

Dear Patricia,

I recently explored your (company name) website and was inspired by the impact you're making in people's lives and routine. Meditation's benefits are profound, yet many remain unaware.

Lot of can-be-changed stuff crossed my mind while going through the website. There are at least 3 opportunities to set (company name) apart and elevate the sales growth. I'd love to offer a free trial, crafting compelling landing pages and funnels to showcase the value I can bring.

If this is your cup of tea, reply with a quick YES and I'll email the call details.

Best regards,

David
