

ACCESSING VENICE VR EXPANDED 2021 ON VIVEPORT

Viveport is HTC VIVE's virtual reality app store and subscription service. We're available in 70 countries and support the following PC VR headsets via SteamVR:

- VIVE Original, VIVE Pro/Pro 2, VIVE Cosmos & Cosmos Elite
- Oculus Rift + Rift S
- Oculus Quest Link (USB-C & WiFi)
- Valve Index
- Windows Mixed Reality (HP Reverb, Asus, Dell, etc...)
- Other SteamVR native headsets (e.g. Pimax)

Prerequisites:

- You will need to create a Viveport account to access Venice VR Expanded 2021 content (Viveport accounts require a valid email address). If you have an existing Viveport account, please login without creating a new account.
- You will also need a Steam account and will need to have SteamVR installed.
- If using an Oculus device, you will need to enable "unknown sources" within Oculus' Desktop client to launch Viveport content.
- In order to access the Venice International Film Festival content, you will need your personal content redeem code provided as part of your Festival Accreditation. Please register and login to your Boxol account to request your code.

Headset Specific Setup Instructions:

A detailed guide to all Viveport supported headsets can be found here:

<https://www.viveport.com/supports-all-major-headsets>

- VIVE Devices: Download and install Vive Hardware/Software installer.
- Oculus Rift / Rift S / Oculus Quest Link: The festival's content is supported via SteamVR. Oculus devices require "unknown sources" to be enabled within the Oculus app settings. Please refer to this guide for detailed instructions on using Oculus devices with Viveport.
- Valve Index
- Windows Mixed Reality: Download and install the WMR portal, SteamVR, and WMR for SteamVR Plugin. Note - not all content may work with WMR headsets - each content's store page lists what devices that content is compatible with.

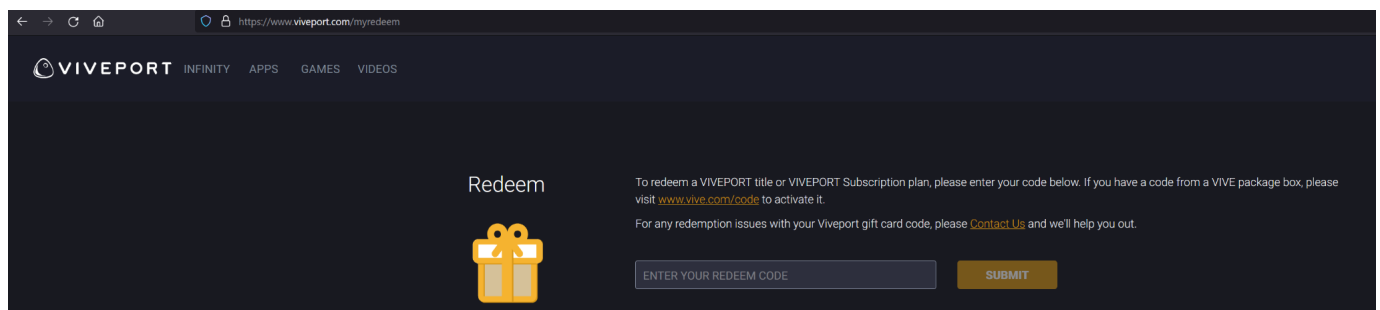

Hardware support inherently varies from title to title. Please always reference a given title's store page to confirm if a given VR headset is supported by any specific piece of content.

HOW TO DOWNLOAD, INSTALL AND LAUNCH VENICE FESTIVAL CONTENT

- 1) If not previously installed, you must first download the Viveport PC client via www.viveport.com or directly via this link. You will need to sign into (or register) for both a Steam account, as well as a Viveport account.

- 2) Open the Viveport PC client and log in. You need a valid email address to set up a free Viveport account. You will not need to input credit card details for the checkout.
- 3) To access the Venice Festival content, navigate to www.viveport.com/myredeem, or on the desktop client via the “Redeem” option accessible by clicking on your profile picture to open the client’s menu. You must then input your unique content redeem code. This code is provided by the Venice Accreditations office, and is unique to you.

- 4) Once your code is accepted, you will be presented with a shopping cart checkout screen that asks for several inputs to proceed. Your shopping cart should have a zero balance and reflect that a discount code has been applied. Since no payment is required, you'll need to simply input your email address (and zip code), check the Terms of Use box, and click “PLACE YOUR ORDER”.
