

This is a document concerning a user on Discord / Twitter named ItsSpitzly / Colton G (@ColtonGulliver).

Intro

After the release of a different doc posted a year or so ago, He has spread around to a multitude of people that the doc contained all lies, in a way, refusing and blocking out (nearly) everything discussed as “fake” and made up.*

This caused multiple people who may be unaware and not fully filled in with the story to back her up.

She has claimed that the creator(s) “admitted to it being fake” which isn’t true at all.

This doc was made around a year or two ago, with people involved being 13-14 years old, keeping this in mind, it was hard to read and understand because it was written by young teens.

This doc should serve as a revisited document, containing more in depth and clean explanations, screenshots, and to give an update/add onto any new things that have come up in the past two years.

Keep in mind, the known victims of the person have shot up over the past years. More people who were affected by this awful human being are coming out to give their stories and proof of the things that have happened.

This doc is not speculation, it is fact and truth.

Start date: ??/??/2020

Status: SITUATION IS ONGOING (2+ years)

He made a response doc soon after the original document was released. Giving her own side of the story(/ies). this doc in fact, was not working in her favor, as her responses document have been enough on its own to cause him to be banned from a multitude of servers in the OSC (object show community)

Currently,

She has claimed to have apologized, and that multiple groups of people are just harassing him and witch-hunting to mess with him, though still passing it off in a way that he did nothing wrong.

He still continues to knowingly join servers where 12+ people who are uncomfortable with his presence also reside. He would increasingly become active in those servers. ultimately causing those people to force themselves to ignore Colton or leave the server.

I fear he doesn't realize that his presence makes a good majority of people severely uncomfortable, and I would just like him to know that. It isn't right.

Colton continuously mocks people and references the situations in the servers general chats, for all to see.

I'm completely unsure of how that would be the case, so I'm here to clear up some things I've noticed myself.*

 (who may or may not be active in those servers[cannot verify for everyone in every situation])*

I'm here to, once again, clear up misconceptions.

I have tried my best to make this document easy to read and to give direct evidence. If you have any comments, questions or concerns, feel free to dm me on Twitter.

Beforehand

This doc will completely censor everything that needs to be censored. Things like:

- Usernames/Names of people who are on “either side”
 - Character and sona names
- Server names (some exceptions will be made)
 - Profile pictures

I will not censor server channel names, as they are a key component in giving certain explanations on things.

Screenshots with censored content are not color consistent. The censors are only distinguish different users. This is to give the victims more privacy.

Screenshots were given to the writer (me) by multiple people. Please do not attempt to attack or harass these users, it's just not right.

Most people associated are minors. But being a minor does not excuse you from being disgusting to other people.

Times will be a bit funky and “incorrect”. Screenshots are, again, taken by a multitude of people.

Therefore the time of screenshots will vary because of time zones, with some of which taken after Colton's account involved with the situation was deleted. The different time zones will not be mentioned to protect the identities of people involved.

Multiple people have been interviewed to create this document. I have not reached out to Colton myself as I do not want to be associated.

I have checked countless and countless times again to make sure all info here is legit and correct.

Warnings

Messages and screenshots in this Document may contain incorrect pronouns and deadnames (not just for the person it's written about, but other people involved.)

Colton uses she/her + he/him pronouns. I will be using they/them for everyone else to keep anonymous.

DOCUMENT WILL DISCUSS SUBJECTS SUCH AS SEXUAL TOPICS, VARIOUS FETISHES, MANIPULATION, GROOMING, ABUSE, AND SELF-HARM

Definition of grooming:

Grooming is when someone builds a relationship, trust and emotional connection with a child or young person so they can manipulate, exploit and abuse them.

This situation has been occurring for over 2 years. Keeping this in mind, a lot of things have changed. It's not right to intentionally misgender/use the wrong pronouns for someone, or deadname that person either. no matter how you feel about that person. Truest apologies in advance.

This document will both update on some incidents and bring new ones into light.

Background info

A few users and Colton met in the Open Source Objects server, one of the users made a group chat and they all quickly became friends. Bonding in voice chat and chatting for hours and days on end. Colton had already begun discussing about sexual topics however, but unbeknownst to me, members let it slide as it was just simply seen as “being immature”, but knowing what we know now. It is down right creepy (read below)

There were plenty of small incidents involving other server members simply being immature, as everyone else was 12-14. But Colton was 15-16 at the time. Others would apologize for their actions since most were unaware about sexual references since most were too young to even know about that type of thing in depth.

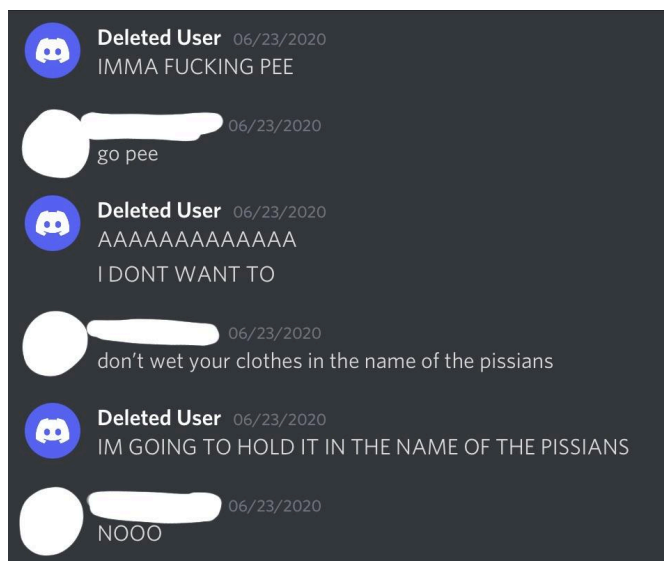

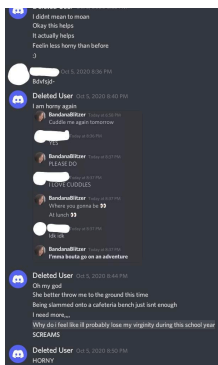

There was ANOTHER smaller incident in the group chat. The gc owner became uncomfortable with how often these things would happen and how others treated these smaller instances not so seriously so they deleted it and someone made a server for select members of the gc.

Some tension sparked as a lot of things were happening at the same time. Colton would do gross things in general chats like vore/eat others characters. She would vent outside of the designated channels, making members uncomfortable as the topics discussed were extremely heavy.

He would also make increasingly worse sexual jokes/start sexual conversations in this group chat full of minors.*

Colton would also talk about pee and peeing herself a lot. What doesn't help is that the group's name is a reference to "a time in the voice chat where (everyone) attempted to vc as long as possible. There was a time where everyone left for a pee break at around 4am so the joke is that at 4am if they were ever awake (everyone/they) would reference that time." It seemed she was taking it to the extremes.

Members would express that they did not think that his behaviors were appropriate.
Example(s) below:

Retaliation examples(users expressing being uncomfortable):

At one point, Colton would “joke” about masturbating in the Open Source Objects voice channels. Members freaked out, telling her it was not a good idea to do that.

Check Sexual and Fetish Interactions additional information.

some members would also make “dirty jokes.” from what has been shared before, they were nowhere near what Splitzly would say. EX:*

The members of the GC were giving advice and listening to extreme amounts of trauma dumping that she did that they shouldn't have been exposed to.

He exposed these kids to various fetishes and forced the fetishes into roleplays. He also forced people's characters, drew and made edits of people's art, sexualizing their characters and sonas. He harassed a young teen about their crush on another person's character.

Check Sexual and Fetish Interactions additional information.

Predatory Behavior

It is known that Colton was one of the oldest members of the friend group at the time

Colton was 15-16 years old when other friend group members were unfortunately, 12-14 years old. You can argue that having someone under Discord TOS age in a server on Discord is dangerous enough, but members did not know until this user's 13th birthday was announced, which was actually just a couple months after the gc was created.

Sexual and Fetish Interactions

This entire section is child grooming. Colton built an established friendship with these 12-14 year olds, and started making/posting numerous sexual and fetish remarks, comments, and content around them. With how often and how sudden he makes these remarks, it's clear it's more than a joke. He clearly enjoyed discussing this type of content around people much younger than him, people who were in middle school or just beginning highschool.

