IG13 [Session 13]	Spiritual revival for UBF ministry from Historical perspective
Presenter(s)	Paul Choi [St. Louis UBF]: UBF missionary for 33 years in CSUN LA, Chicago, St. Louis Martin Mun [Kansas City UMKC UBF]: UBF missionary for 29 years in Chicago, and Kansas City. Working as a Chiropractor and Acupuncturist since 2005.
Promotional message	We analyze the current problems which cause spiritual slump and find ways to rekindle the spiritual revival by studying historically successful examples.
Abstract	Spiritual revival is not only a hot issue and prayer topics for UBF, but all churches and ministries all around and for all generations. We will study the revival movements based on the Great Awakenings in America and the successful examples of some global mission organizations, and we'll discuss how to contextualize the movement into our generation and ministry, especially for post COVID UBF ministry. If possible, we'll invite outside speakers for testimony for their revival movement, and finally we'll get surveys from all participants for their idea for spiritual revival.
Special note	We welcome any idea and suggestion for spiritual revival and collect successful examples from person, family, and ministry.
