1894-12-30 to Angelena Frances Milman

Autograph letter signed, University of Kansas, 166 words

[Edited for paragraph breaks, capitalization, spelling and punctuation.]

Sunday [30 December 1894]

I am writing a new story for my book — I am writing against time — that is why I have not written to thank you for your two notes.

Your idea of the Tourgoueneff volume is excellent and I hope you will speak to Lane about it when you return to town. But people seem only to care to read what has just been published.

I wrote all yesterday at my story — today I can do nothing — My brain is empty. I can hardly write this letter. Yet I am quite well — I could do almost anything but write.

I did not go to Boulogne to spend Christmas and I have just written to Sir William to say I cannot go to Durham next week.

You will write and let me know when you return, I hope

Always yours sincerely
George Moore