Colton has drawn NSFW imagery of his ocs, and other's [he has taken another user's character and drawn cum on their chest]. Image will not be shown to protect the user. But 100% I have the image and proof of it. That's only if it ever gets to a point where I absolutely have to share it

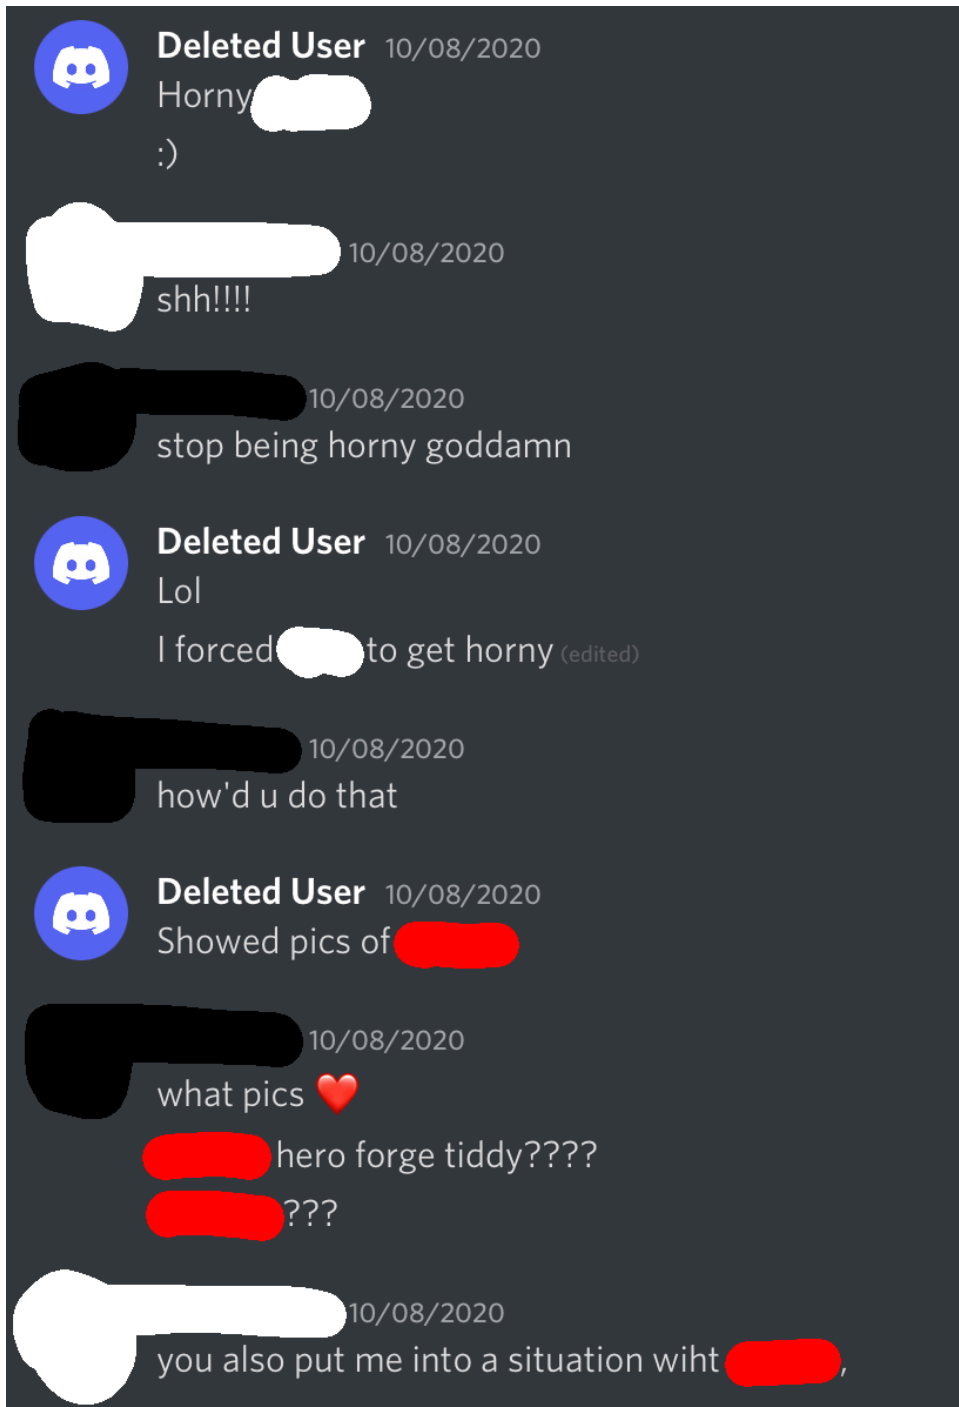

Update: I did get approval to show it

This screenshot was taken by Colton himself. She made an NSFW edit of someone's drawing, sent this in another person's dms and then sent it to the group server for everyone to see.

This person was someone she's had numerous sexual interactions with, discussing numerous sexual topics with them, making sexual jokes about them and their puberty, and erotically roleplaying with them as well as other members of this friend group. FYI This user/victim has NOTHING to do with the creation of this doc, DO not try and contact them.

He'd constantly make this individual horny by sending content and putting them in situations with this adult character (in red) in DMs. He'd then make fun of him in the main friend server.

At this time, Lymatz was his sona. He'd constantly make jokes about doing fetish acts to people in the server, either with his real life self or his sona. Remember that everyone here was 12-14 years old at the time of this, and Colton is the oldest member, 16 years old at the time.

Another example of him making a fetish comment towards someone.

After this person very clearly being uncomfortable with something Colton did, he immediately made another fetish comment to them. If someone is telling another person about being uncomfortable, responding to it with a response like this is never the right thing to do. He should know better.

Note how she mentions sona instead of character or OC. She made this comment about sonas, representations of the person. He was a 16 year old, and everyone else were young teens.

Oooo I should make that too

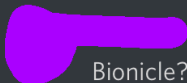

Talking about possibly meeting up with this individual, he suddenly mentioned force-feeding them, which is very concerning. Even if this was a joke, it's something very uncomfortable and gross that shouldn't ever be brought up "just because", especially in this context.

Deleted User 07/24/2020

Hmmm

How would you react if I showed you my bionicle collection

I never knew much about them, but I saw ads in Lego magazines for them and though they looked cool.

Okay I was actually trying to ask

How would you react if I approached you with a bottle of poison

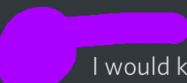

07/24/2020

I would ask why and how you have a bottle of poison and what you plan on doing with it.

Deleted User 07/24/2020

How would you react if I physically forced the poison down your throat

07/24/2020

I would kick you and run away and call poison control.

And afterward the cops or something.

Deleted User 07/24/2020

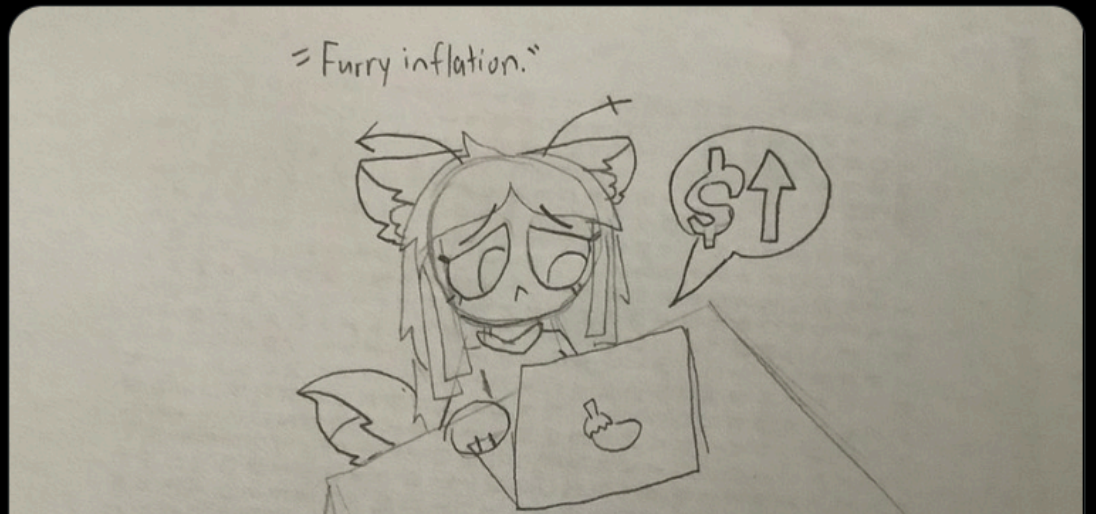

What if the poison was actually baja blast

Again, it's brought up out of nowhere. He mentions force-feeding poison to this individual after talking about an unrelated question. Not only is this a sudden fetish comment, but it's a sudden threat, even if he backed down right after.

ColtonGulliver - mental health break @ColtonGulliver · May 3

Uh uhmmm,, i tried drawing inflation >< i hope its okay.. you probably dont like it..

He never stopped making these kinds of fetish “jokes”. Even continuing on to this very year. This is public on his twitter as well, he could very well be doing worse stuff in private places just as he did in the past.

Deleted User 11/02/2020

Besides the fact that [redacted] is horny and about to lose nnn can i have some hot [redacted] pics pls? It's for a music video i want to try and make

(Video is of a person facepalming.)

Even uninitiated, he would constantly post about sexual and fetish content, as well as make sexual comments about other people. He'd constantly clown on others for going through puberty and being hormonal, and constantly encouraged and fueled that "horny" behavior.

