CLOZE EXERCISE

A Cloze exercise is an activity that asks you to fill in the missing words. You need to read on past the gap and then back again to work out what the missing word is.

The words are in the box at the top, see if you can do it without looking at the words for some of the sentences.

In this story written by Vince Ford, we are introduced to two main characters who have been best friends all the way through Primary School. Jonty and Choc were the kind of friends that always had each other's back. They were always together.

When they move on to Intermediate school, they are put into different classes and they become involved in different activities. There are many new opportunities available and the boys have different interests. Jonty tries out for the school play and Choc joins up to the Hip Hop dance club

There are many new kids as well and they start to make new friends with kids in the different activities they do. Jonty's new friend makes fun of Choc, and Jonty doesn't stick up for him. Choc is hurt by this and spends more time with his new friend.
