

Code of Conduct & Enforcement Policy – No Style Esports

This document outlines behaviors that violate the standards of events run or co-run by No Style Esports. All attendees, competitors, and staff are expected to follow these rules at every event, regardless of venue or scale.

Penalty Structure

- First Offense – 3-month ban or suspension from the next No Style regional (whichever comes first)
- Second Offense – 6-month ban or suspension from the next two No Style regionals
- Third Offense – 1-year ban from all No Style Esports events

 Severe or repeated violations may result in a permanent ban without warning.

Violations & Enforcement

1. Skipping the Front Desk (No Check-In or Payment)

All attendees must check in at the front desk, even if they prepaid online. Attempting to enter the venue without checking in is considered unauthorized entry.

- If you are bringing in equipment (e.g., monitors, consoles) before checking in, you must notify the front desk that you are dropping off gear and will return to check in.
- If you plan to arrive late or come back later for any reason, you must have permission from a Tournament Organizer (TO) in advance.

➤ Failure to check in or communicate appropriately will result in disqualification and ban per the offense tier

➤ Applies to all No Style Esports events, including partnered or co-hosted tournaments

2. Failing to Notify TOs of a DQ (Especially for Pay-at-Venue Players)

If you decide to drop out of the event, you must directly inform a Tournament Organizer (TO) before or during the tournament.

- You will only receive a penalty if you fail to make a reasonable effort to reach out directly to a TO

- TOs hearing about your DQ from other players does not count as proper notice
- If you registered with “Pay at Venue” and didn’t show or notify staff, you will be banned from using Pay at Venue at future events

If you’re withdrawing after the refund deadline has passed, you must provide a legitimate excuse (e.g., illness, emergency) to avoid penalties.

➤ If the refund deadline has not passed, you may request to be removed from the bracket without any consequences.

3. Unsportsmanlike Conduct Toward Players or Staff

This includes:

- Excessive trash talk, taunting, or personal insults
- Refusal to show basic post-match respect
- Aggression or yelling towards staff or community members especially during sets

➤ Warnings may be issued for minor first-time incidents

➤ Major or repeated behavior will escalate according to the penalty structure

4. Tampering With Tournament Equipment or Causing Venue Damage

Actions like unplugging consoles, modifying hardware, damaging cables, interfering with the stream station, or damaging the venue (e.g., walls, furniture, power outlets) are strictly prohibited.

➤ Immediate removal from the venue

➤ Full reimbursement or replacement of any damaged equipment or venue property is required

➤ Lifetime ban if restitution is not made

5. Evading Disciplinary Action (Using Alternate Tags or False Info)

Any attempt to circumvent a ban or penalty by:

- Using alternate accounts or player tags
- Registering under another person’s name
- Hiding identity from TOs

- Will result in an extended or permanent ban
 - No Style reserves the right to share this info with partner TOs

6. Harassment or Inappropriate Behavior (In-Person or Online)

Harassment includes but is not limited to:

- Verbal threats, stalking, sexual remarks, or slurs
 - Unwanted physical contact
 - Online harassment tied to the event or community
- Zero tolerance policy
 - Immediate disqualification and possible permanent ban without warning
 - Law enforcement may be contacted in severe cases

7. Leaving Garbage or Disrespecting the Venue

Players are expected to clean up after themselves and maintain the integrity of the venue space. This includes proper disposal of:

- Food containers, cups, bottles, and wrappers
- Personal items or gear left behind
- Any mess made at setups, casual stations, or eating areas

No open food or uncovered drinks are allowed at tournament setups.

Sealed bottles are allowed, but anything that can spill (e.g., open containers, fast food trays, uncovered cups) must be kept away from gameplay and stream stations.

- First offense may result in a warning
- Repeated offenses or blatant disregard will lead to disqualification or ban per the penalty structure
- Severe violations may result in venue bans or loss of future venue privileges for No Style events