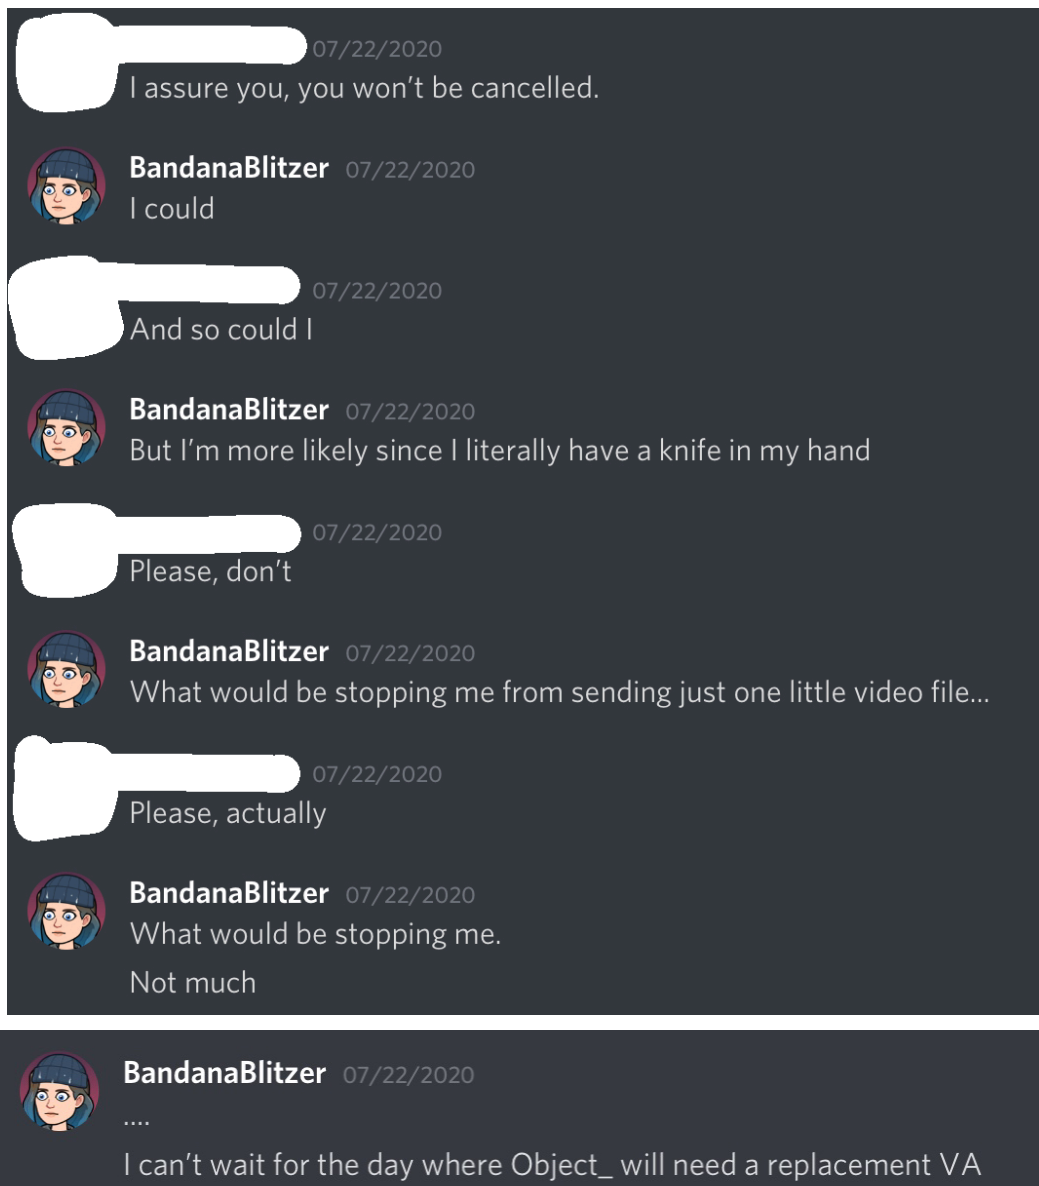

The “thing” here is the “horny in an oso vc” thing; he was going to masturbate unmuted in Open Source Objects vc. Open Source Objects is notably a server mostly composed of minors. It seemed like he wasn’t going to stop, he kept insisting it despite the obvious protests, to the point where he joined an OSO voice chat, resulting in certain members of the friend group joining the VC to prevent him from doing this. Everyone in the friend group was disgusted by what she was “joking” about.

Manipulation

Colton is a very manipulative person. Littered all throughout his messages in this document are manipulative statements and undertones. Just above are numerous examples of manipulation. Constantly bringing up fetish and sexual topics can desensitize those minors to these topics, allowing him to advance further into these topics.

Every section has proof of his manipulation, this section is just to hone in on specific examples that don't fit other sections.

The person he's DMing was a 13 year old during this screenshot. He shouldn't have been threatening/suggesting that he'd send a video of himself self-harming to anyone at all. This behavior is super manipulative and dangerous, he'd constantly talk about bad things happening to him and making threats about hurting himself.

In a public server he was moderating in, he'd constantly talk about uncomfortable subjects, such as drug abuse and self-harm. This server is/was mainly composed of minors, and those minors would try their best to try and give advice to Colton, something which these minors shouldn't have been exposed to. He'd constantly ignore it, and fight back on why he's not listening to any advice. It escalated to the point where he got demoted. Colton proceeded to rant in his private discord server a biased version of the events that took place. Within that server were his friends who'd be biased towards him, and believe he's in the right.

This is heavily manipulative. Within the public server, he had an authority position, so people likely felt compelled to listen to him. He also attempted to shut down those people whenever they said something he didn't like, either giving them half-truths or straight up lies when it felt appropriate to him. Within his private server, the people around him would be friends and people who supported him. They would also think he would be in the right, and scorn the people Colton is against.

Deleted User 11/03/2020

Im gonna go animate a vent later if that's fine

Yknow

I probably look like the attention seeker. I probably look like the one who caused all this. I probably look like the one who intended to harm.... Im not sure if i should care anymore

Im helping someone out each day in that gc, and yet i get no help in return

Is it narcissistic to say that i wish i had someone like me to help me

With his repeated use of “probably”, he’s trying to imply that he’s not really those things. What is supposed to be an admission of truth turns into guilt tripping the people in the server. Pushing this, he states that he never gets any help, which is untrue, and that he wishes he had someone like him, which implies that the server members are not good enough to be his friend.

Camp Behavior

[#1] Camp 1: Banned to protect members

A user in Camp 1 has been in the server for a while, after mod applications open and closed it was revealed they had been given the role of moderator for that server.

