MEMBER CODE OF CONDUCT

Members are reminded that Wolfstar Archers has been built and developed over the years by its members for the benefit of all members and for the advancement of the sport of Field Archery. It is the responsibility of everyone involved with the club to ensure that it continues to develop and progress and that no person/s is/are allowed to degrade or damage the property or interests of the club or bring the club or the sport of Field Archery into disrepute.

The executive Committee is a voluntary body elected by the membership at the Annual General Meeting each year and its commitment to the club and its membership should thus be respected. It should be noted that Executive Committee decisions are made for the benefit of the club in general and not for the convenience of the Executive Committee.

Being a member of Wolfstar Archers entitles and obligates you to certain rights and responsibilities, as does other members, guests, visitors and the club overall. Members of and visitors to Wolfstar Archers are required under this Code of Conduct to behave at all times in a way which upholds the values and good reputation of Wolfstar Archers.

The Code

Members and Visitors have a right to:

- ☐ Be treated equitably and with respect
- ☐ Participate in an environment free from all forms of harassment and discrimination
- ☐ Have their privacy and confidentiality treated lawfully and with respect
- ☐ Submit their views to the Executive Committee of the club provided this is done appropriately and respectfully in line with the club's governance procedures and policies.

Members of and Visitors to Wolfstar Archers must:

- ☐ Treat everyone with respect, courtesy and without harassment. All members must respect the rights, (not to be harassed, discriminated or bullied) dignity and worth of all Club Members regardless of age, gender reassignment, disability, marriage and civil partnership, pregnancy and maternity, race, religion or belief, sex or sexual orientation
- ☐ Behave honestly and with integrity

MEMBER CODE OF CONDUCT

- ☐ Not provide false or misleading information in response to a request for information that is made for official purposes in connection with Wolfstar Archers
- ☐ Use Wolfstar Archers resources in an appropriate manner
- ☐ At all times behave in a way that upholds the good reputation of Wolfstar Archers and the SFAA.
- ☒ Committee members must only discuss committee business where all members are aware of the conversation, either at a committee meeting or on the committee group chat, this is to ensure full transparency and avoid any missed information, misunderstandings and avoid any confusion on the way Wolfstar is managed.

Breaches of the Code of Conduct – Reporting and Resolution

Wolfstar Archers, through its Executive Committee, reserves the right to make decisions and enforce fair and reasonable measures following a breach of the Code of Conduct.

Any breach of the Code of Conduct must be reported to the Executive Committee who will fully investigate the matter in a calm, honest and dignified manner and every effort should be made by all concerned to maintain confidentiality.

If, following an investigation and having considered all relevant circumstances it is concluded that a breach has occurred, then the Executive Committee shall take what it deems to be appropriate action in line with the club's Disciplinary Procedure. This may include issuing a formal reprimand in writing, a temporary suspension of club membership or fully revoking club membership.

In the case of non-members, action may include a ban from club premises for a set period of time or for life.

Any breach of Criminal Law shall be referred to the Police.
