my art without crediting me.
I am fine with sharing my art as long as I am credited, but you clearly didn't do so and when one of my friends commented that I am the one who drew them, you blocked them.

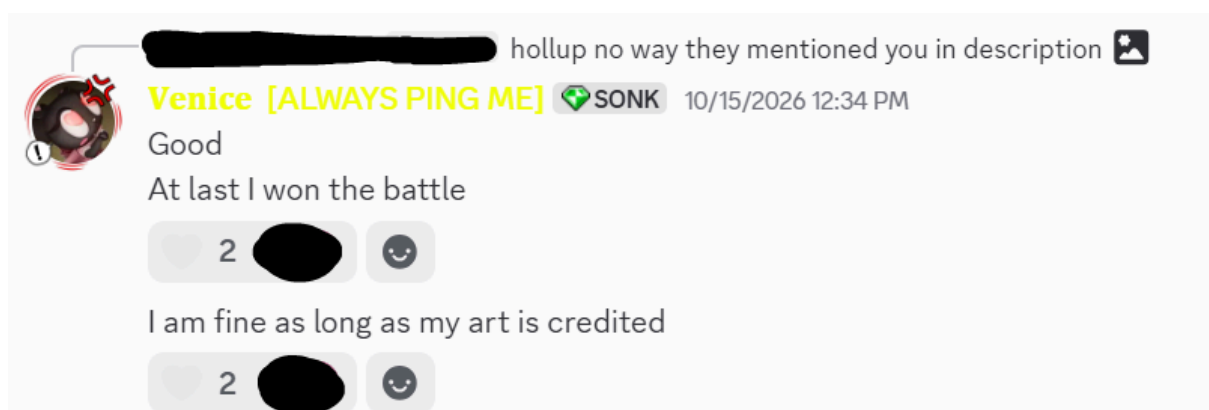

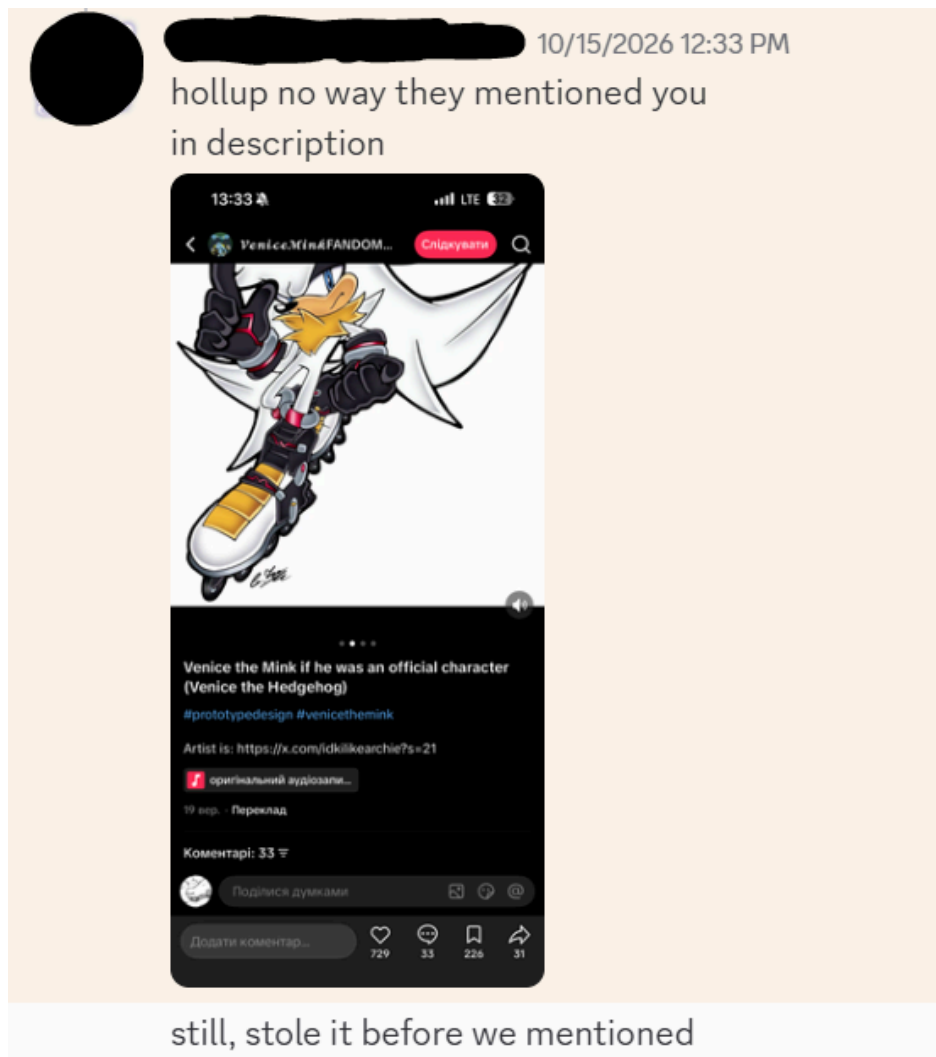

I'd like to ask you to either remove videos/Images which have any of my content or edit them so I am credited.

Thank you for reading and I hope you have a good day. Please, respond when you can.

and then while me and my friends were thinking about reporting him, he “bent”... But a thing to note is that he credited me only in the more popular videos. Other ones still remained uncredited

After that, he replied: the response was rather toxic and the rudeness was uncalled for. Yes, I understand calling him out publicly before resolving things privately was a dumb move, but I often act on emotion, especially when I feel panic upon someone stealing something which belongs to me. Another thing, remember, he didn't credit me before we brought stuff up publicly, which he is blatantly lying that he had me credited the whole time or simply wanted to avoid any more trouble. Calling me a “fucking dumbass” though definitely did not help his case. A thing to note is also the fact he does not address the issue that he blocked my friend Cherry for trying to help me gain recognition for my work in his posts/videos.