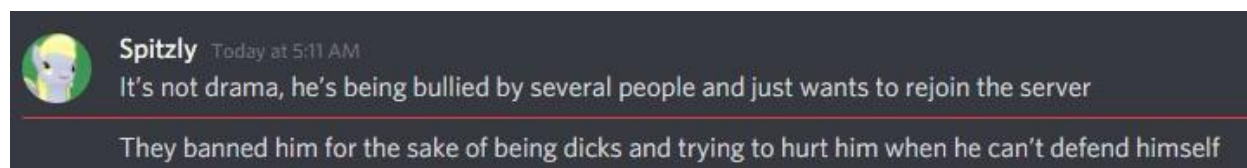

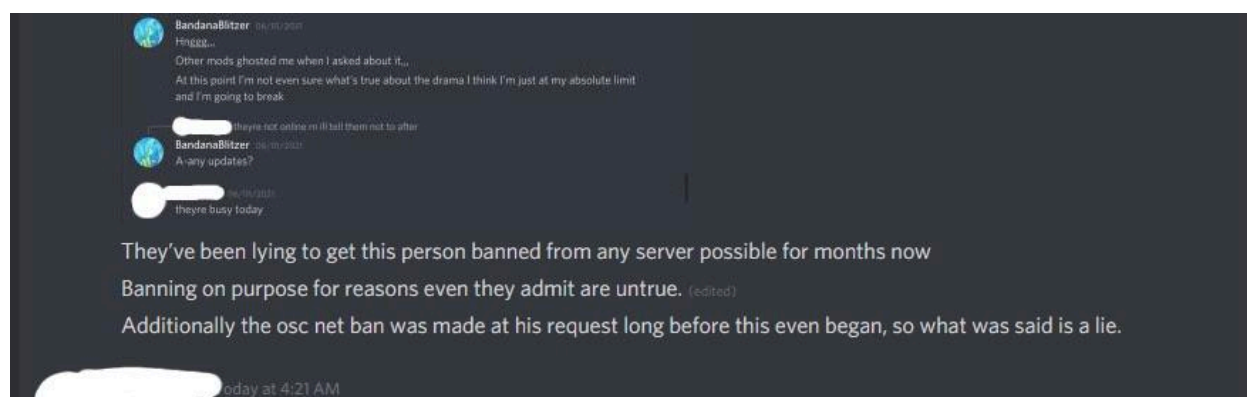

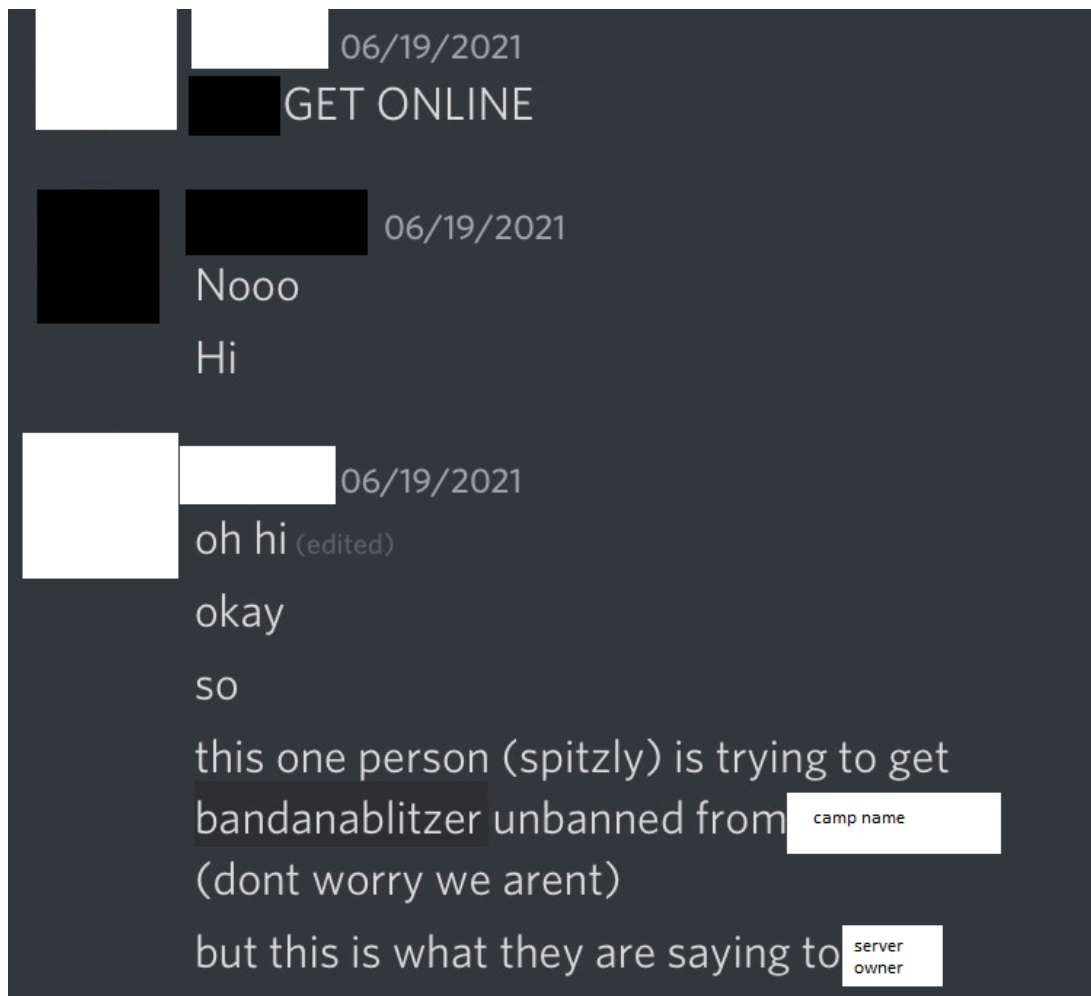

After noticing that Splitzly was in that server, and talking to a couple other people who knew Colton and wanted him out the server as his presence makes them uncomfortable, they take themselves to the mod channel and write up an explanation for banning. They swiftly ban her from the server, trying to avoid any problems.

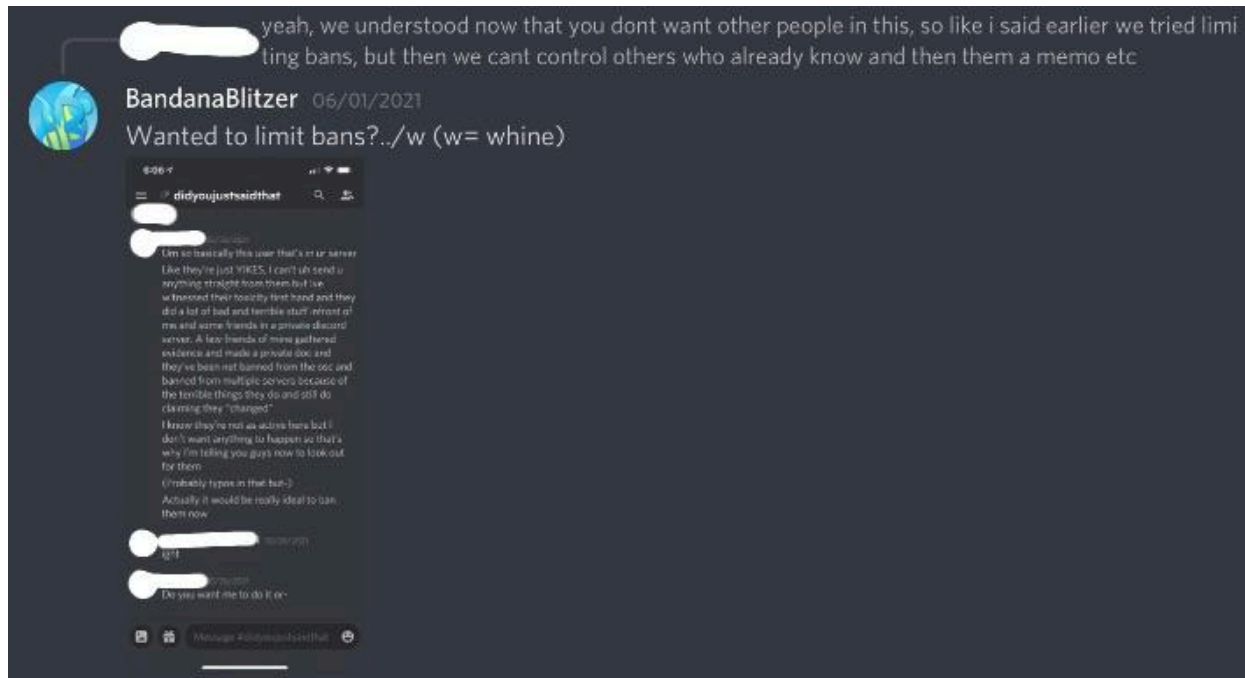

Eventually, Colton notices that she is banned from Camp 1.
Colton logs onto another account and messages Camp 1’s server owner.
He pretended to be another person

Context:

Colton was banned on his old account using the alias “BandanaBlitzer”
At this time, the account “Splitzly” was not known to be his alt by the general public. He pretended that Splitzly was a friend of “BandanaBlitzer” (her main account at the time).

Here is screenshots concerning everything written above:
All accounts uncensored belong to Splitzly.

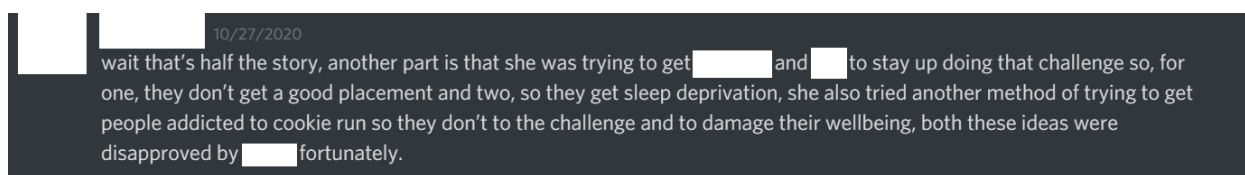

A member from the old friend group contacted a moderator to get Colton banned due to being uncomfortable.

[#2] Camp 2: Concerning practices/intentions

This was your normal alliance gc, but there was proof of her trying to do some questionable things for a win in a camp. He came up with a plan to try and sleep deprive his friends. The other alliance members responded in shock, or in a “whatever” tone, this is not “calling him dumb and saying [he’s] horrible at camps”.

The other thing he may have been talking about is the moderators' response to what he was planning. The moderators were very concerned, but did not say any of the things he claimed in his response as well

[#3] Camp 3: Behavior to other members

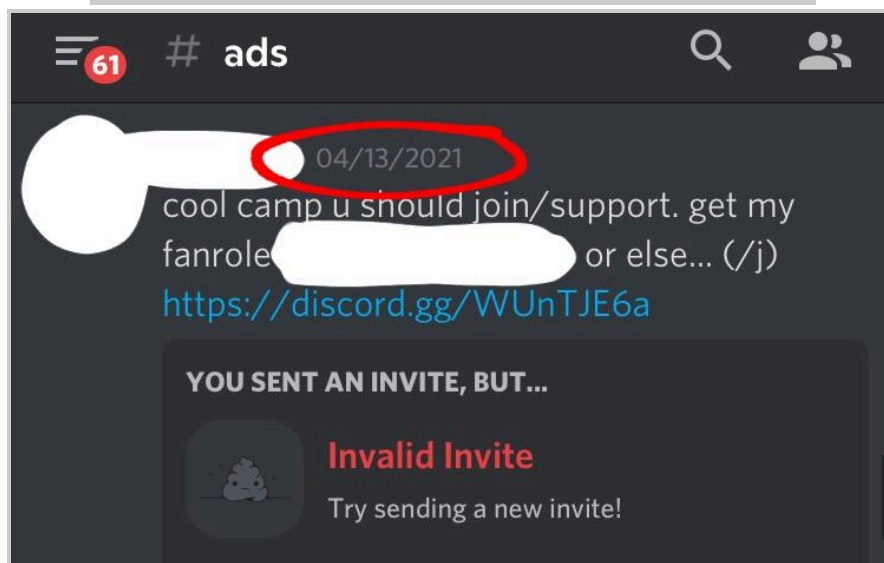

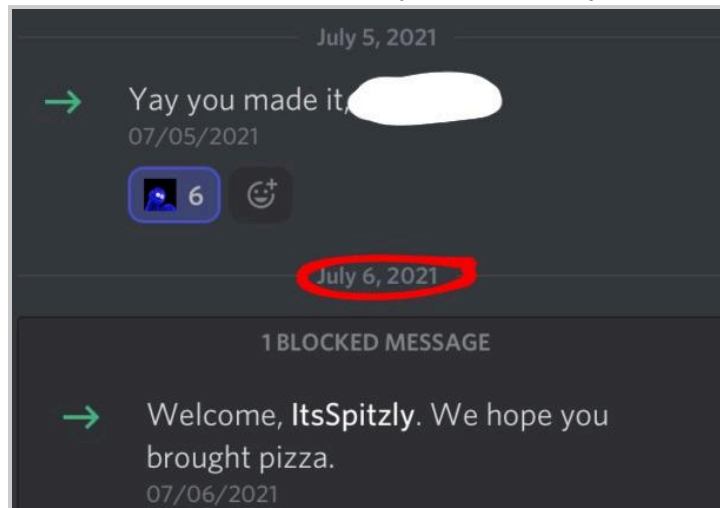

During a season of a camp with a large number of server members, Colton joined the server. Users of the defunct friend group were in this server, either competing or being in past seasons. They stressed being uncomfortable with Colton being on the server.

