~Non-Commercial work~

Thank you for taking interest in my work. Here I will cover everything you need to know before requesting any art related work from me. These terms apply on any social platform you contact me on. These terms apply to the artist (Dani) and the Client (you) work by Dani Grillo is licensed under a Creative Commons Attribution-NonCommercial 4.0 International License.

“Non-commercial work” is defined as the artwork will not be reproduced commercially, sold, be used as concept art for a game, put on t-shirts for sale ,etc. The work made is for personal use only, (meaning you may print it and display it but please give credit when needed) . Artwork shall not be used for Learning model training or any kind of “AI” generative programs. For Commercial work please email me to discuss prices.

To get in contact with me you can PM me or send me an email at contact(at)danigrillo.com

Terms:

By commissioning me you accept the terms listed on this document.

1. Email/PM me with your commission inquiry, include as much detail as possible.
2. Once approved you will submit the necessary references, description, pose and email address.
3. Upon reviewing the information I will send you an invoice .
4. Once I have received payment I will start working on sketches and send you a preliminary sketch for review before moving on to inks/final.
5. Make sure you use an email/telegram where you can be reached, not answering for long periods of time can delay the work from being finished

6. After multiple attempts of reaching out for revisions without an answer you will have 7 days from my last message to reply with any comment/changes to the piece. After that I will continue working on the piece AS IS and any changes will incur a $5 fee.
7. Upon finishing the commissions I will send you a full size version of the piece for your personal enjoyment and a smaller watermarked/signed version for you to use online.
8. Turnaround time will vary depending on my current workload at my job and any other commissions I'm working on at the time, you are welcome to inquire about the status of your commission.

Please DO NOT share the full size image online to avoid art thieves, only use the smaller watermarked version provided and always give me credit for the work.

Other things to consider:

This is not required for you to read but it is encouraged.

- You must give me credit when displaying the drawing anywhere. You can simply put my website (danigrillo.com) or username @danigrilloart .If it's a NSFW commission please refer to the NSFW section further down this document for crediting instructions, DO NOT credit my website for these types of commissions.
- I reserve the right to reject commissions if they're offensive or if I simply cannot perform the idea.
- If you're paying for someone else . Please let me know and give me their contact info (unless it's a surprise of course).
- These terms may be revised at any time . Latest revision date is located at the top of document
- If you're ordering a Ref sheet: be aware that these take a long time due to the amount of drawings that have to be made and communication between the client and the artist. Estimated time for completing a ref sheet on average is 1-2 months.
- I may display the commission on my social media and website for portfolio purposes. If you do not wish it to be public a privacy fee will be added (see below), if you rather remain anonymous the work will be published without the client's name (no additional fee).

- I may stream my work in progress on your commission on my Twitch page . (This exclude those commissions that have been paid a privacy fee)
- You are not allowed to make commercial copies of the artwork (printing it for yourself is fine!), claim it as yours or sell/distribute it in any way. They are meant to be for personal use only.(For commercial work please email me first!)
- If there's a deadline for the commission you must let me know , I will try my best to fulfill it by the required time but be aware that I might have other commissions ahead of yours.
