

AMERICA'S NEXT ~~top model~~ MMA fighter

Season One, Episode Three

I'm Tyra Banks and welcome to the third episode of the first season of America's Next Top MMA Fighter. This is my show, my rules and everything that happens here is my decision.

I have two judges with me, they will each be responsible for training and helping these 14 remaining girls on their journey to becoming America's Next Top MMA Fighter.

Paulina Porizkova will take care of the very important modelling and physical presentation side of the UCC equation.

Christie Brinkley will deal with the physical cage fighting side of the equation.

In each episode we will push these Bikini fighters to their limits. They will be tested on their fighting prowess and their modelling skills. They will be judged by myself, Paulina and Christie.

In our last episode we kicked out Tabria Majors. She had to return to the Model House, pack her belongings and get the fuck outta my sight.

Tonight I'm stepping this competition up. Tonight two girls will be eliminated. Who will be going home with their bikini in their suitcase and their tail between their legs?

MMA Training with Christie Brinkley

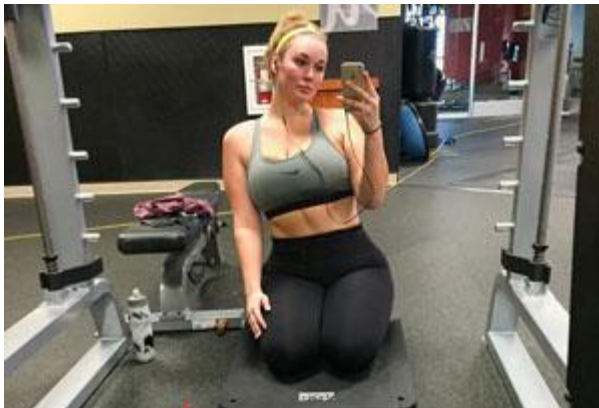

This time around I had all the girls wear black yoga pants. I didn't want any of them to feel special, I wanted to even the playing field.

We continued working on being able to post to Instagram while working out.

Some of the girls did better than others, those that tried to use filters were made to do 100 press ups. If you're going to filter your posts, at least make them look natural.

I enlisted the help of a couple of men. The girls need to make sure they turn heads as well as work up a sweat. A model has to be on her best form, 24/7.

Bikini Modelling with Paulina Porizkova

It's wonderful that all of our contestants look great in a bikini or one piece. In the water or covered in sand, they look amazing.

But quite often as a professional model you need to go one step further, you need to show more skin.

I'm not talking about exposing your breasts or vagina to the camera. That would be porn, something that the ladies in Centerfold Angels might do. But not fitting for a professional swimwear model.

You've got to flaunt your assets. Your ass and your boobs, but you've got to be skillful and tasteful. Teasing, but erotic. Without becoming sleazy or cheap.

Lesson Two: Sexy, not Sleazy. Showing that butt and boobs.

Ladies, this time around I'm going to be showing you that even at my age you can still flaunt your body and not look like a $5 hooker.

Judging with Tyra Banks

Now it's time for me and the other judges to review and cast our votes.

In front of me I have 14 girls. 14 talented girls who all want to fight inside a UCC cage and wear the uniform of a Death By Bikini warrior.

But not all of you have what it takes. Today, not one, but two of you will go home.

In my hand I have photographs of only 12 girls. These are the best shots you took with Paulina in your 'Sexy, not sleazy' challenge.

Let's start with the best photographs.

Jasmyn, you blew all of us away with your two photographs this episode.

In your butt photo, that ass looks so tight I could bounce nickles off it. And the way you're pulling on that strap! Too damn hot for television!

The judges and I know that you're pulling that bikini bottom the same way you did for your first shoot. You do it so perfectly that we're all willing to give you top photograph, but don't try to repeat a photograph ever again.

As for your topless shot. Near perfection! Using one arm to cover both your breasts is a skill every model should have in her arsenal.

Your angles are amazing in both photos. The light is catching your body and you look sexy, fit and dangerous!

Damn! I said "DAMN!". You go, girlfriend!

Jasmyn, your photographs are incredible this episode and that's why you're top model. But I have spoken to both Christie and Paulina and they aren't entirely happy with your attitude in the gym and on the beach.

You're talking back to them and ignoring their advice. Jasmyn, you do so at your own peril!

I will not have girls in this competition who disrespect the judges or myself. No matter how amazing her photographs might be. Jasmyn, this is your first and last warning.

For now, congratulations. You're safe and still in the running to be America's Next Top MMA Fighter.

Now it's time to look at the girls who also impressed the judges this week. When I call you by name, please step forward. You will all be safe in the competition, keep up the good work.

Let's start with the next best butt shots.

Robin, you've yet again improved on your previous efforts! Wearing a one piece suit can be risky, but you look amazing. This was a great choice of color for you and once again you're using a prop. That look back over your shoulder at the camera...it's melting the lens! Great work.

Camille, posing like you are in this shot is not easy. But you've made it look effortless. Your ass cheeks look fantastic. You gave us strong photos last time and you've backed it up again this time around. This is solid work. Well done.

Anne, this is yet again a great photo! Using your long hair to cover your breasts is a great technique. Paulina told me that it was a windy day and your hair was blowing around. But you persevered until you got this shot. Well done.

Let's take a look at the topless photos of Camille and Robin.

