

AVEDIS' SPOKEN HEART

-FADE

Tones blare from vivid imaginations
The air seems to come alive
These are moments for which we live
Soul connection
Energy is key to musical flow
Let the soul go fade into the notes.

-TRAPPED

Am I too small to sing for your life
Too soft for your deep soul
But for our human race I'll die
For your life I'll fight and die
Burn and turn in the walls of prison
Burn in the church of life
Hurt and break my heart
You're in my heart
Not on my shoulders.

-TELEPORT

Radical measures
Free reign with your methods
Words of blurred
Freely like matter
This is a delicate situation
Life is a spiritual war
These games have no winners
I'm not cruel for the pleasure of it
Little brains they had Used to plan
Forced to eliminate peace
Cowards
Just let us be
If society wasn't like this
Then you think we would be.

-TABS

During the week only
Hokus pokus
No focus
We should be brought

Up to speed
And begin to tour
Tool and die with me
On the conveyor belt
Still stuck as before
Still running in place on a treadmill
Still looking for the air
Penetrate deeper and deeper
Into the psych
Devil and all his little nymphs
With red hot pitch forks
Dancing to the beat of their hearts
They'll get along famously
With their slugs.

-GRASS GROWS

No question
No confusion
Just a continuous stream of silence
Angelic darkness of path
Prisms of the mind
As rhythms in dawn's naked light
Dance like a dream
Pass multicolored candles
Shedding blades of madness
Roll joints below the rain
Shadows burn blood
Pours on blind fortresses
Psychotic dances sing everything
Grass grows through
Concrete hills
Shaped like curved backbones
I mentally explode
Rise to the purposive seeds
Thunder crashes and countries scream
Angelic darkness prevailing
Through space and time.

-RECESS

Who has come
My hate is killing me
No moon I ever desired
No star I ever sought
Complaints I have a lot

Every sorrow I have hidden
Every faint I laughed off
To what end be death
If not for love and
What is life without love
Sweeter than sweet is love.

-HAPPINESS

Let's live our life with happiness
Not with worry pain or hurt
Your love is always in my heart
Your eyes make me go crazy in this world
You are the only one for me
They say love is like a rose
Spring will come and it will bloom again.

-DAY IS NEW

I woke up today with new hopes
Don't know what the day has in store
The day is new the hurt is new
If the day is gone and I don't see you
The whole world is dark for me
Night and day are even
No one can separate our hearts
Only death can separate us
God hold our heart
Our loving heart.

-ECHOS

Craving creation
Dreaming reality
Withholding faith
A struggle presents itself
There's no one out there
Worthy of mind
Worth of mind as silence exists
Ignorance to protect us from evil eyes
Reading to gain knowledge
Someone worthy
Never capturing a moment
Fables told us to save face
A mimic of rudeness echos

-FOR SAKE

Deception is breathing
Seven pounds lifted
After my wrong has been corrected
Forever lingering temptation
The life and after life of my Personal supreme being
I do not label my GOD
For he does not label me
The rise and fall of my Personal attribute
As I kneel before you
I ask for your forgiveness.

-FETUS

We come into this world
Naked from our Mother's womb
What a beautiful thing
But when it's gone
It hurts
Especially
When it is someone you love
We have not given enough
We have only taken
We have not loved enough
We have only hated
Life is an unimaginable
Source of love
They must have pushed
More in and pushed more out
Because we are all
Still here.
