Thanks to the Abbott Memorial Teachers and Staff for going over and above every day for our kids during these difficult times! They are working very hard to keep kids safe, in-school, and learning, despite the many challenges and uncertainties they face daily!

Substitutes Needed: Earn extra money! Work with wonderful students and staff! Whether you are available one, a few, or every school day of the week, we need substitute teachers and paraprofessionals! Come join us at our outstanding school in a welcoming environment!

Call

413-664-6023 if you are interested and ask for Dr. Mac!

Have you downloaded your app yet? The new APPtegy phone app is available now and you can download it here! Android:

From Nurse Tiffany: Please be sure your child has gloves or mittens everyday. If you need help providing warm winter clothes, please let me know. If you would like to donate waterproof gloves or mittens that your children have outgrown, we are happy to accept them. We do not need any other winter clothing at this time. Thank you!

The last day of school at this time is June 9.

The PTG and everyone at Abbott thanks you so much for making the Holiday Meal and Basket Raffle such a huge success! Because of your thoughtfulness and generosity, we raised $1298.00 for the meal and $2271.00 for the raffle. That's a total of $3,569.00 going towards our Playground Fund to update equipment for our kids!
