

1. ____ What does it mean if Jill is having second thoughts about her engagement to Jack?
 - a. She is thinking about the memory of the proposal again and again.
 - b. She thinks that she might have made a mistake in saying “yes” to the proposal.
 - c. She is trying to remember the exact details of the proposal.
 - d. She misunderstood Jack’s question.

2. ____ What is the difference between “second thoughts” and “on second thought”?
 - a. “On second thought” should be used immediately after or while making a decision or an opinion.
 - b. “Having second thoughts” should be used immediately after or while making a decision or opinion.
 - c. “On second thought” is more formal than “having second thoughts.”
 - d. “Having second thoughts” is more formal than “on second thought.”

3. Describe the last time you had second thoughts about something.

4. (Use a thesaurus if you like.) Find three synonyms for the word “reconsider.”