Both of you are giving me hand bra shots.

And you both look amazing. Camille, you're pushing your breasts up and together at the same time. That's a great technique and coupled with you emerging from the water, you look so sexy it's a crime!

Robin, once again you are smouldering in your photo. Crossing your arms like that, you're giving me just that little bit extra, and I love it!

After having top photo two episodes in a row, Jasmyn took that title from you this time, Anne. But it was a close competition! Your butt looks so hot here it's insane. And the way you're teasing us with pulling your pants down? That's art!

Let's head upstairs and look at topless shots for you three girls.

All three of you have excelled in this episode. Anne, try and get back into that top spot. Camille and Robin, keep up the great work. All three of you are safe from elimination. Please go and stand with Jasmyn.

These next four girls also impressed us. When I call you by name, step forward. You're all safe from elimination this week.

Once again, Kelsey you're modelling well and turning in solid photographs.

The topless shot of you is nice, but you're covering up a lot of skin. We're not looking for sleazy, but you could be a little more sexual.

On the other hand, your butt shot is amazing! Those sandy handprints on your cheeks are just the ticket. Well done, you're still in the running to be America's Next Top MMA Fighter.

Chase, last episode we were all concerned that you weren't taking this seriously. The other judges and I thought you looked like you were on holiday.

Thank you for turning that around.

Your ass shot is wonderful, not only does your butt look good, but those legs are so fine. Mmm Mmm.

And your topless shot is great. Using your arms to push your boobs together. Very good work.

Next up we have Raven. Raven, Raven, Raven. OMG girl, how cute do you look? I could just eat you up with a spoon!

Taking a topless photo, you have to be careful how you pose. How your face looks. In your photo you look cute and innocent. But sexy, too. You're the total package here. Well done, girlfriend.

Your ass shot is great too, plus you're topless again. No complaints from me on that score.

You've stepped it up this episode and it shows. Both Christie and Paulina have been saying great things about you. Keep it up, Raven you're still in the running to be America's Next Top MMA Fighter.

Also continuing to impress the judges is...Olivia.

Two more solid photographs for you, Olivia. But all they are is solid. I'm expecting more from you. Next time I want to see 100% commitment. I want to look at you and go weak at the knees. I want to look at your photographs and be so turned on that my nipples get hard. Can you do that for me, Olivia?

These next two girls will continue on in this competition. If I call your name, please step forward, take your photographs and go stand with the others. You'll be safe for another week.

Both of you have potential, but the judges and I aren't sure you have what it takes.

Haley, we'll start with you. Congratulations, you're safe and still in this competition.

You delivered a couple of solid photographs and there's nothing wrong with these shots.

If you were with Centerfold Angels, these would be considered top quality images.

But Death By Bikini needs more than just good photographs.

You need to do better, or else you might just end up fighting for those scrubs at the Angels.

It's a bit of a comedown for someone from the last episode. Hunter, you were so strong when you posed with sand and water, but this time all we got from you was a topless shot.

Don't get me wrong, Hunter. This is an amazing photograph. You're working your hands beautifully with the hand bra. Kneeling in the water and playing to your strengths. The way that wave is crashing against your tree trunk like thigh is just perfection.

It's like a tsunami crashing against the White Cliffs of Dover.

Breathtaking.

But you failed to deliver on a rear end photograph. We know you have a gigantic ass. Girl! Don't let that stop from showing off that fine figure of yours!

You're safe for now, Hunter. You can join Haley and the others.

Only four girls remain standing in front of me. But I only have photographs of two models left in my hand.

Two of you will be leaving the Model House today.

You four represent the worst of the training and modelling this week. And it wasn't difficult for the judges and I to reach our decision. I spit in the general direction of all four of you. We saw potential in all of you and you failed.

If I call your name, you are still in the running to be America's Next Top MMA Fighter.

Jasmine. You are safe.

But only just.

These photos are just boring. They're dull. And you have so much potential.

I look at you and I see a sexy woman who wants to kick ass, eat tacos and smoke cigars.

But when I look at these photos, I see nothing but boredom.

You are on thin ice.

But you are safe.

Also safe this time is Tara Lynn.

Tara, the only great shot we had of you was this topless one. Now, we all like that you are naked and lying on the sand. That's a great commitment, but we need more from you.

You fell into the same trap as Hunter. You're a plus size girl who doesn't want to show her rump.

Girl, you gotta show what God gave ya!

Tara, you are safe from elimination. You're still in the running to be America's Next Top MMA Fighter.

That brings us to the last two girls in front of me. Both of you have, for better or worse, been eliminated from this competition.

Olivia, we love you. But this is not a great photo. That hat is covering far too much of your beautiful body. We know you can go far as a model, but you're just not ready to mix modelling and cage fighting.

Head back home, spend some time with your dog or cat or whatever. Think about what you can do to be better. Or, go get a job working in retail.

Kate, you too have been eliminated. While the judges and I applaud you for taking a butt shot, this is not what we're looking for.

You look like some random girl, hanging out by the water. Hoping for someone to deliver you a sandwich.

Kate, you struggled last episode and we're not seeing any improvement. To be blunt, you kinda suck.

Both Olivia and Kate, you are eliminated.

You must both now return to the Model House, pack up your shit and get the fuck outta my sight.
