

Rumor has it that Macavity, who is notorious for stealing luxuries from the rich appeared last night! Macavity is unidentified, but a man claimed that he had saw Macavity and described him as a young man, who is slender, but seemed to have speed and explosiveness, and he also wears a shinny earring. In addition, the latest poll shows that Macavity in many people's beliefs are intelligent, hostile to the rich but friendly to the poor. In their point of view, Macavity is really a swordsman. The government tried to arrest Macavity everytime when he sent a notice before stealing, but failed everytime. It also believed that the army had gathered to catch him, but they denied that. The site Macavity appeared was all over the world, even in the desert!

The myth about Macavity has rumored for over a hundred years. Many suspect disagree the media's reports. No one can invade houses defended such forbidding without any track. Though skeptics still tried to find out the truth who he is, Macavity is a magnetic being.