The First Round

About the experience

What can I expect from the event?

The First Round (formerly Imperfect Strangers) is a weekly event designed to help individuals expand their social circles. It offers a relaxed environment where participants can engage in meaningful conversations with like-minded people, facilitated by smart matching and engaging questions.

Do I need to complete the questionnaire?

Yes, it is mandatory to answer the questionnaire at least 48 hours before the event starts, you won't be able to attend without it and it'll be considered a cancellation with the possibility of rescheduling.

How are groups formed?

Groups are formed based on the responses to the questionnaire you complete after booking. The aim is to match you with individuals who share similar interests and preferences, enhancing the quality of interactions.

What should I expect during the event?

Expect an evening of engaging conversations, fun games, and the opportunity to meet new people in a relaxed setting. The event is designed to eliminate awkward small talk and foster genuine connections.

Is The First Round a dating experience?

The First Round Experience isn't a dating event — it's about meeting interesting people and expanding your social circle in a relaxed, enjoyable setting. If a special connection happens... well, that's entirely up to you!

Can I go if I'm too shy?

Sure! You won't be alone. A host will welcome you and make sure your experience is as fun and smooth as possible!

What age range can I expect at my The First Round table?

We aim to have a 5 to 15-year age range at each table. However, the age variation may depend on the number of participants in your city. The range tends to be narrower in larger cities, while smaller cities may have a wider age range.
