

Lend Me Some Money

Fred: Could you lend me 20 dollars?

Jimmy: Again? You already owe me 10 dollars from last week.

Fred: I know. I'll pay you back next Saturday.

Jimmy: What do you want the money for?

Fred: I'm going ice-skating tonight.

Jimmy: The rink in town is closed tonight.

Fred: I'm going to the rink in Mansfield.

Jimmy: Mansfield doesn't have a rink.

Why do you really want the money?

Fred: Ok. I want to buy my girlfriend a present.

Jimmy: Jane?

Fred: No Martha. I chucked Jane yesterday.

Jimmy: You are unbelievable. You treat people like dirt.

Fred: Look, will you lend me the money or not?

Jimmy: No I won't. First you dump Jane. And then the next day you want to buy your new girlfriend a present!

Fred: It's none of your business.

Jimmy: True. But lending you money is my business. People like you make me sick. You're not getting any money and I want the 10 dollars you owe me really soon.

❓ Why doesn't Jimmy want to lend Fred the money?

ZOOM IN

lend - låna

already - redan

owe - vara skyldig

last week - förra veckan

go ice-skating - åka skridskor

closed - stängd

chuck - dumpa, spola

unbelievable - otrolig

treat - behandla

dirt - smuts, skit

won't = will not - kommer inte

dump - dumpa, spola

it's none of your business -

det angår dig inte

it's my business - det angår mig

you make me sick -

du får mig att må illa

soon - snart