

HISTORY AT PLAY™

Judith Kalaora

Founder | Artistic Director

History At Play™, LLC (HAP) was founded in 2010 by Artistic Director Judith Kalaora to chronicle the lives of influential and often forgotten figures. Offering solo and ensemble Immersive Living History Experiences, HAP is committed to employing like-minded artists from around the globe. Kalaora is a professional educator, award-winning playwright, and living historian. Graduating Syracuse University Magna cum Laude, Kalaora completed the Globe Education Program, at Shakespeare's Globe Theatre of London, UK.

Kalaora is internationally acclaimed for portrayals of Revolutionary War Heroine Deborah Sampson, Technological Phenom Hedy Lamarr, and Teacher in Space Christa McAuliffe. HAP has redefined immersive theatre as a pop culture teaching tool, exposing audiences to points of view entirely different from their own.

HAP is a New England Foundation for the Arts touring troupe; a benefactor of Massachusetts Cultural Council awards; the 2019 recipient of the Dr. Bobby Gilmer Moss Lectureship Series Award, granted by the National Society of the Sons of the American Revolution; the 2021 winner of the Women in the Arts Award, granted by the National Society of the Daughters of the American Revolution; and the 2023 winner of a Massachusetts Growth Capital Corporation (MGCC) Inclusivity Grant. Kalaora completed the United States Army War College's National Security Seminar in 2024. She was one of 106 civilian participants, selected from across the USA, invited to collaborate with the best minds in the American Military and its allies.

History At Play™, LLC has created a successful business model that is appreciated by the history, corporate, educational, & entertainment industries for breaking the mold of traditional hi-calibre touring theatre, along with virtual and hybrid events.

A selection from History At Play™, LLC: Deborah Sampson, Hedy Lamarr, WASP Ann Baumgartner, Princess Diana, Christa McAuliffe.