One of the users who used to have contact with Colton in their old friend group said they think Colton may have already been aware of them being in the camp before, so Colton would know not join as per the agreement made by him and users of the defunct friend group.

The user claims they don't exactly remember if Colton knew they were in the season before, but this user was near the top of the server list either way, because of their performance ingame.

When Colton got verified, she should have been able to notice the user and leave to avoid trouble.(as per the agreement.) But she did not.*

*(this user also advertised the server in another server(That server being a LARGE server full of OSC members) that Colton was/still is constantly active in. He joined the server much later.)

(To add onto this, a user that also is uncomfortable with Colton's presence had joined just a day before. It seems as though Colton may have been ignoring the agreement on purpose.)

The server owner was nearly bombarded (?) with multiple requests from either currently competing contestants, contestants from other seasons, or spectators to have Colton removed from the server.

A player in Camp 3 who was friends with both Colton and a person of the defunct Friend group (at the time) had convo with the user.

- I would like to note this user ended up not being a great person.

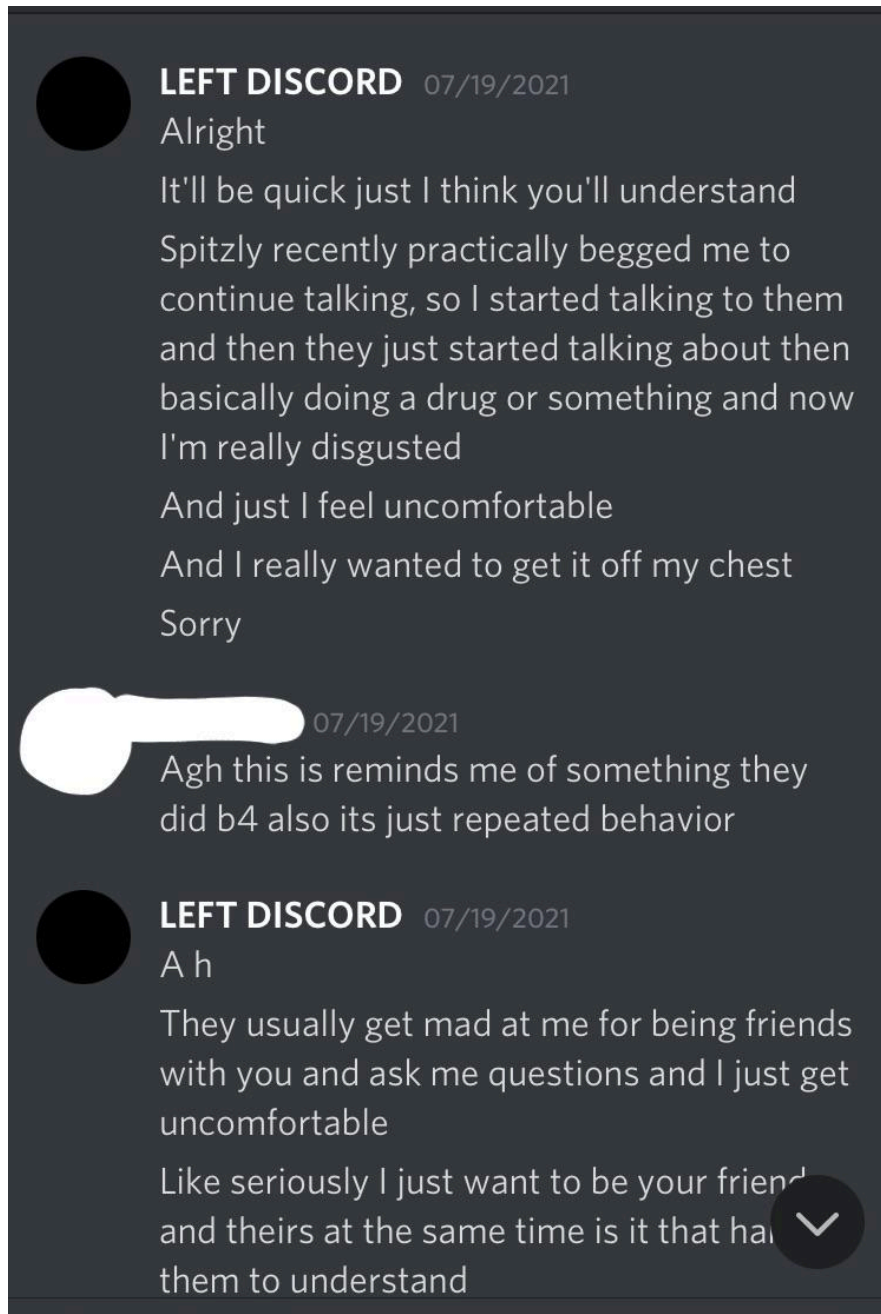

The player would occasionally vent about their interactions with Colton.

They bring up things like:

- getting flirted with a being uncomfortable
 - Asked to RP (and even ERP)
- Being forced into an uncomfortable relationship with him

I cannot contact this person myself so this information is from someone who has talked with the user.

Eventually they share that they snapped at Colton, this before they got banned from the camp server.

Continuing on, Colton gets banned.

Colton has a melt down and tells a bunch of his friends about it, who then go after the user who he believes got him banned. Notice I say USER, one person. this person happens to be the original creator of the friend group. Colton's friends target this person immediately by blowing up their dms, harassing, screaming and yelling at this person.

This person was offline at the time Colton was banned, as they had left to take a break for a few hours because the situation was already getting heated

One of the messages + conversations had with a friend of Colton and the user ok hi ure online