Message request accepted. You can start chatting.

I leave the link to your twitter account

Fucking dumbasses

I leave the link to your twitter account

I didn't really see that boy 🤔

But alright, what was done was done, the important thing is that stuff got solved. 🤔

I must admit that I might have been a bit too dramatic, but my Venice is pretty much EVERYTHING to me. 🤔

He's my persona, my child, my most beautiful creation 🤔

And at even the thought he's getting stolen? 🤔

Yea, I panic, and I mean panic A LOT 🤔

Its cool dude

Remember

WE are

Venice the Mink lovers/fans

So the last thing I'll do is NOT have u credited when I post your awesome art sure buddy, as you can see, he was trying to make himself look good, one thing to note though is the less popular posts remained uncredited at the time he was writing that.

October 16, 2026 07:09

My Venice is not a mink though and it annoys me how you call my Venice a Mink. He is a hedgehog

October 16, 2026 17:45

Hedgehog or Mink, WE look out for each other

Honestly, only then have I realized the fact that he was calling my Venice a mink EVERYWHERE and I was in fact angry and annoyed with that. It was disrespectful and a horrible mischaracterization of MY Venice.

You wrote that my Venice was a mink IN YOUR POSTS

That is why I am annoyed

WHILE ALSO, IN THE MOST POPULAR ONE, IT WAS BLATANTLY SHOW HE'S A HEDGEHOG

Sorry but I care about him A LOT and I do see it as disrespectful man, that is why I am so annoyed at that fact

In EVERY POST FEATURING MY VENICE

It's just one mistake dude.

U originally didn't want to post anything of ur art, and now you are.

Made an edit including your Venice, and I deleted it because "U didn't want to be related to them"

And now you're doing all this just because I'm USED TO the actual Animal Venice is

So my fault if u wanna be a big cry baby, and not grow some balls

And be appreciative that I'm passing you around so you can have more fans to your community when didn't I want to post anything of my art while I have twitter, tumblr and bluesky accounts where I DO send my art? Even though I know where he is coming from, the fact the majority of Venice versions people make are minks has nothing to do with my Venice being a hedgehog, look at the earlier screenshots where it was with bold letters, in the image "Venice the hedgehog" but he titled it as a mink anyway. Then he started comparing me to a crybaby and genuinely insulting me and trying to manipulate me.

But no, fuck me lg.

Yk what? I'm just not gonna post anything related to you. Because U clearly cannot appreciate things just because you're ONE difference.

I admired you and now I hate you.

he tries to guilt trip me by acting as a fan that I am losing.

You replied

U originally didn't want to post anything of ur art, and now you are.

I meant on platforms like TikTok, YouTube etc

I normally had and still have social media

You replied

And be appreciative that I'm passing you around so you can have more...

MAYBE I DON'T WANT TO IF YOU'RE GOING LIKE THIS?

I NEVER ASKED YOU TO DO ALL THIS

I allowed you to only SHARE ONE COMIC I MADE

ONLY ONE

And what have you done? Shared much more than that single comic

You replied

Yk what? I'm just not gonna post a nything related to you. Because U ...

Thank you and please delete the other posts which you have made on my Venice as I personally do not wish to have anything to do with you either

I tried to tolerate you, yes, as long as you credited me, but as you didn't and additionally call my Venice a Mink, I couldn't tolerate shit no longer

And back with the edit, I actually wasn't standing with just my Venice.

All Venice versions are not one and the same and should not be treated like just the same character due to the different lore, artstyles and creators. Such doings simply make the message that none are unique and none stand out on any field and should not be acknowledged.

It completely removes the individuality of all those Venices for your "passing of creators around the community"

What good of it when those who will watch an edit like this, will simply go with that it's the same character and nothing sets these creations apart and they are not worth looking into in the first place as individual creations which were created by so many different people.

You should be more considerate about the creations of others.
Yes, some of your posts are credited and tell the artist... But many other don't.

Especially the edits.

So I do with for you to actually think about things instead of throwing insults at me here, as you clearly aren't paying attention to your doings and how much of a hypocrite you truly may be.

I understand that I don't leave things clear about that they're all different

But if u take closer looks I make sure that its known

You didn't clarify on me only being able to post one thing from your community

I apologize for that

If U wish for me to not continue posting you're art on my TikTok

I will have no problem doing that

I just hope that you'll do it instead of

You only told me you want to dub my comic on YouTube, not send all I have onto TikTok without credit or respect to the character itself.
If it goes about taking a closer look, no, even if I look closer it does not seem like it.

Delete all posts, all videos which feature my work.

I do not plan to stay on TikTok, I simply cannot stand people like you. Trying to act professional now and apologetic after speaking to me like garbage, calling me a crybaby and a fucking dumbass. One of the TikTok of yours which features a comic of mine is STILL uncredited and just shows how you're trying to act like you haven't just been caught red-handed.

afterwards, he blocked me

That is all the material I've gathered. My friends say that he no longer has posts or videos which have my art featured in any way, thus it is possible that he had gotten scared of the one copyright strike and decided to in panic delete everything else which has anything made by me. Though still, I do not want him to keep doing this as If it can happen to me, it can happen to others with their own versions of this beta character.
