The “Oh Shit! What Should I Do Before January?” Guide

“The basic idea is this: you have to cover your ass with regards to the federal government. You want to go into this as tidily as possible and assess the risks of leaving things legally unclear. Do your gender markers agree as much as possible? If not, think about whether or not it makes sense to reconcile them. Do you have a clear plan for preventing pregnancy if you might get pregnant somehow? If not, think about what you might do if that happened. Do you have a clear sense of how you will ensure your family structure and safety? If not, you should talk together about how to speed that process up. What is your immigration status and is there anything you can do to push it forward towards your ultimate goal?”

Based in Silicon Valley, we tackle the root causes of inequality and poverty by leading collaborative campaigns for quality jobs, healthy communities, equitable growth and vibrant democracy."

Areas of focus: minimum and living wage advocacy, ordinance and policy advocacy, healthcare policy and training, voter outreach, government accountability and reform, interfaith alliance on economics and justice

Asian Women's Shelter

Location: San Francisco

Mission: The mission of Asian Women's Shelter (AWS) is to eliminate domestic violence by promoting the social, economic and political self-determination of women. AWS is committed to every person's right to live in a violence-free home, and has a specific focus towards addressing the cultural and language needs of immigrant, refugee, and U.S.-born Asian women and their children. This perspective is reflected in the organization's broad strategy, which integrates culturally competent and language-accessible shelter services, educational programs, and community-based advocacy.

While we have the cultural and language capacity to address the specific needs of individuals from Pan-Asian backgrounds, we welcome all survivors. We provide language accessibility, educational programs, community-based initiatives and advocacy. All of our services and programs seek to address an interplay of factors affecting survivors, including sexism, racism, ageism, classism, ableism and heterosexism.

Because AWS recognizes the abuse of power as the root cause of violence, all of our work is rooted in an anti-oppression framework. We are a non-hierarchical, consensus-based organization and operate in a shared leadership model. We continuously seek to collaborate with other organizations in order to build a network of services beyond AWS. These efforts not only help us serve our clients, but create a stronger voice for our advocacy and policy work.

Community United Against Violence \(CUAV\)

W.O.M.A.N., Inc.

Location: San Francisco

About: W.O.M.A.N., Inc. has serviced the San Francisco Bay Area in its mission to end domestic violence since 1978. Over the years, the programs at our organization have evolved as needed to remain aligned with the needs of those we serve. W.O.M.A.N., Inc. supports those impacted by violence using an innovative approach to services and programs that build stronger, safer communities.

As feminism evolves, so does our organization. We work towards social justice and in doing so we are intentional about the values that drive our organization forward. Our Cultural Praxis reminds us to be mindful of our structural background, and at the same time about the work we do to end domestic violence. Survivors who connect with us are coming from different points in their healing process; some are still in their relationship, some have left, but regardless of where they're at we support them all. We believe survivors, friends, and family deserve to be treated with respect and dignity, to be honored and valued. We also honor the diversity of survivors we serve, and believe it's important to collaborate with various community members and groups. Our collaborations help us increase our capacity to better serve survivors and their family and friends. We offer a 24/7 DV support line and other culturally sensitive supportive services in both English & Spanish.

Monarch Services/Servicios Monarca

Location: Santa Cruz and Watsonville

About: Monarch Services provides crisis intervention, shelter, counseling services, and prevention work for survivors of sexual assault, domestic violence, and human trafficking in Santa Cruz County. All of our crisis intervention and prevention services are available in Spanish and English and are culturally sensitive. Printed materials are also available in both languages. Our outreach efforts have concentrated on poor Latino neighborhoods with residents that have several barriers to seeking services, including language, literacy and legal status issues, and cultural biases.

Lyon-Martin Health Services, San Francisco

Classes are held at various locations around the SF Bay Area.

Center for Sex and Culture

Location: San Francisco

About: The Mission of the Center for Sex & Culture is to provide judgment-free education, cultural events, a library/media archive, and other resources to audiences across the sexual and gender spectrum; and to research and disseminate factual information, framing and informing issues of public policy and public health.

The Center for Sex & Culture aims to provide a community center for education, advocacy, research, and support to the widest range of people. We offer classes that run the gamut from informational to experiential. We host classes and cultural events as well as offer our space to other organizations and teachers as scheduling allows.

We serve a nationally (in fact, globally) significant function, adding to the few accessible resources for sex education available to the public, not just academics or specialists. We have acquired various collections of books, papers, art, erotic material, personal collections from notable people within the sex-positive community, and other media. The Center for Sex & Culture is also engaged in several Fiscal Sponsorships with artists, educators, and organizations. We are currently working with Scarleteen, a website started by Heather Corinna, to give access to accurate age appropriate sex education to teens.