what exactly do you want from me

07/08/2021
Simple, stop banning him from literally every server he enters

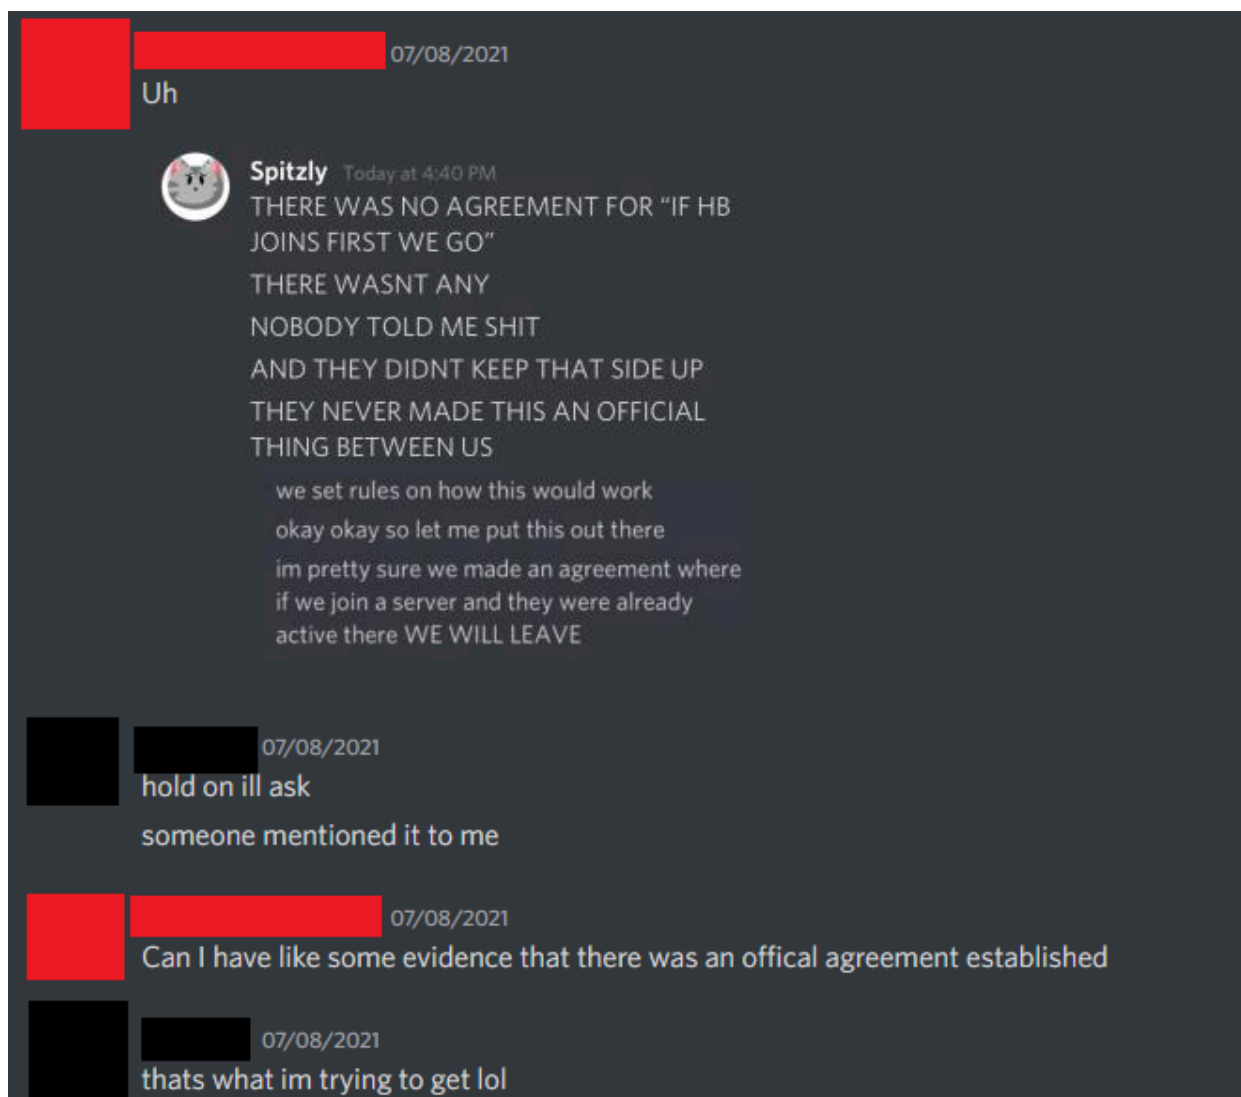

07/08/2021
has he not told you that we set rules on how this would work okay okay so let me put this out there im pretty sure we made an agreement where if we join a server and they were already active there WE WILL LEAVE same way the other way around they didnt live up to their part. we have been in that server for several months

07/08/2021
Okay well maybe tell your friends to do the same specifically

07/08/2021
what did do

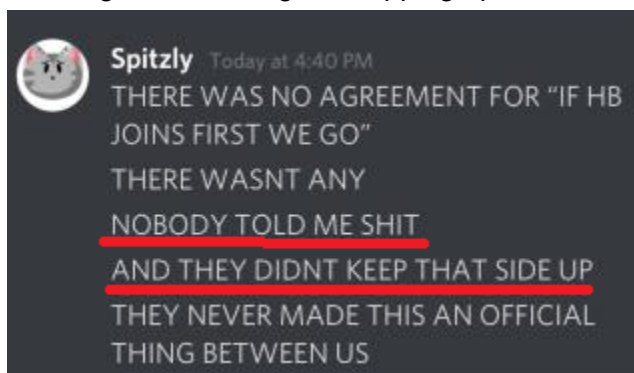

07/08/2021
Witch-hunt HB
Basically go into servers ban HB and leave

07/08/2021
okay yeah thats too much i didnt know did that

(before this continues id like to point out something)

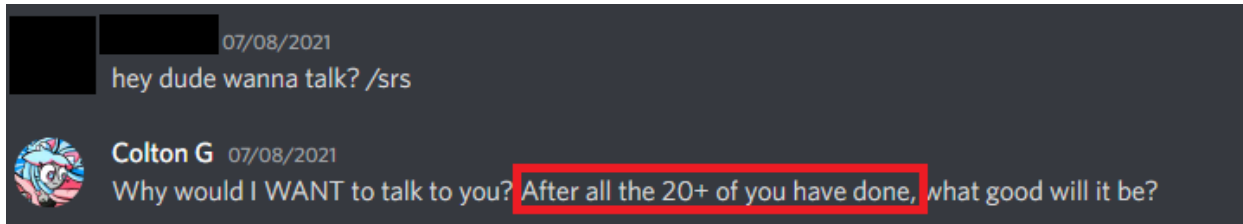

Notice how he mentions "Nobody told me shit" but then he quickly says "They didn't keep that side up" as if it was already existing. The agreement was a real thing. Colton is flat out flying about not knowing it was a thing and tripping up in the next sentence.

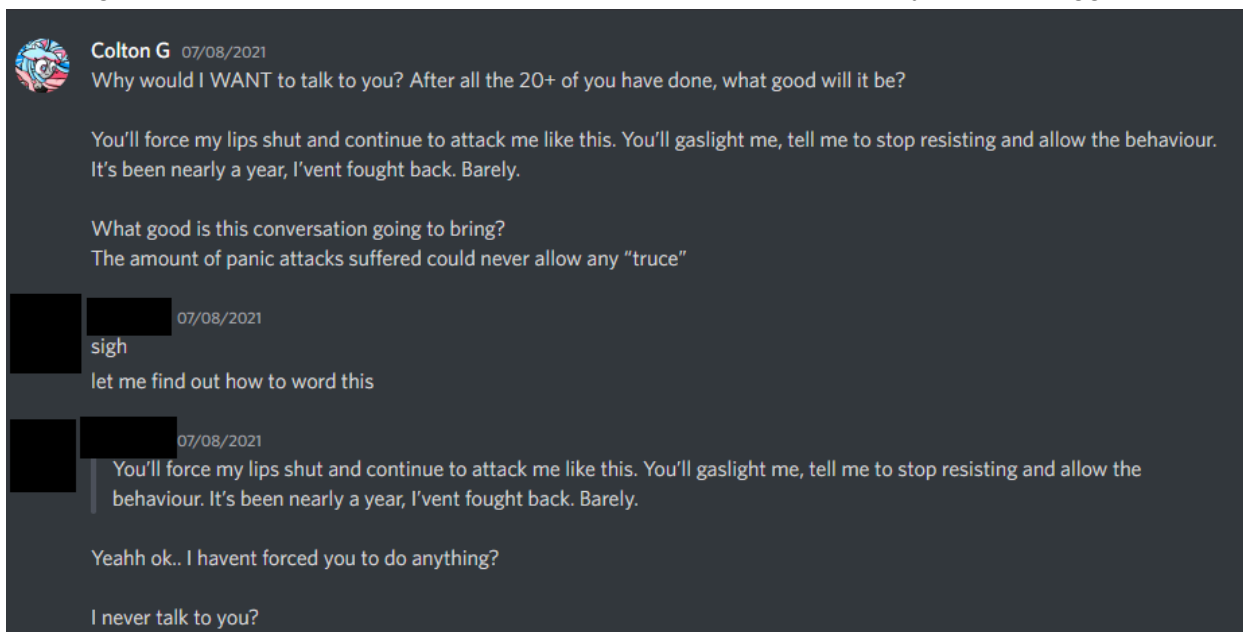

User who originally discussed this agreement with him is someone who I'm in contact with right now, preparing detailed explanations with screenshots soon.

He gives a number. 20+ people have been affected, this is probably not an exaggeration.

Yeah its been nearly a year and i have to sit and watch my friends suffer because you pop up everywhere you know we might be(sorry if that seemed like im assuming ure looking for us i know thats not how it is, but honestly, just think about the types of servers we usually are in).

I think i said i got into camp evil to you (when i was in ur server) *dont quote me on this i saidi think

And im pretty sure someone made a deal with you about joining servers?(still waiting for proof of this btw)

I joined the 48 hour object show short film server, whatever its called, and left because you were there and already active. I wanted to respect your space. But that totally didnt happen in camp evil, i was in a whole season (TO THE FINALE.) so me and multiple people were there waaaaaay long before you joined. its not like when u got there u couldnt see our roles.

we were still there being active during the beginning of this new season. Ive heard multiple people say they were uncomfortable with you in the server (contestants) u talked about the situation(without details but it was obvious) like why couldnt you read the room (this isnt supposed to be rude btw). You also dragged someone into it and they said to me that it impacted their mental health too. My god. Camp evil was definitely THE WRONG SERVER for you to join.

1: Am I not allowed to just go where I want? I'm not allowed to be free to stay where I WANT to stay without having to worry about people breathing down my neck?

2: My friends and crew in my show are working there, I want to be able to cheer them on. Again, I should have a right to be where I want to be without some people tossing me out. I know that was you in Camp.EXE, and Eroded, and so many others. I HAVE A RIGHT TO BE WHERE I WANT

3: Again, I have no memory of anyone making an agreement of this "join-leave" thing. Additionally you very much were in the film server for a very very long time, not "immediately after noticing me" as you claim.

4: I DIDNT WANT TO TALK ABOUT THE SITUATION. That was out of my control. And why shouldn't I anyways? Are you worried people will finally realize how horrible it is to conspire against someone endlessly.

"Why do you think you'll get harassed for posting your prediction publicly"

"I don't want to say it"

"But whyyyyyyyyyyyyyyyyyy"

"Why didn't you draw some of the contestants" (says the one who blocked me just like every other server owner you toy with)

"I didn't feel comfortable"

"We have some people left"

"I DONT FEEL COMFORTABLE WITH THOSE PEOPLE I JUST SAID"

I didn't want to talk about it, I'm too soft to resist in situations like that.

What you guys did when I hardly knew anything, when I tried to fix it with others, when I was being legitimately mistaken and was never Watch how he phrases things, asking the user multiple questions about how they feel. This is gaslighting; blending false info with truth, making them question their own reality, and basically making someone believe they are wrong. This example is not 100% obvious for a normal person that it is a form of gaslighting, I can assure you this is not the first time he has done it.

This is a common abuser and manipulator move. Later on you can see the effects of these messages on the user he is talking to.

This is not the first time Colton has used gaslighting and manipulation on someone who disagrees with his actions, this is something she does constantly.

told, it's traumatized me, it's part of my lifestyle to think about it.

5: I had no choice but to forewarn who I could.

I have just the same rights as you do to join and stay in a server.

