from Jeff Plaman to All Participants:

Hello! welcome... we'll get started shortly Resources: <https://bit.ly/MNoer2dl>

from MaryBeth Habel to Host (privately):

Sorry, do I enter my phone number to join?

from Jeff Plaman to Jon Fila (privately):

Start presenting and turn on autocaptions from your side... you might need to unplug your headset so that your mic picks up my intro and captions it.

from MaryBeth Habel to Host (privately):

Actually, I think I figured it out from Jeff Plaman to MaryBeth Habel (privately):

You can have the system call you or use your computer speakers

from Jeff Plaman to All Attendees:

Welcome to the call. Please ask questions in chat... send to "all panelists" please

from Jeff Plaman to All Attendees:

You can raise your hand if you have a question and I'll unmute your mic.

from Jeff Plaman to All Attendees:

So glad you're all here.

from Jeff Plaman to Brad (privately):

audio OK?

from Brad to Host (privately):

Yes, although his would go out for a bit

from Jeff Plaman to All Attendees:

phet sims are awesome for science!

from Lindy Franco to All Panelists:

Does OER have MN standards?

from Jeff Plaman to All Attendees:

@lindy - MPCC courses are all MN Standards-aligned

from Jeff Plaman to All Attendees:

Others may not be.

MN Partnership for Collaborative Curriculum <http://oermn.org>

from Kim to All Panelists:

Curious if the H5P example (drag and drop) you're showing, is accessible?

from Jeff Plaman to Kim (privately):

Good q... I'll ask Jon

from Jeff Plaman to Kim (privately):

he'll respond

from Brad to Jeff Plaman (privately):

<http://rewordify.com> What a great resource! Wasn't aware of it!

from Kim to All Panelists:

...awesome point Jon! Thank you for reminding us to ask for permission. Often this is overlooked.

from Jeff Plaman to Brad (privately):

Can you unmute your own mic?

from Jeff Plaman to All Participants:

<https://bit.ly/MNoer2dl> includes slides and links

from Brad to Jeff Plaman (privately):

no

from Jon Fila to All Participants:

Through MPCC they do

from Ben Haensel to Host (privately):

Amen, Use an LMS for content, Google Classroom is not an LMS.

from Brad to Jeff Plaman (privately):

Teachers who haven't experienced OER, could quickly become overwhelmed. What are 1 or 2 tips for beginners.

from Jeff Plaman to All Participants:

Any Q's?

from Kim to All Panelists:

completely agree - having interactive, accessible examples is rare and valuable!

from Jeff Plaman to All Participants:

We'll wait.... lol (teacher voice)

from Ben Haensel to Host, Presenter & Panelists:

How often does a school perform curriculum reviews? Curric needs to be vetted on a regular basis, and there's definitely a cost to OER or independently created curric.

from Brad to Host, Presenter & Panelists:

Are OER materials more difficult to vet than traditional vendor supplied/supported resources?