We are available for consulting and educational service provision to commercial enterprises, educational organizations, the community, and the media. And every year we welcome interns from colleges and universities who are interested in sex education.

International Rescue Committee:

The International Rescue Committee provides opportunities for refugees, asylees, victims of human trafficking, survivors of torture, and other immigrants to thrive in America. Each year, thousands of people, forced to flee violence and persecution, are welcomed by the people of the United States into the safety and freedom of America. These individuals have survived against incredible odds. The IRC works with government bodies, civil society actors, and local volunteers to help them translate their past experiences into assets that are valuable to their new communities. In Atlanta and other offices across the country, the IRC helps them to rebuild their lives.

Youth Outright WNC

Youth OUTright empowers lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, questioning youth to be confident and vital members of our community in which youth of all gender and sexual identities can live in safe and inclusive environments.

As a youth advocacy and leadership organization, we provide affirmation, information, support and resources for lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender and questioning (LGBTQ) youth of ages 14-23 in 18 counties in Western North Carolina. Based on 2010 U.S. Census figures, it is estimated that there could be more than 4,000 LGBTQ youth in our 18-county region.

We believe that no youth – regardless of their sexual identity, gender expression or gender identification – should be bullied, harassed or discriminated against because of who they are or are perceived to be. Our work is centered around one overarching goal—providing LGBTQ youth opportunities to develop self confidence, compassion, and a passion for community stewardship.

All Souls Unitarian Church

All Souls is a multicultural community of people who Love Beyond Belief. We express this in three ways: Connection, Compassion, & Courage

All Souls Unitarian Church Centennial Vision 2021

Our church is an embodiment and celebration of the world as we hope it will one day become. A climate of profound hospitality, love, and acceptance radiates from our campus and our members. Our sanctuary is bursting with people from a diversity of theologies, philosophies, ethnicities, cultures, colors, classes, abilities, generations, sexual orientations, and political persuasions, all dwelling together in peace, seeking the truth in love, and helping one another. Our compassion is reflected in our actions to care for one another, our neighbors, and the environment. Our religious education involves all ages and aims at connecting heads, hearts, and hands.

We are organized so that:

- Our relationships are nurtured through inter-generational programs and events, music and the arts, and large and small groups that affirm the diversity of the congregation.
- Our Religious Education is age-appropriate, intellectually stimulating, and supports individual spiritual development as well as an understanding of Unitarian Universalism.
- Our building and grounds are places of safety and sanctuary that reflect beauty, accessibility, and sustainability, and honor nature as a source of inspiration and life.

- Our multiple sacred spaces support a variety of worship styles and spiritual practices.
- Our leadership development is intentional, inclusive and ongoing, for both congregants and staff.
- Our congregational governance is democratic and transparent.

Nerdy Girls

Tulsa and OKC (And Nashville, TN)

More of a social group than an activist group, but the Nerdy Girls do engage in philanthropic endeavours frequently, and is a great way to network with some fantastic women.

Nerdy Girls is a national organization that creates intelligent communities to empower women. Members are encouraged to participate in and become a part of the culture around them through education, arts, and volunteerism. Our community events aim to support local business and to initiate involvement between members and their neighborhood leaders.

Nerdy Girls members are a network of intelligent women from a variety of disciplines and backgrounds. Members share skills and knowledge across the group in order to educate and to be educated. Nerdy Girls use these collective skills to strengthen our communities.

We support the visibility of women in professional fields, ranging from the arts and academia to science and mathematics, and the encouragement of young women to move into these fields. We encourage women to identify as nerdy, intelligent, creative, techie, artistic, educated, and more.

About: “The Women and Girls Foundation promotes social change by addressing fundamental social inequalities and raising the awareness of these inequities to the media, voters, legislators and corporate and non-profit decision-makers. By serving as an independent and clear voice, the foundation strives to bring together women and men in our region to work together to find solutions to create sustained equity for all of its citizens. WGF empowers our donors to invest their dollars strategically and collaboratively to support women and girls’ efforts. We then gather those donations and make strategic investments, through grant awards, made to regional non-profits to support systemic change initiatives, at the state and local levels, focused at developing more equitable public and corporate policies to ensure women and girls in our region can realize their full potential.”

Pittsburgh Aids Task Force

“We are dedicated to supporting and empowering all individuals living with HIV/AIDS and preventing the spread of infection.

Building on three decades of caring and experience in Southwestern Pennsylvania, we accomplish our mission by:

- Integrating the voice of consumers into all we do,

- Serving as a primary resource for HIV/AIDS support, information, prevention, and testing,
- Collaborating with and educating other organizations, providers, and the community,
- Operating with the highest ethical standards, and maximizing limited resources,
- Providing a safe and confidential environment for those in need in our community, and,
- Working to eliminate the devastating impact of stigma.”