You KNOW the doc is mostly false and you still throw claims around.

You're dragging people into this yourself by bringing the situation to mod teams who otherwise would have known nothing, you hypocrite.

YOU WENT INTO DMS BEHIND MY FUCKING BACK, BOOSTING THE NUMBERS, AND THATS WHY "SO MANY PEOPLE ARE UNCOMFORTABLE" YOU LIED TO THEM ALL

Accusing. Colton accuses this user of introducing the masses to this situation, this user, as a fact (can/will be proven by screenshot evidence if needed) has only contacted 3 mods about this situation who specifically ask in the rules of their servers to let them know if anybody who's done terrible actions is dwelling in their servers.

This user was quiet about the whole situation. The user has never reached out to random people to "Boost the numbers", the only people who they talked to about this situation was "people who reached out to (them) specifically or people who were already involved"

Colton flat out lies, attempting to gaslight the user again repeating
"YOU LIED"

"YOU KNOW YOU LIED"

Referring to how he spreads around the false narrative that the creator of the doc "admitted to lying and it being fake". This is false, this user hasn't talked to Colton in months or anybody about the doc in months, the doc contains screenshots that have been proven to be real and those same messages are still up and able to be shown.

Only time they talked to him since he moved accounts (also showing mutual servers, 2 of which he was banned from but unbanned from later on(for unknown reasons))

sorry i dont have the energy for this rn lol

1- never said you couldnt but like ok

2- yeah you do have the right to be where you want yah know if ure not hurting anyone while ure there and talking about harmful ahem "drama" or making vague statements about it where we can see.

3. yeah its fine if u dont remember ill just ask someone for proof it doesnt really matter at this point. i dont servers like that so im sorry i didnt see and leave sooner

4- we dont conspire against you constantly? im not worried about anything (i would say bestie but thats like completely the opposite of what im going for)

What you guys did when I hardly knew anything, when I tried to fix it with others, when I was being legitimately mistaken and was never told, it's traumatized me, it's part of my lifestyle to think about it. youre legit older than us? i dont understand how u didnt know that stuff wasnt okay?

i only went out of my way to message like 2-3 people (i think) . i didnt say anything to anyone else (unless they legit came to me) also i reach(ed) out to mods for a reason? what did i lie about.

Colton G 07/08/2021

1- never said you couldnt but like ok

You didn't say but you DID SHOW that several times over by getting me, yknow BANNED IN COUNTLESS SERVERS

2- yeah you do have the right to be where you want ... or making vague statements about it where we can see.

Okay, good, you just agreed with the fact I can go where I want, but you still went out of your way to kick me out. In all the servers you contradicted yourself in, I'd hardly caused any harm or talked about this at all. Really I don't vaguely speak about this in many places, but why can't I. It's not like I'm directly saying names here. Additionally these convos are with people who have things to contribute, I'm not gonna pass up an opportunity to converse with people who understand.

This is what I mean by shutting my mouth, I can talk about what I want within the rules, or what mods themselves allow. I'm not going to be limited by what you want me to say. ?

4- we dont conspire against you constantly? im not worried about anything (i would say bestie but thats like completely the opposite of what im going for)

I received excerpts and scs showing that you guys brought me up in that friend server for just about anything I do. You're really talking about me an awful lot during casual convo youre legit older than us? i dont understand how u didnt know that stuff wasnt okay?

First off dont ignore the fact you and your friends actively traumatized me Jesus Christ

(Friends who were “sweet and nothing but fun to be around” were friends who didn't talk about anything as heavy as he did on the server, who still were young teenagers, who looked to him because she was an older figure they followed behind.)

Now listen, you're really wrong with the point above.
I know I'm older, but the amount of time I spend on this earth doesn't mean I'm going to know exactly what's wrong and what isn't. I'm being raised with practically zero independence by a verbally, mentally, and physically abusive parent.
I've got no social skills because I'm disallowed from going to parties or any outside gathering with people my age, and you very much know I'd undergone a lot of mental brainfucks. I'd even been solving 4+ people's problems in a dedicated gc, and hardly any of them helped back. I had to endure mom screaming and hitting me several times, enough that I'd gone insane. I've got neurodivergence but there's no way to diagnose.
The people I did know are frequent participants in nsfw behaviour, and I've seen that they were always cheered on for it, so I tried to learn from them. When the first gc was made it hadn't been long since I stopped thinking nsfw was disgusting, but still didn't know much about it. In school they teach how to prevent disease and pregnancy, not how to act around others.
I was wrong of course, but I pretty much had no way of knowing anything.

I dont have social cues worked into my brain as perfectly as you do, you can't expect me to be perfect at this (still young) age. Maybe you were luckier, but I don't know jackshit.
I'm trying to grow, you're telling everyone I can't. No matter how much I've apologized to others and changed, you won't give me a chance and stay on the attack.

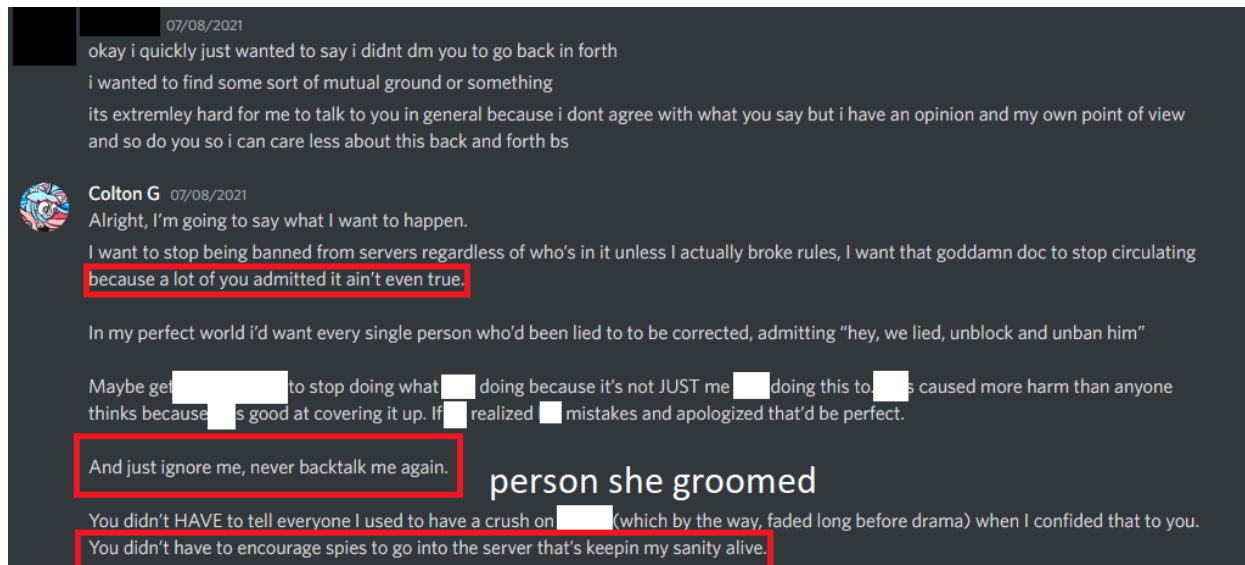

I even tried making a getaway with “someone else” to quickly use a source of rapid popularity to flee. Regardless of who was in there, many were able to rise to fame by talking there.. But no, you guys tracked me down and put an end to just escaping without having to deal with more struggle Trauma is not an excuse for anyone's actions and behavior.

Colton is again playing the manipulative blame game, if one repeats something enough, people will believe it's true.

The user he is talking to has said multiple times (not in front of him but to peers) “you/he refuses to change” or “he isn't/hasn't changed”.

“A lot of you admitted it aint even true” proves Colton doesn't know what he's talking about, only 2-3 people worked on the previous doc. Colton has only had contact with one of the people who wrote this doc since it came out. This person has never said that it was all lies and fake. And once again, all the info in that doc is being/been proved right in the doc you are reading right now.

“And just ignore me, never backtalk me again”

He says this as the user is someone he owns. She acts like they're the parent and the overall authority of this user.

Colton wanted to be in control. After he sent this message, he blocked the user despite saying stop blocking him. Colton controlled the conversation the whole time, trauma dumped, and was the one to end and close the conversation when the user had something else to say.

This is not how you end a year long situation dealing with manipulation and grooming. You don't get to just walk away.

Reported to Discord (EXPLAINED)

During late 2021, when the situation was at its peak once again, a member of the old group chat would move on to Discord and review the Terms of Service to see if they can get Colton banned entirely, as he was still walking around in the OSC, despite the numerous things he's done.

