

Aare Tunji Alapini NPM MSc mni, is a retired Assistant Inspector General of Police. A renowned Criminologist and proud Lagosian from Popo Aguda, Brazilian Quarters, who joined the Force in 1974.

His trajectory in the Force took him through various postings in the service. He was at one time the Force Public Relations Officer. Commissioner of Police Airwing. Commissioner of Police Edo State, Commissioner of Police Zamfara State, Commandant Police College, Ikeja. He was also one time Commissioner of Police Ogun State. When he was promoted Assistant Inspector General of Police, he was posted to take Charge of Zone Eleven, Osogbo covering Oyo, Osun and Ondo States.

A member of the National Institute Kuru, he was also the Commandant of Police Staff College, Jos. Later he was posted to Zone Eight Lokoja to take charge of Kogi, Kwara and Ekiti State. A member of International Association of Chiefs of Police and holder of many International Awards and Chieftaincy Titles, Aare Tunji Alapini MNI, served meritoriously and retired in 2009.