Description	In March 2010, Melinda, along with a devoted group of men and women founded Blue Skies. Now thousands have joined the cause and are committed to bring the hope of Christ to families living through the challenges of childhood cancer at weeklong beach camps. At each camp, families from all over the U.S. experience a real vacation at no expense to them. Parents and children spend a week with others facing similar challenges, people who can truly relate. As a domestic mission trip, Blue Skies is staffed with volunteers who are there to serve, care for, and befriend our guest families. From playing in the pool, to watching sunsets on the beach, and meeting families who are on the same journey, each camp is filled with activities that give families a chance to leave their cares behind, meet new friends and just have fun.