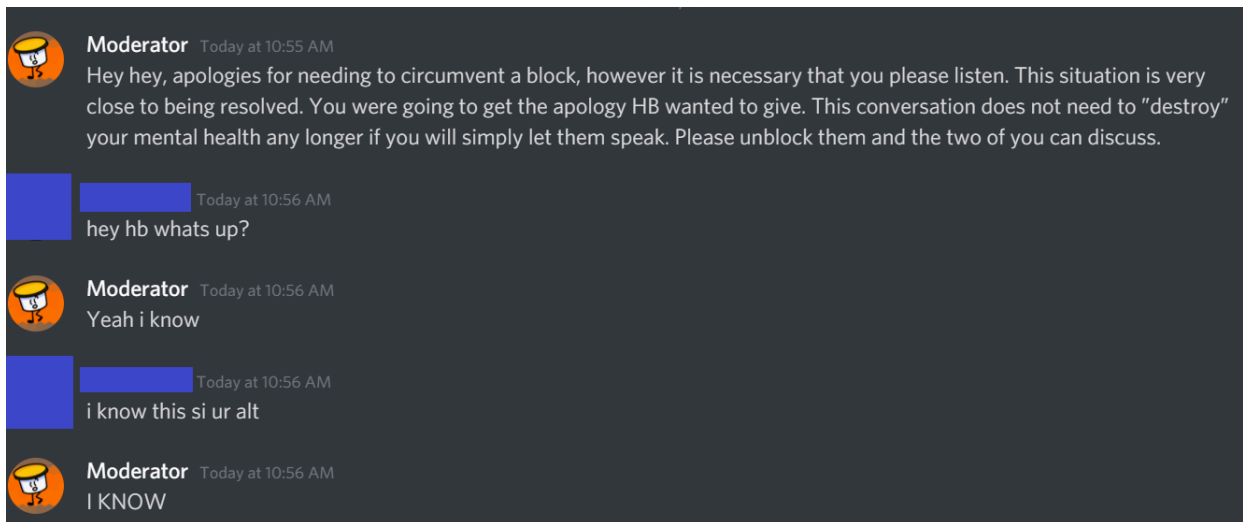

This user wrote up something for the moderators at Discord to review and sent over the proof. Originally, Discord was doing their job, Colton's age was mentioned in the report so Discord locked Colton's discord as an attempt to get his age verified. While this is happening, Colton rages and rants on her twitter about the entire situation, making up lies and false claims (when quite frankly, no one asked). Colton sent over the info and the account got unlocked, but nothing happened to her account after that.

It can only be assumed the case was dropped because of a fault at Discord's support team.

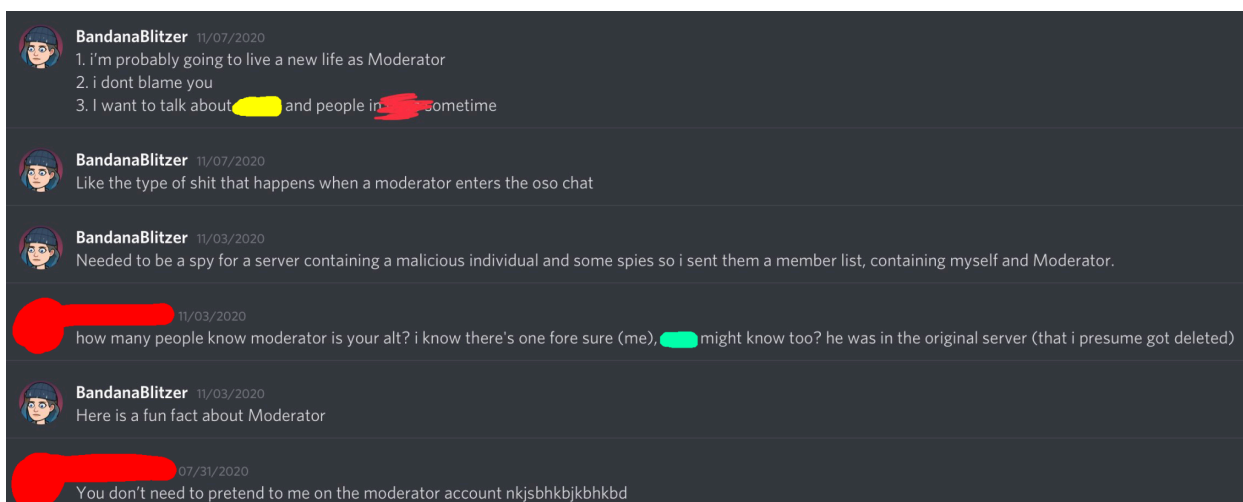

Another possibility is that Colton contacted support about it, and they may have misunderstood the age verification as it being used for something else, such as the account being locked to verify purchases*, leading to a work around a pending case being investigated.

*this happens often - this is why I'm using it as an example.

Pretending

Colton has tried reaching out to people using his alt, Moderator, and pretends to be a whole other person.

Additional proof he is Moderator.

Conversation below is Colton talking to someone who is in a friend group with multiple people who were in the old one Colton was originally in. This person did not know about the situation at all, the friends hadn't even shared that Colton was an unsafe individual to be around and did not discuss the drama with them until they were approached by Colton himself.

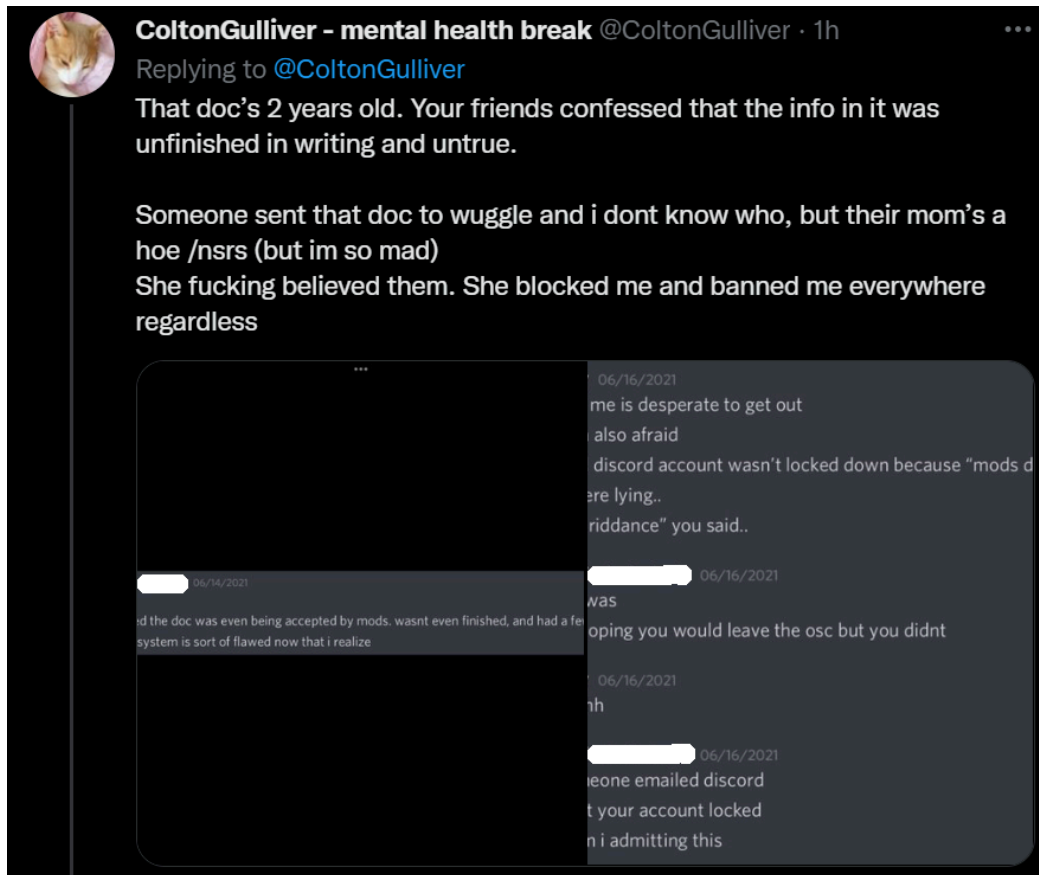

Responding to Colton

Colton very recently just made a thread about the victims he had severely affected. In this section, this thread will be archived, and I will also debunk his claims and statements.

<https://twitter.com/ColtonGulliver/status/1578948337482444800?s=20>

The only sort of discrimination and hatred Colton has really only faced was the consequences of his actions, which this entire document is about.

Although unfinished and flawed, It is very definitely true. Again, what's mentioned in the old document was written by 13-14 year olds, of course it would have multiple issues, but that doesn't make it any less true.

I'm not aware about those statements spreading like wildfire, before the creation of this document at least. Just because you're asexual does not mean your sexual and fetish comments and actions no longer have any meaning. Being asexual does not stop you from being a groomer.

Those “jokes” were never jokes. They were usually left unresponded or had a negative response from everyone in that friend server. Everyone who saw the old document did know what was truly in it, it makes no sense for moderators and others to not read the doc and assume you’re gross, it has proof. You just faced the consequences of your actions.

Positive actions do not forgive the numerous people you’ve hurt. People did ask if the old doc was true, most may not have directly asked you, but many who saw the old document read your response to it, and some stayed your friends. This is an outright lie.

Yes. Positive actions do not forgive the numerous people you’ve hurt. Your actions will always have consequences, that is the reality every single person faces.

Additional Victims Speak Out

With the creation of this document, 50+ victims have reached out, both publicly and privately. Their experiences are collectively archived and can be read here:

 An Extension of Colton/Spitzly's History of Manipulation and Grooming

Conclusion

Colton is involved and is friends with some high profile OSC members who have sadly been defending her in servers and unbanning her. Colton does not and should not be in the OSC or online for that matter.

The bottom line is that he has groomed and hurt many people!

This doc has been 9 months in the making
(Originally started writing Jan 12 2022 - finished October 9 2022)
A lot of time and care has been put into making this document.

Thank you for reading this long document, I hope you understand and sympathize with the victims. This document took the work and revisions of a whole team, 8+ people who were all victims and involved.

This is just from the info they know and can share.
